Hi Judy:

Just a note you let you know I am no longer Associated with AC. (Praise the Lord)

Bitter departure between Tim and I.

I have absolutely no hesitation in recruiting any current or past AC rep.

I have copied and pasted our bitter email exchanges over the last few days.

I never want to hear the name Tim Darnell again.

We will not be home until 9:45 tonight. I will give you a call and you can bring me up to date with your progress at NAA

Let's make lot's of money and show Tim we can do it without him and his deceitful ways.

~~Jack~~

PS

Start at the bottom to read the emails in the proper sequence.

Amidst the multitude of positive, empowering, respectful, exciting, Spirit-filled, Christ-centered messages I get on a daily basis, there will unfortunately be one like yours that we'll receive once every two months or so.

A much better tack would have been to simply say you're going to start being active, attend at least some of the calls, be supportive of the Company, and you could have been re-instated for the matrix commissions. Your option to vulgarly insult, accuse, and harshly demonize is truly an unfortunate and inappropriate choice, especially from someone I've considered to be a friend. You have been completely overtaken by gross negativity and suspicion.

You've been paid every cent you were due, Jack; but to continue receiving benefit from any Company, you need to support that Company and follow its simple and easily do-able Policies and Procedures, something you chose to do in the past. P&P apply to you and every other person who calls himself an Advantage Conferences Representative.

My sincere, best wishes to you and your family.

Blessings,

Tim Darnell

Tim:

I have had a few hours to ponder your email. I simply cannot let your continuous lies, deception, and accusations go without a reply.

Yes I was willing to accept matrix checks because I paid my annual dues and deserve them thru the end of 2007. I do not apologize for my actions.

Tim, if you are honest, which I now find very difficult to believe, you too would have expected to be paid matrix commissions. I now wonder how much money I should have been paid but was never paid because "no qualifying" sales were made. With Jack continuously bragging about making almost a $1,000,000.00, where did all my matrix check funds go???????

If you can have peace about keeping what is rightfully mine or other AC reps, then you do so. It is another one of my suspicions you are desperate for money and will get it at the expense of others.

Your dictatorial regulations for AC Reps are full of BS. I paid my annual dues for 4 years and $ 21,000.00 to get into All Star 4 years ago. A very good friend of my tried to talk me out of paying $21,000.00 to All Star. He said he had done some investigating and the entire All Star company was a scam and all of the All Star officers had tainted reputations. My fault I did not listen to his advice and boy have I paid "hell" for the debt I have encountered over these past 4 years. I can truthfully say I have a 4 year degree in discovering how people can lie, cheat, deceive, and bend any and all circumstances to fit there need. Your "packed calls" are just a tip of the ice berg about deceit. I do not consider 15 to 20 people, if that many, a packed call. I stop listening to your BS remarks weeks ago when I realized your term of a "packed call" was a pack of lies!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Tim, I must give you credit for deceiving so many people over these years. For a long time, I refused to read the website Scam.com. Recently, however, I have read many of the scathing comments about you and others associate with AC. You really have some serious enemies out there ready to get you at all cost. Tim, you might be concern that "what goes around, comes around and usually bites people in the butt.

Yes, I still regard you as an insincere person. You are cold and callous, and most of all a real evil "DICTATOR." Your fine outstanding Christian attitude in your remarks regarding my initial email just confirms my feelings.

I now am finding out what others have been saying for years, "if you cross Tim, you will certainly see his true colors and what he is really is.

God help you Tim. I only trust you will take a real self evaluation of your actions and stop deceiving people. If you don't believe me, take the time and read the recent postings about you and AC. I did not post them. Most, if not all the postings, have come from people you have misrepresented and screwed at Advantage Conferences

I could end my email by your insincere "Blessings". I won't be that hypocritical.

Jack

All that hatred, accusation, name-calling, and vitriol, and yet you are willing to take the checks – apparent to me and everybody else that that was the only reason you were here. I'm glad to get that out in the open.

I simply ask Reps to “show up”, participate and be active, according to you that is the trait of a “dictator” – too much to ask of jackbutler@verizon.net for him to be on the calls like other Reps. I certainly would hate to ask you to produce. Heaven forbid, that would probably be offensive and “dictatorial” as well, wouldn't it? Anybody who hears from management that production and leadership is an expected goal and has issue with those simple, obvious concepts, does need to resign, a mere formality since you had already done so long ago.

Blessings,

Laura:

Thank you for your quick response.

Since I am considered an inactive AC Rep, please remove my name immediately from all future AC emails.

I no longer wish to associate with Advantage Conferences.

Jack Butler

TIM:

I wanted you to have a CC copy of this email.

In summary, there is an old saying "You Can Lead A Horse To Water, But You Can't Make Him Drink"

I refuse to play your manipulative games of trying to force an AC Rep into your "MOLD"

I thought AC was a business choice a person could spend as much or as little time as they felt necessary.

It has taken me four years but I have finally realized, you are no leader but adictator.

I choose to no longer be a part of your manipulative and dictatorial style.

You have run off so many great people who have been a part of AC.

It appears to me you are desperate to keep AC alive by your actions. A desperate person will do most anything in times of real despair. I consider you a desperate person.

I could spend time venting my feelings about you, but I choose to use my time in a more constructive way.

I no longer wish to associate with Advantage Conferences in any way.

Our trash comes tomorrow. I am throwing away every DVD, CD, printed material, etc associated with AC.

No matrix check was mailed to anyone who is inactive. We sent out another reminder of what inactive means so you may review that email.

Laura:

I have not received my matrix check the month of August

What date was my mailed check mailed?

We are still having some problems getting mail delivered on a timely basis.

I would appreciate a reply regarding this matter.

Thank you,

Jack Butler
