Discover how you can get exclusive access to the world's freshest, hottest and most responsive MLM prospects while simultaneously multiplying your monthly income!

Explore this site to find out how TrafficOasis will make your MLM recruiting skyrocket beyond your wildest dreams. More importantly, TrafficOasis will put your downline on recruiting steroids. GUARANTEED!

It's insane!

Every day people spend thousands of dollars on bad leads...

The majority of marketers jump frantically from lead deal to lead deal buying leads from different companies only to find out that they are actually buying the same leads from different suppliers!

..everyone will sooner or later find out that these leads are S-H-A-R-E-D! You're likely to find yourself competing with dozens of other marketers in the crucial follow up. You end up with distracted and irritated prospects in your sales funnel!

...Are you wondering how the heck they get their staggering monthly recruiting results? How they wind up at the top of the charts in their MLM company?

Let me put you at ease first. The secret is not for sale in the next new-kid-on-the-block eBook bomb...eventually leaving you with the painful realization that all of this sophisticated, non-duplicatable stuff has not brought a single soul into your downline!

We're in MLM right? We want to recruit and duplicate, yes? Okay, now that we are on the same page, allow me to get in your face and tell you what we need.

First of all, we need an ongoing source of the freshest and hottest prospects out there, but we need them exclusively and at the peak of their interest. Secondly we need lots of them at the lowest pricing possible!

A huge, steady lead buy-in by yourself?

Not likely! We are talking about a monthly five- to six-figure investment here. Even if you, personally, can afford that kind of investment, you can forget about duplicatability as not many in your downline will be able to do the same thing.

Co-op'ing the source?

YESSS! Gather a few hundred top earners with huge incomes and have them invest in ongoing portions. This makes exclusive leads available to their downlines at affordable prices!

When I came up with this idea...wanted to keep this exclusive asset to themselves.

We've worked out a win-win deal in the form of an extremely lucrative compensation plan... The bigger the co-op, the more advertising we can finance so there's no way this consortium will consume all leads!

We can GUARANTEE you the world's #1 lead source at the lowest pricing possible! TrafficOasis is not a regular MLM Lead Company but a cooperative composed of heavy hitters and their downlines who all share a common interest: providing their downlines with the freshest, most responsive Non-Shared, Pre-Qualified, MLM Leads out there to make their organization spread like wildfire...

You get access to easy-to-manage enrollment formulas and tools to funnel these leads through a state-of-the-art, proven and guaranteed marketing process that will filter out the prospects from the suspects and maximize your chances of enrolling them in your opportunity.

Even better, we have implemented Funded Proposals to make duplication a very lucrative opportunity on its own so that your lead investments rapidly become self-liquidating. The whole thing is so easy that even a 12-year-old could do it! TrafficOasis is truly a Turnkey Solution.

A Funded Proposal is a self-funding marketing campaign: you invest a couple of dozen bucks and earn back your investment or better. It's about being able to advertise endlessly for "FREE" because your marketing keeps bringing you back a profit.

To ensure that you experience the residual monthly income that all multilevel dreams are made of, you need to 100% guarantee yourself that not only can you market for free, but you can earn a profit so that you can compound your advertising campaigns in order to reach broader amounts of people. We have taken care of your front-end sales so that both of these outcomes will happen automatically...

Detailed information about this exciting, revolutionary system will be made available to you after you become a TrafficOasis member, because we have to keep certain techniques out of the reach of non-members.

When you introduce the TrafficOasis CO-OP to others you are placed in a revolutionary Infinite Cycling Matrix™ and Infinite Straight Powerline™ that produce full-time incomes for those who either work the plan or stay in the plan!

Think of how many struggling online marketers would love to make hundreds or even thousands of extra dollars each month by introducing people to a service that they, and other online marketers, desperately need!

Sharing our consortium with your downline is one marketing method that will withstand changes in our industry over time. Regular advertising methods are becoming less effective and harder to duplicate...

Network marketing is really about numbers... "Professionals sort, while amateurs try to convince." Most marketers simply don't have a proven formula for sorting through enough prospects on a monthly basis to create momentum in their organization, and momentum, my friend, is 90% of the game...

Recruiting is down in virtually every home business opportunity in the country. Most have simply not been able to attract and enroll sufficient numbers of people quickly enough to create momentum and sustained growth!

You and your downline need safety in numbers: you need an ongoing stream of the best Pre-Qualified Leads possible. Once you have enough people to share your opportunity with, you have mastered the game.

That's called The S.I.N.A.L.O.A. Principle: Safety In Numbers And The Law Of Averages. Our TrafficOasis consortium can make sure your downline is flooded with enrollees, even on a daily basis.

Our automated formula creates several hoops for prospects to jump through in order to enroll as many people as possible. We have designed a turnkey system that ensures duplicatability!...

Get yourself, your downline, future downline...on the best lead source available and earn the highest possible commissions and residual income while doing so!

You will earn hugely by promoting your primary program to the highest quality, most cost-effective leads available. You now have a recruiting and training powerhouse for your new enrollees --your "lost in the desert downlines." You can now answer their "How do I get started?" question simply by sharing TrafficOasis with them.

You will earn hugely by promoting our lead program to those prospects who have already found the opportunity they were seeking, simply by showing them how TrafficOasis provides the best Pre-Qualified Leads and most lucrative lead provision system.

You will earn hugely with our totally automated "Funded Proposal" system, which pays you commissions and helps you separate the suspects from your prospects!

If you are looking for the GUARANTEED best possible MLM prospects, the hottest and freshest exclusive NON SHARED leads... (unique in the industry)

If you are looking for the GUARANTEED best possible self-liquidating system ever created that could generate you a strong four-, five- or even six-figure monthly income all on its own...

Your search is over! PERIOD...

Do yourself a favor: explore every inch of this site and THINK about it for a minute... Try to understand our current industry, discover the elements that have come together to create this system, ..that TrafficOasis is the right answer.

Sincerely,

Fred P. Stege

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an EVIL Rat! Liar and Scammer!

www.consultjack.com was Jack's crap from 2001-2005. He goes from one scam to the next in rapid succession leaving the bloody corpses in his wake. He has never done anything long term and no doubt Advantage Conferences and Vemma will be no different. The teasers for income in these scams he promotes include drawing recruits in with the idea of making $50,000 or more a month. Jack is the lowest of slime for dragging innocent folks into these losing ventures he quickly abandons himself after he has bilked masses of folks out of their money.

I remember now. It was smartmall.biz, then it was smartmallbuddy to get leads for smartmall.biz. I remember when Jack came out with consultJack, so I guess he was around in internet MLM since the begining around the same time as Fred Stege. Anyway, what makes Jack worse than other long timers that can be found on TrafficOasis? Jack has the worst name on the internet out of all of them. I still can't say Jack was as bad as the betteruniverse team. How come those guys never went to jail. If Steve Greshm and Phill Zulli didn't get arrested for their lies, I don't think Jack will either. It's sad but probably true.

Jesus, doesn't anyone read the rules? I wonder if some of these spam posts we're getting are coming from submitters. You know, like those programs that are setup to spam the search engines, link exchanges, traffic exchanges and stuff like that. Not sure what kind of technical work that requires.

Yeah, I really have no clue, but it seems pretty suspicious to me that all of the posts from this last one are exactly the same. I don't know, maybe she just used copy and paste a lot... but that's a lot of effort just to sneak some spam onto a forum.

Jack, how come you don't go to the Flowermound and Lewisville Chamber of Commerce networking meetings? Scared to show your face?

If you go, I will go!!!

Or, Are educated business owners whom own a legitamate legal business not your target market??

I'm sure Jack is a member of a chamber of commerce, but you can only be a member of 1, so maybe he is the member of the one in his home town. I think he's done comming on here to debate us though. SBM just pushed about every button on him, so now there's no more to push. Maybe they worked out a deal. People like us can just speculate, but it's fun. Jack's definately an interesting guy.

I guess Jack won't answer why he doesn't believe in a chamber of commerce. Can anyone infer an answer based on what is written in the forums. He told us so much already that the answers to any of these questions should already be in the text.

If you are basically stealing peoples money, and people are not getting their money back.. Would you show your face in front of a bunch of educated business owners in public?

Of course not.. Besides thats not his target market. The educated whom already have a job and/or own a legitimate legal business.

TGIM with Jack Weinzierl Monday, August 13, 2007

You have an opportunity to design your own life with this business. This past week, I had the opportunity to invest my time into many children's lives at camp...

I was never able to do something like this back in my corporate position....The difference is commitment and we must lead by example...but we had 3 President's Interviews approved during these 4 days of camp and ...two team members had purchased their MMCs. I thank God for these candidates and we need to do our part in the natural.

I am proud of every person on the line this morning for making a committed decision to their business and stepping out in faith. You have in your hands an opportunity to build a business that pays you what you are worth. Your income will match your efforts and commitment levels over the long-term.

Every new representative at Advantage Conferences has one thing in common—every single one of us was a beginner at one time. Often our excitement and enthusiasm is high, but our knowledge is low.

Success comes from doing the correct things, correctly, long enough...You must stay consistent with your business and marketing. Then duplication is key. Learn, apply, and then teach. Every person on this line has an opportunity to lead at Advantage Conferences. EVERY person...

Most of us stop dreaming as adults...most people work hard enough to not get fired, and most employers pay people just enough so they don't quit. Many people go through most of their adult lives having never given their ABSOLUTE BEST to anything...You can break out of this pattern of mediocrity and design the life of your dreams.

Those who have a clear picture of that dream will be more excited, consistent and persistent....

I want you to take a few minutes today and write down your dreams...Your dreams will fuel your desire, motivation and efforts as you build your AC business... What would your ideal life look like? How big would you dream if you knew you could not fail? Where would you live? Where would you travel? What ministries would you support?

..What will your monthly cashflow be in 3 years with AC? What are your top 3 dreams that this cashflow will help realize?

One final thought on dreams. Protect them . Well meaning friends and family will do their best to steal those dreams. Protect them with a passion as they will be attacked. There are trained recruiters out there trained to recruit others into their world of negativity, pessimism and complaining. They are “dream stealers.” Most of us can identify some family members that have their Masters degree in stealing dreams.

You must realize that your personal attitude is a choice....Your responsibility is to choose to be positive and to expect good things to happen. Expect your Advantage Conferences to grow. Expect people to want to break free from the bondage of their JOB.

You will find all the top performers at Advantage Conferences have challenges too...setbacks and disappointments but they do not let themselves get down. They maintain a positive attitude and positive expectancy. In addition, you must be coachable. Don't try to reinvent the wheel or as Tim Darnell has shared on a past call, don't always focus on trying to be a fixer. Be a doer.

...get into God's Word...and associate with positive people. Stay plugged into your mentor and leadership through phone calls and conferences. Do something every single day to advance your business.

Remember, most people like to associate with positive individuals. Therefore, by cultivating a positive, winning attitude, you will attract the right people.

What does all this have to do with marketing your Advantage Conferences business? Everything...Some of these initial how to's will address the most powerful resource and hidden potential that you have—your warm market.

Creating a list is one of the most important exercises in building a successful Advantage Conferences business. This is an exposures business and your results will be dependent on the number of people that you share Advantage Conferences with. Keep in mind that you are sharing a product and business opportunity with folks that can be blessed beyond measure...You are offering them a gift of changed mindset and a gift of potential wealth. The longer the list, the better and never, ever prejudice someone....

You never know who will do this business. You never know the timing in someone's life.

Go through People in your Life....

Once you have your list of 200 or so. I want you to prioritize the Top 20 people who could benefit and appreciate our mentoring products.

Also, I want you to prioritize the Top 20 people who are very successful, good at what they do, and are real influencers. You will contact ALL the individuals on your list...

From current AC ads:

Quote:

What you will NOT be doing

You will not be making any presentations.

You will do no selling, calling, explaining or persuading.

You will not be required to make a list and contact your friends and family.

Quote:

Leading with our mentoring products

“John, is entrepreneurial mentoring important to you?”

“The reason that I am asking is that I was curious—do you have Christian millionaire mentors in your life?”

“I have to tell you about an amazing company that offers ongoing Christ-centered entrepreneurial mentoring. Have you heard of Advantage Conferences yet?”

“Advantage Conferences provides this mentoring through Christian millionaires at a live conference, as well as through DVDs, CDs, and live tele-mentoring calls every week.”

“John, I know you are going to be impressed with Advantage Conferences and I will send you my website ...so you can go through the 3 Simple Steps to learn more.”

...As much as people want to experience our mentoring products, many people are looking for ways to do better financially. Many people have a genuine desire for change in their life and yet they don't know what to do or how to do it. Regardless of the desire—get out of debt, kids to private schools, etc. they are simply looking for an opportunity.

So when it comes to building your business by leading with the opportunity, most reps think, “I have not had success yet,” “I don’t know enough to talk about the opportunity” so they are paralyzed with fear, thus doing nothing.

If the person you are speaking with has a desire for change, the following will produce results for you.

Direct approach: “John, if I could show you how to earn an extra $7,000 per month, part-time, what would you say?”

Most will say, “what is it” or “it depends on what’s involved”

...respond:

“I own a business—we teach people how to earn additional income.”

Most will say “how do you do that?” You respond:

“It depends upon the person—some people want to earn as little as $1,000 a month and some are looking to make $10,000 a month—it depends on the person.”

Most will ask: “how do you do that?”

“We do this through our powerful Mindset Mentoring Conferences and our ongoing Christian mentoring products.”

“John, if I give you my card, would you go through the 3 Simple Steps over the next 24 hours?”
“Great—I’ll call you tomorrow.”

...you would like them to meet one of your Mentors and arrange a 3 way call.

If the person you want to talk to never gives you an opportunity to bring up the subject of your business, try this!

“John, would you help me?”

“I own a mentoring business and we are expanding really quickly – do you know anyone who would be interested in adding $7,000 per month to their income on a part time basis?”

..While you may feel uncertain about this approach in the beginning we can promise you that this will become something you WILL become very good at as long as you continue to practice!

Remember, it is SIMPLE, it is FUN, and it is something that YOU can do!

From current AC ads:

Quote:

we arrange for ALL sales to be made by our simple 3 step system, not you... Period! When they buy, you earn $7,000.00 Over and Over Again and that's all there is to it.

Goals are dreams with deadlines... Goals provide direction and focus. Contrary to what Jack Zufelt shared at our last conference, I firmly believe that goals are important.

Goals must be written down

Goals must be specific

Goals must be measurable

Goals must have a deadline (target date)

Goals should be reviewed frequently for clarity and focus

How much time will you commit to your AC business each week?

How many people will you share your AC business with each day, week and month?...

When will I become an MMC-IV Mentor?

How many new customers and representatives will I enroll this month?

How many new customers and representatives will I enroll this year?

Very little in life is gained without setting goals. Those goals are the steps that will lead you to realizing your dreams and your ultimate success. Success is built upon Success. The level to which you succeed will be determined by the goals you set for yourself personally and for your Advantage Conferences business. Set the right goals that are worthy of your focus, time, effort and energy.

Your goals should be reviewed frequently for clarity and focus....Stay focused on your goals, have them on your desk and you will always remember WHY you are building your Advantage Conferences business.

If you evaluate achievers from any walk of life, you will find they have a mentor or coach. Success leaves clues so tap into the experience and wisdom of those who have gone before you. Counsel with the wise and become wise.

You will want to review your time commitments, priorities, activities, and most importantly, results and progress. This is also the place to get help with questions and challenges that you may have. Although you are ultimately responsible for your own success, you are part of a team that will help you as much as you will allow.

As you build your AC business, you will find that your success is determined by how many people you can help and influence to become successful...

Now is the time for action. As you get into business building action, remember that this is an exposures business. Your growth and success will be determined by the number of new people you (and your team) share Advantage Conferences with on a daily and weekly basis. The process is simple:

Invite people to your website

Share the tools, Share testimonials, Share your story—the impact AC has had in your life.

Follow up after they complete all 3 Simple Steps

Repeat Often!!!

Your first task is to share Advantage Conferences with 5 people from your contact list in the next 24 hours. No excuses, get into action and have fun. The more share, the more confident you will become and your business will grow...

Stay plugged in

Do something positive everyday to grow your Advantage Conferences business

Continue to lead my example. Remember, this business is about duplication...Each day, ask yourself.... "if everyone in my Advantage Conferences business did what I did today, would my business have grown?"

Keep your business simple.

Startling Dynamic Innovations

Before - You Never Had a Chance

By Tim Darnell

President

Advantage Conferences ...extremely important life-changing report.

I wholeheartedly believe in and have dedicated a major portion of my life to this industry as a marketer, consultant, trainer - and since 2001, a direct sales company owner.

I'll be the first to tell you that our industry has massive room for improvement. indeed, a radical upheaval that is just now becoming a reality.

WARNING: Ignoring this letter, I promise you, will cost you a fortune in time, capital, and possibly important relationships.

The fundamental changes and differences that I will explain to you are indeed revolutionary...profound, starkly contrasting methods and philosophies that add up to the difference in success or failure for someone looking to further their financial situation.

...the odds are so stacked against your being successful that you really never had a chance. Glaring problems that have persisted for decades are fundamental to those programs...

MOST PEOPLE (90+ PERCENT) IN HOME BUSINESSES

DON'T MAKE MONEY

...It is THE PROBLEM that has desperately needed to be fixed and has not been fixed – until now.

Frankly, due to my being outspoken about these problems, I don't have a whole lot of friends left...in the entire industry, unless they are working with me now. Se la vie, the truth must be told – those programs are unquestionably fundamentally flawed.

Serious Question of Ethics: I find it unconscionable that companies promote an income opportunity at which the overwhelming majority of people fail. The people who are exceptions to this statement (those who do succeed) comprise such a small percentage of people that it is a blatant misrepresentation for a company to parade their “stud's” success in front of the unsuspecting public and say the opportunity is for everybody.

The good news is that through years of prayer, trial and error, consultation from several people who came into my life at precisely the right moment, a band of loyal followers which has now turned into a rapidly growing, powerful, international marketing force, endless rabbit trails, lawsuits, and unimaginable blind-sides, the following solutions have finally been revealed to me and have converged into A BUSINESS MODEL that is undeniably FAIR & WORKS FOR ANYBODY who is serious about making significant money! And, they make success absolutely predictable, more sizeable, and more quickly attainable than all the other models out there – and I can prove in black and white what I am saying is true.

I will tell you that arriving at this model has not been easy and has come about at no small price (literally millions of dollars and years out of my life)...dynamic solutions are never cheap or easy to come by.

A “Systematized Qualifying Process©” (SQP©) versus “Dialing for Dollars”

A System that relieves you of the necessity of telephone recruiting levels the Playing Field and makes ‘making money’ a probability rather than a shot in the dark.

The essence of the problem is that only a very few people in any income opportunity truly have the verbal posture and telephone skills necessary to make a “dialing for dollars” income opportunity work. You simply can’t train an inexperienced person how to gain the requisite amount of charisma, confidence, discipline, timing, vocal tone, verbiage, and people skills required to be effective at phone work.

...90 percent or more are ‘dead on arrival’. I think you would agree with me that “DOA” is not an acceptable business component.

News Flash: Fully 97% of all home based income opportunities are “dialing for dollar” programs.

Even if you are one of the elite few who have mastered telephone skills, you’ll have to spend your entire life on the phone. Anyone who tells you anything different is lying through their teeth – plain and simple...

Theoretically, duplication reduces your work load and creates residual growth and income...If professional phone work is an underlying necessity, then duplication will be a non-reality for the vast majority of participants.

But there are even more inescapable problems regarding “dialing for dollars”...

LISTS: The lists of so-called “interested opportunity seekers” are filled with people who are simply not qualified for your opportunity. Why spend your money buying these lists, paying monthly long distance bills, and more importantly wasting your valuable time talking to people who don’t know why you are calling? Most don’t even want to talk to you about anything, much less an opportunity they are not genuinely interested in.

The Bottom line - you won’t have success or even much of a life if “dialing for dollars” is in your game plan.

SOLUTION: The Systematized Qualifying Process© takes the necessity for personal verbal skills and phone work out of the equation. The System is the star..

The SQP© also dramatically decreases the time needed to build your business...you can now effectively work your business in one to two hours a day. Both of these points are MAJOR INNOVATIONS – MAJOR POINTS OF DEPARTURE ...

SQP© handles two important tasks at once – 1. uniform delivery of all facts and information, and 2. qualifies your candidates without your having to pick up the phone! You are not chasing anybody and you only talk to someone who truly wants to know more about your specific opportunity!...

Can you see how SQP© will literally set you free from the bondage of phone slavery?... Won't you feel better knowing that the people you are bringing into your business can actually make money? Is that not a more ethical situation for you and your candidates?

These people are fully informed. They know all about your business. They qualified themselves. And they are excited, or they wouldn't be calling you or e-mailing you....and that is the only classification of person you will be talking to.

Who can participate in SQP©? Anybody who has the intelligence to understand the importance of what I've just detailed; and someone who has been approved after their interview with the President of the Company.

Advantage Conferences makes 100 times more sense than any other business opportunity out there...effectually setting this business model light years ahead of anything else you may be looking at.

Not Hype...(If you knew what we paid out in commissions last week you would drop your jaw.)

...this is rock-solid educational information from a professional, life-long, (and I don't mind telling you) highly successful marketer explaining developments in the home based business world that you must know about.

In service,
Tim Darnell

Jack tells one to list 200 friends and family and explains the fine art of manipulating them into joining your business. Tim Darnell and the AC ads clearly say there will be no list, selling, calling, persuading or convincing. This whole business is based on lies and deception. Jack will do and say anything to bilk unsuspecting recruits out of their money. We already know the failure rate of recruits is at least 98% losing money to line Tim and Jack's pockets.

These pages are so laughable. Tim calls himself successful after a 1.2 million dollar+ bankruptcy for his previous business the 2001 ownership he brags of. Tim is only successful as a well dressed con/thug! Jack hangs on his coattails in hopes of pocketing whatever else he can before this scam blows up in their faces. Jack, the lying goon, is the only "stud" Tim has and he happily parades that scammer!

Yes, Ed,

We wouldn't want our scamming boys to feel neglected. I am planning more field trips to the courthouse, but until then we could stroll down memory lane.

We are quickly assembling a global team of entrepreneurs that will serve as an Oasis for professionals seeking to combine their Christian faith with their business venture. We believe it is ridiculous to separate the two.

You can learn more about how I was able to earn $28,000 in my first month at the Flash presentation I just created at:

Here is an update on our First Month--March 2005--

I am currently reviewing 649 professionals that have submitted their profiles, since we launched in March 2005. Our selection process focuses on a person's vision, drive to realistically earn 7 figures in the next 18 months, and a commitment to coach others in our Millionaire Mindset program. Only 12 people have been selected for my team, as of April 2, 2005. If you would like to be considered, visit:

Jack was always reviewing legions of candidates. Don't 1240 and 3278 sound familiar from Jack's many other bogus press releases. So, our scamming boy rejects 97% of his hot prospects????

Jack himself hasn't made it to a million. He is close, but no one else is anywhere near close. Only Jim Wald and Tim Darnell can make enough to do this full time. A handful of others have broken even or made a little money, but more than 98% of the reps according to Tim's own figures in the court papers have lost money---thousands and thousands of dollars.

Jack is the only rep left smiling now with AC floundering like the Titanic. Remember the 1.2 million Tim bilked folks out of with All-Star that declared bankruptcy? Perhaps it is time to start that side business. Jack, the rumored philanderer, could reprise his stunning success at Soulmate and run another MLM dating service!

Lord help us, Jack, you are such a windbag!

Jack says:

Quote:

Team, once we have our purpose and passion.....

We all run into our share of cynics out there. Some of our families have generations of cynics. Here's the truth about cynics.

Do you realize the impact a negative attitude has on everything around it...?

Oh sure, I can hear it now... "Oh No! Another negative attitude message..."

Wrong.

If you are truly cynical...yes, it is birthed from a negative attitude... but all an attitude is, is a mindset focus... and you determine in life what you focus on... or don't...

Cynics are like the perpetual whiner who always whines but never fixes the cause of the problem... and when approached to do something about it, blames the world for not already having it fixed...

It is called a self absorbed mindset... and that will NOT create any form of success in your life... except the success of being a failure...

Jack, my little lad, you are confusing constructive criticism with cynicism. Why would anyone be enthusiastic about a pyramid scheme where almost all the recruits have lost money to line your and Tim's pockets. Tim in the court documents confirmed a 98% failure rate with the information provided in discovery.

The only one self absorbed is you, scammer. You found success in Advantage Conferences by bilking truly good people out of their life savings using deeply held religious beliefs as a tool. I going to solve the problem here by doing everything humanly possible to see AC is shut down.

Quote:

Do you blame things that happen to you on fate? Or do you think, "That's just my luck"? Cynics always see the bad in the good... and you can tell a true cynic by one thing...

...and that is in their Expectations. We have talked about expectations on many calls.

A cynical or negative focused person expects negative and incorrect results due to their mindset...

What do you expect to happen in 2007? This month? This week? Here is a Secret...

What you expect to happen in your life... generally does...

Wanna know something about the word cynic?

It is a cousin word to Cyanide... same root...

Did you get that???

If you want cyanide to poison your Success...

Be cynical... and count the coffins...

<http://www.webster.com/dictionary/cynic>

Quote:

Etymology: Middle French or Latin, Middle French cynique, from Latin cynicus, from Greek kynikos, literally, like a dog, from kyn-, kyOn dog -- more at HOUND

<http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/cyanide>

Quote:

cyanide

1826, coined from cyan-, comb. form for carbon and nitrogen compounds, from Gk. kyanos "dark blue enamel, lapis lazuli" (probably a non-IE word) + chemical ending -ide. So called because it first had been obtained by heating the dye pigment powder known as Prussian blue (see Prussian).

Online Etymology Dictionary, © 2001 Douglas Harper

Okay, Jacko, you have lied again. These words do not share a common root. The only cyanide like poison is your words, boy.

I expect this pyramid scheme to be shut down or disappear. There is no success possible in AC for the unsuspecting rep. All the sales get handed up to the few at the top of the pyramid. The only coffins will be for the bloody corpses of AC reps that are out thousands of dollars and desperate, but too good hearted to see anyone else hurt by being brought into this scam.

Quote:

So, where is YOUR Thinking taking You?

"What you think means more than anything else in your life. More than what you earn, more than where you live, more than your social position, and more than what anyone else thinks about you." George Adams

What are the thoughts you start thinking just by being around certain people... and by almost "Osmosis", you start being influenced by their thinking and words... and beliefs...

That can be good... or bad...

But the question is... Are they your thoughts... or other's thoughts driving Your life?

Make sure they contain power and passion, not Problems and poison...

Your thinking TRULY drives your life...

Whose behind your steering wheel? Are you allowing others to determine your results?

The results are determined by early entry or extraordinary recruiting skills. That is why Jack, Tim and Jim are the only ones doing this full time. Only a handful more broke even. More than 98% of reps have lost thousands.

Consumer advocacy hardly equates to cynacism.

You aren't talented enough. Look at reality.

You cannot achieve it. The numbers are against you.

The only statistic that matters as far as success is concerned...

Is the WILL TO WIN.

Let's refresh the grade school math that is so challenging for you, lad---you know, those pesky statisitcs. That 3000 reps (you have no retail conference sales) need to recruit (x 15) 4500. 4,500.....67,500.....10,125,000.....151,875,000..2,278,125,000.....34,171,875,000.....Jack are you discussing those statistics with your reps?

Let Christ resurrect your thinking and knowledge to work in HIS Plan for your Success, Achievement, and winning in life.

And it all starts with a DECISION to do that.

Decide today, and start succeeding in this business with a NEW mind, a NEW effort, a NEW belief and a NEW Picture imaged in your mind of you succeeding like never before, through Him.

Your thoughts do one of two things to your home business Success:

They either CONSTRICT.

Or CONSTRUCT.

Constriction is of the evil one.

Construction is of God.

And your words are the tools that are used for both.

What are you saying to yourself when you CONSTRICT ?

"I am so dumb!"

"I am such a loser!"

"I could never do that!"

" I am such a clutz!"

Those are words of Constriction .

What Construction words would Jesus say?

"You can do anything in this business... I am helping you."

"You will never fail in this industry, as I am with you, guiding you..."

"You are not a loser... as I am in you, and that makes you the ultimate home business champion!"

"Whatever it is you do, I will be doing with you, silently, successfully."

Which would be more powerful for your Success?

Think Powerful. Think Mighty. Think Jesus helping you in your business!

Many Successful people had to wait until their hour was at hand, before the Blessings showed up. But they proved to God they were willing to press in, and continue the battle for Success. They knew their hour would come. So will yours!

But look at God's Supernatural Timing, not your clock or watch. His carries the blessings and Success - His Success - you just have to press in and NOT GIVE UP- until His Timing becomes yours, and Success floods your life like a river.

There is no excuse for you, Jacko. Speaking of old, you are running one of the oldest cons known. You are running a scheme that equates to the old fashion chain letter. Recruits in AC pay 10 grand and thousands more in advertising for the privilege of recruiting more recruits ad infinitum. The product is a fig leaf and no retail sales of the conference have occurred.

Success is not a result of Christian faith. Success is the product of hard work, creativity, skills, education, training, natural talents and perhaps some luck. Your recruits will only be handing up sales to line your pocket, Jack. That sure is convenient to blame your recruits failure on God instead of the nature of the scheme Tim Darnell set up to defraud folks out of their money. Marks/ reps were lured in with lies and misrepresentations. Only Jack, Tim and Jim have made more than 100 grand. Where are all those folks that signed up to make $250,000, $500,000 or the 1 million on the sign up sheet? I bet they are among the 98%+ that have lost thousands and had their spirits and faith totally destroyed.

Most people in business who operate as the world operates, focus on reasoning everything out. Well, I want to encourage you today according to the Word, not the world.

I don't know if Advantage Conferences is a good fit for you, but I want to encourage you to spend an hour in prayer this Labor Day weekend. Ask the Lord for discernment and wisdom. I only want you to join us if you firmly believe that you were led to AC and that you have a peace to move forward and commit to sharing this Christ-centered mentoring and business with others. We are here to show you how.

Have a blessed weekend and let me know when you have that peace. Do not let fear and reasoning stand in the way of your future.

Jack wants you to throw $10,000 plus thousands and thousands more into this business without thinking it through and reasoning. He gets $7,000.00. Jack knows that if you think it through and see that you have a greater than 98% chance of losing money you won't do it. Businesses that require such a great investment deserve consultation with an attorney, CPA and tax advisor so one can make an informed decision.

Healthy skepticism and some fear are perfectly normal and what stop one from jumping into scams like this without exercising proper caution, diligence and reasoning. Scammers like Tim and Jack depend on your impulsivity and desire for a Christian safe haven to lure you in. Then results are promised in God's time when the recruits find they have no sales and are hemorrhaging money. Very convenient to blame God and your lack of faith for your staggering losses instead of the scammers conning you out of your money.

Take this to your local parrish and ask if the marketplace goons Jack and Tim should be your spiritual advisors as well. Your local parrish might turn out to be a place you can find "New Home" and it won't put you in financial peril or require you to harass friends and family. Are you going to throw your life savings at Tim and Jack? Do you want to see friends and family lose staggering amounts of money and blame you? Pray about this with your local parrish and people you trust that really have your best interest at heart and are not out to empty your pockets.

Jacko,

Your desperation is showing. I think we need to do some pesky math again. In January 2007 you said you "made in excess of $762,245.50 with Advantage Conferences" On your new video you claim to have made more than $800,000.00. That means in 8 months you only made in excess of/more than $37,754.50.

"First 13 Months (March 29, 2006) with Advantage Conferences Yields $544,000 in Commissions for Jack and Stephanie Weinzierl."

"Jack Weinzierl MMCIV Pro Rep was the Top Producer for Advantage Conferences at $95,564.49 for the month of July (2005/5th month)"

For all of 2007 so far the top money earner and only 1 of 3 to make more than 100 grand a year made almost nothing. That makes it painfully obvious that Advantage Conferences is sinking like the Titanic. If a guy who was blowing 8 grand a month advertising and always had his ads all over the net can't sell this no one else will be able to.

Keep flaunting your house and cars. We can see you are chasing the almighty $$$$$$$$ I don't see how you with the earnings you have now will be helping those widows and orphans you mentioned.

Before individuals say—well Jack was well financed, was the president of his previous company, has his MBA—which means nothing in this business by the way, he doesn't know what $10,000 means to me. OK, time for a reality check and for transparency.

We keep it real in this business and time to dispel any preconceived notions you may have right now. I resigned from a six figure position as the president of a company 15 months ago. I did so with a $500,000 mortgage—yikes is right, having invested approximately $100,000 in MLMs and trying my best to build those over the previous 4 years losing all of that money, I had lost our life savings a couple years prior to that on a software stock--$90,000 and my wife home schools and stays home with our kids. I was looking at a $14,000 property tax bill, had no insurance except for Cobra at $1200 a month and then I found AC less than 2 days later. Failure was not an option. Now God had not brought those challenges on us as we do a pretty good job of messing things up on our own when our priorities are out of whack, but we did turn it over to Him in prayer and He is turned it around and I grew through the experience.

I am not a fan of debt except for appreciable assets like homes, but I started as an MMC-IV with a Visa check and invested $8,000 in marketing to build my business in month one—also on my Visa. Now, do I recommend that? NOT at all, but I was at a point of DISGUST about our finances, I knew we had been faithful in our tithes and giving and we had a peace about building an Advantage Conferences business.

Didn't you say "Your equity makes one entity rich - and that would be the bank - not you. In fact, during your first five years of paying your mortgage, right at 86 percent of your payments do nothing but go straight to bank profits - not your equity. And yet, virtually every person believes that is the only way to buy their home. 86 PERCENT! That is piracy. Robbery by consent. Robbery due to the masses ignorance." You have followed the ignorant masses and are giving the bank obscene amounts of interest. The previous mansion you bought with only a 5% down payment as I presume this one was. Advantage Conferences has not made you the money to pay for this house and you did not use the personal banking principle you were mumbling about either, you brainless idiot. It is going to be tough to explain to the recruits when that house goes on the market or gets foreclosed. That was so nice of you to put up the pictures in your video. Is the million dollar mortgage less painful than your adjustable one on the last mansion?

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

"Ed",

Our silly buffoon, Jack is at least somewhat entertaining. I am not sure if it is closer to a Saturday Night Live skit or a circus sideshow.

Quote:

Become Your Own Bank

When a new concept or product is introduced, do you find yourself being skeptical before you truly do your homework? I may be the only one that applies to, but I have struggled with that most of my adult life. Sometimes for me it is a matter of trust and at other times it is a matter of faith. There are also so many so-called experts out there that make their living selling products and services that compete directly with that new idea or concept. Look hard enough and you will find people to tell you what you want to hear.

Skepticism is a wonderful thing. You have proven that you have no financial acumen at all. You wasted 100 grand on other MLMs and your life savings ($90,000.00) on a software stock. You tell people what you want them to hear. Folks needn't lose thousands lining your pockets. If they purchase a whole life policy from you or Tim you said it would pay the insurance salesman enough to pay for an MMC-IV with just 1 or 2 sales. You, Jack and Timmy will pocket 5-12 grand in commissions.

Quote:

Most of us have heard the adage, buy term insurance and invest the rest. And by the way, my current life insurance is term (and it serves a purpose--pure death protection while you are younger), but it will not be for long. Guess what? The term insurance industry is a cash cow for insurance companies. Why? The fact is that 99% of term insurance never pays out a death benefit. People get older and it gets too expensive and they let it lapse. Term is good while you are young to provide coverage only. The reason that many financial advisors have been against whole life is often because they make their livings focused on the securities/investment side of the equation vs. the insurance side.

What do you want Jack---millions of dead 30 and 40 something year olds? Life insurance is to care for a spouse and children. Financial advisors don't often use whole life because they have few clients that will need a way to pass on wealth tax free to children. Most of us aren't ultra wealthy and needing another way to pass on an inheritance, but in real need of retirement money. Whole life is the absolute worst way to save for retirement. Folks would benefit from the tax deductions that IRAs and 401ks provide. They will have retirement income that will be taxed at the low tax bracket most will be in at retirement. Who wants a poor investment vehicle like whole life that one must cash out or borrow against in retirement?

Quote:

Dividend paying whole life is a great product for our personal banker vehicle. This system is a long term approach and what many fail to realize is with dividend paying whole life, you can borrow from it (100% of your cash value) and pay yourself back the interest AND receive the dividends on your policy regardless of the loan. There is not another product in the investment community that allows for that, that I am aware of. I have my MBA and am pretty astute when it comes to investing and this is a no brainer for my personally to do. That is where my focus will start. I am thinking generational wealth, not what the masses are thinking. There is an entire industry that promoted buy term and invest the rest. The problem is, very few people (including myself) had the discipline to invest the rest regularly, so they wake up at 50 years of age, term has skyrocketed (or they get a condition and are no longer insurable) and they have little invested.

Who wants to save in a poor investment vehicle for years just to be able to borrow against it? Why not encourage folks to buy a home they can afford and pay off while concentrating on saving for retirement the right way? It is not that hard to contribute to one's 401k at work or put aside some money for one's IRA and that would be a much better option for the vast majority of your reps. Your MBA is a joke, lad.
Quote:

You know the saying an open mind, once expanded, cannot go back. Well, I have a new one...A closed mind, not expanded, will follow the masses and have what the masses have.

This product is such a good fit for AC as we address mindset, building income, and now building wealth. It is a 20+ year plan (for me) and most people don't have the mindset or focus to wrap their arms around that. I will also still invest in other areas to round out my personal investments. I am excited to open the Weinzierl Bank and Trust or I should name it Trust Weinzierl Bank, because I can trust my own bank to have our family's best interest (pun intended) at heart.

Have a blessed week.

Your 20 year plan is to go from MLM to MLM and rip off good trusting Christian folks. No one should trust you Jack. Hundreds of reps have lost their life savings to line your pockets, greedy scammer. So, yes, you should be in disgust with your finances, boy. You started Advantage Conferences virtually broke and you are obviously headed that way again. You admitted you had blown your life savings, so why would anyone follow your example?

Your Legacy Assured

What kind of legacy are you going to leave your children? What about your grandchildren? What if you were to leave your grandchildren millions and millions of dollars, and more importantly, teaching them with absolute clarity exactly how to do the same with their grandchildren - with absolute certainty?

Some legacy! 98% of the reps are have lost money to you scammers.

Quote:

Pages 71-72 of Becoming Your Own Banker explain the incredibly simple, inexpensive, and doable method of making this happen. Those two pages are just a tiny microcosm of the information you are about to learn on an ongoing basis at Advantage Conferences.

You are a complete buffoon. lad. Your reps need to pay off their homes and save for retirement, emergencies and college, etc.

Quote:

Education like this will take anyone out of the land of darkness and into the light. The world needs to know this information, and make no mistake, it is not receiving it until an AC Representative sends an e-mail of introduction or hands someone a business card, and that someone says "YES" to the education process.

Tim Darnell has claimed to have secret information about wealth and business for years and he is nothing but a complete and colossal failure. He ran All-Star into the ground to the tune of almost 1.3 million in debt under his watch at his home address after all those many Millionaire Mindset Conferences to boot. so, I can guarantee you there is no life changing information to be gleaned from our scamming boys. The only life changing event will be Timmy and Jack taking all your money while you suffer complete financial devastation as many of the recruits have.

Quote:

You and your ancestors also need to know exactly what to do with larger sums of money when they do receive it. For instance, dis-attaching greed to the concept of money makes money a Godly, powerful instrument. Attaching greed to money destroys its usefulness, making it a tool of the enemy. Having a system that keeps the money in your Personal Bank and out of the current banking industry is the most powerful move you could ever make.

Greed is the driving force behind every thing you do, Jack. Why are you still encouraging folks to put money in the worst investment vehicle available?

Quote:

You need to not only be learning this yourself, you should be teaching and disseminating this training to everyone you know. We can take the trillions of dollars now being handled by the powers of darkness and put it back into the hands of Godly people. We MUST do this, my friend. YOU must join me in doing this whether you are accepted as an AC Rep or not. We have the obligation to fight the battle and win the war that has kept the masses shackled and imprisoned in the financial realm.

The masses are shackled by a lack of education, marketable job skills, experience and training that will allow them to get high paying jobs, buffoon. They will find financial freedom by getting those things I just mentioned and some help from certified financial planners, CPAs, tax attorneys or accountants. What the heck could a loser like Timmy know? You just use God as a tool to defraud good trusting folks.

Quote:

The enemy knows he doesn't need to conquer a country militarily when he can control most of their finances - and right now that is exactly what has happened. You and I have been gladly feeding the monster that has kept us in bondage for years, willingly handing over our hard-earned dollars and wages time and time again. It's time to use a little common sense you'll receive through mentoring and education - and reverse that lunacy. It's time to quit settling for mediocrity and just getting by.

Jack, you are the enemy taking folks hard earned dollars. Jack, you are going to look startlingly mediocre when you lose your new mansion to bankruptcy. Advantage Conferences isn't going to be funding your extravagance much longer from what I hear.

Quote:

The Mindset Mentoring you will receive at Advantage Conferences is the most liberating educational experience you will ever be a part of. You can't be truly free when you accept notions and systems that are in place that blatantly rob us all of our capital, our financial resources, and money.

AC has never had the answer to anything and this is no different.

Quote:

This week you have the opportunity to submit your President's Interview and get started (upon acceptance of your PI) at a much reduced price - saving $2,000.00 that it will otherwise cost later. That makes this a week of decision on your part. Otherwise I can pretty well be assured you're not really serious about, or resourceful enough, to be qualified for this phenomenal opportunity.

Your idea of resourceful is 18 grand on your Visa and Tim used 3 credit cards, but since 98% are guaranteed losers as history in the court documents has shown, that is unethical advice to give.

Quote:

You can't afford to miss this ongoing Mentoring Education. Frankly, you are truly in the dark without it. And how about your grandchildren - would they be able to have the finances to accomplish greater things in their lifetime due to your legacy if you simply acted? Of course they would! Otherwise you are saying "no" to the legacy that you could and should be leaving them.

You, Jack are leaving a legacy. Hundreds of reps have lost their life savings thanks to you and I have been the one to share their sorrow. The devastation in your wake is monumental. You learned all the lessons junk bond king and felon Mike Milken had to teach.

Quote:

With this powerful knowledge you will be empowered to make more out of your life, and your grandchildren's lives (and not just financially), than you ever thought possible.

100% Committed to Ministry

Quote:

I was in service tonight and was led to make this commitment. Normally, I give in private not letting my left hand know what my right is doing, but I want to inspire and encourage others tonight. For the next person on our team that upgrades to the President's Package (If I am your Mentor) I will donate 100% of the commission to a powerful ministry in Detroit . As you probably know, there is a lot of need in the Detroit area these days leading the nation in foreclosures and unemployment.

You are probably nearing that foreclosure yourself, huh,scammer? With a 1 million dollar loan and a 116 grand loan on that ridiculous mansion you have shown off in your video we can see you are a greedy materialistic goon.

<http://video.yahoo.com/video/play?vid=1187895&fr=>

That is clearly serving the almighty $$$$$$$$

Quote:

You will receive the tax incentive for your MMC-IV as an educational expense (consult your tax advisor); you will save $2,000 over the new MMC-IV pricing; you receive a turnkey business and a qualifying training sale; and 100% of the commissions will go to ministry.

IRS says:

Quote:

What is the tax benefit of taking a business deduction for work-related education. If you are an employee and able to itemize your deductions, you may be able to claim a deduction for the expenses you pay for your work-related education. Your deduction will be the amount by which your qualifying work-related education expenses plus other job and certain miscellaneous expenses is greater than 2% of your adjusted gross income. An itemized deduction reduces the amount of your income subject to tax.

If you are self-employed, you deduct your expenses for qualifying work-related education directly from your self-employment income. This reduces the amount of your income subject to both income tax and self-employment tax....Qualifying Work-Related Education

You can deduct the costs of qualifying work-related education as business expenses. This is education that meets at least one of the following two tests.

The education is required by your employer or the law to keep your present salary, status, or job. The required education must serve a bona fide business purpose of your employer.

The education maintains or improves skills needed in your present work.

However, even if the education meets one or both of the above tests, it is not qualifying work-related education if it:

Is needed to meet the minimum educational requirements of your present trade or business, or

Is part of a program of study that will qualify you for a new trade or business. You can deduct the costs of qualifying work-related education as a business expense even if the education could lead to a degree.

You can deduct the conference, but you get audited and you are likely to be in trouble. The conference is, as the Better Business Bureau pointed out, just part of participation in what they deemed an illegal pyramid scheme. There are no retail sales and everyone is a rep. So, that is starting a new business and one should be very careful about getting professional advice before counting on that deduction.

You also will have trouble explaining how any rep was already employed in the "marketplace ministry" and requires continuing education to improve skills in that present employment, scammer.

Quote:

I am not making this commitment and giving to brag or boast, but it is what is purposed in my heart. I understand that by sharing this in public, that is my reward and that is fine. We want to develop a spirit of generosity in the marketplace and I want to always lead by example.

Have a blessed night and let me know if you are ready to purchase your MMC-IV (if you have not already) and I will coordinate everything for you.

Gee, scammer we donate to around 20 charities every Christmas and we don't attach any sales to our generosity. Folks should donate because they know in their heart it is the right thing to do and there is great joy to be found in helping others. You only donate if it gets you a warm mark to rip off. Folks could give that 10 grand to Unicef, American Cancer Society, Special Olympics, Salvation Army, Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, American Diabetic Association, American Association of the Deaf-Blind, American Heart Association.....need I go on?

Jack, you are going to single out reps and give only those ten priveleged information? That is discrimination and hardly Christian. Reps, you should be outraged that this kind of behaviour is going on.

I also know for a fact that Advantage conferences is imploding at a rapid rate. There is a mass exodus in progress and many of the 163 still in your yahoo group are no longer active and won't renew. They just don't want to battle you and Timmy or get bad mouthed by you goons.

So, what you are really doing is trying to see who is left pushing this egregious scam. You are desperate to make a few more sales so the conference can be funded as Timmy is likely completely broke if my sources are correct. Let's also be honest about your financial situation, scammer Jack. You are going to need a miracle to resurrect AC and none is coming. You are not going to be able to maintain your opulent lifestyle much longer. You are the one that desperately needs $30,000.00 a month just to pay your bills, forget any charity with that mansion and the cars you have.
