Jack and Tim , Is that the way to treat you Reps?

Corinthians Ch 6

How is it that you have something against another Christian, you "go to law" and ask a heathen court to decide the matter instead of taking it to other Christians to decide which of you is right? don't you know that some day we Christians are going to judge and govern the world? So why can't you decide even these little things among yourselves? Don't you realize that we Christians will judge and reward the very angels in heaven? So we should be able to decide your problems down here on earth easily enough. Why then go to the outside judges who are not Christians? I am trying to make you ashamed. Isn't there anyone in all the church who is wise enough to decide these arguments? But, instead, one Christian sues another and accuses his Christian brother in front of unbelievers.

" To have these lawsuits at all is a real defeat for you as Christians. Why not just accept mistreatment and leave it at that? It would be far more honorable to the Lord to let yourselves be cheated. But, instead you yourselves are the ones who do wrong, cheating others, even your own brothers...

You will earn up to $7000 OVER AND OVER with every sale!

This company provides 50-70% commissions on every sale, otherwise known as Reverse Margin. Reverse Margin is the company giving a greater percentage of each sale to the business person. It makes sense, you did the work, you made the sale, you keep the greater amount of profit.

How do they make any money? The same way Sam built an empire with Walmart, the same way CiCi's Pizza made it big with buffets, the same way Mc Donald's generates huge profits from billions of hamburgers... VOLUME.

With volume sales, you can earn up to $7000 OVER AND OVER again!

My Mentor made over a million dollars ($1,000,000.00) in 18 months in this business.

Interested?

Are you speaking success? Are you believing for great success? Are you thanking and praising God for that tremendous success in advance? In faith you will experience a new economy – God's economy. Faith and money are inextricably linked. God's economy will become more visible as your faith grows. His economy is of a much greater scale than what we have known in the past. In stewardship, humility and great power, we triumphantly move forward! Thank you Tim Darnell for sharing this powerful message.

So, that explains why Tim is living the pauper lifestyle, many reps are in financial peril having faced homelessness, foreclosure, bankruptcy, hunger, sale of homes and personal belongings? That explains why millions face food shortages around the globe?

This kind of talk is beyond sickening. Tim is triumphantly marching himself and countless others toward certain financial ruin. I have faith that I and my family can make a difference in this world. That is why I recommend folks quit throwing money at Tim and Jack and make charitable donations to UNICEF and the countless other worthy causes out there. That is how we as one world and one people could move triumphantly forward.

Blessings to all!

Thank you, Mr. Thomas. It is so good to see you back.

Surfin, are you selling your services to any current AC reps, or have you been assisting ex reps with other opportunities? My sources suggest that AC is very much on its last leg and lots is going on behind the scenes. I pray no one else waste their money, because there is no hope at this

Jack has blathered under his various IDs:

SoapBoxMom.....I believe that you, although well meaning (I believe) has done many a disservice and....Yes, we understand you are trying to save people.

You are absolutely correct. Your conscience betrays you. You just admitted folks do need to be saved from your evil clutches.

Quote:

I wish you the very best in all you do--I think this is a full time occupation for you so good luck with that. Your opinions are just that, opinions. I can respect that and agree to disagree

That's right Jackie boy. Opinions are not actionable.

Quote:

The BBB was the defendant on that case and as you all should know, the defendant is innocent until proven otherwise. I guess the case was not proveable there, even though many believe the BBB was mistaken. A win or loss in that case is such a non-issue. One can look through the posts on this thread and see where folks have crossed the legal line. If people think there is no accountability they are mistaken. We have tons of us who do not hide behind screen names at <http://actestimonials.com> and publicly elsewhere on our own sites and blogs. I will gladly share my information if all the bashers do here publicly.

That non-issue of a case caused a mass exodus of reps and gave the scambusters here a great deal of information about just what a bum opportunity you are pushing, Jack. That case showed there were no retail conference sales. That means that all the commissions paid are really de facto payments for recruiting. The FTC, SEC and Attorney Generals offices have a court case to examine that also documents the earnings misrepresentations, the dishonest use of trademarks, copyrights and service marks. Potential recruits know that you lied about the number of request for refunds and those given. You said 2 Jack when you were fully aware of at least 5 or 6 and the horrific circumstances surrounding one of those.

The e-mails show Tim consulted with you on everything. So, as this plays out you, Jackie boy, may find yourself sharing responsibility for what has gone on in this venture. I believe there will be accountability, but not as you are suggesting, Jacko. The only thing dishonest cons can think of is constant threats of litigation to control their financially devastated reps. Do you think those threats give you any credibility with any savvy, well educated folks. You boys have no grounds for any of the numerous suits you have threatened. Your reps and ex reps have the right to talk to who they please and write or say what they wish. The "Big Brother" routine isn't going to work. That is why Tim's numerous Cease and Desist letters and threatening e-mails are fodder for discussion and I would have many more up online, but many folks really believe Tim will file a frivolous lawsuit for the purpose of harassing them and they have already lost everything to this life sucking venture. I, of course, respect folks privacy and will not publish them, but the point is Tim destroyed what was left of Advantage Conferences after the BBB suit with this sickening, aberrant behaviour.

Jack, how long are you going to hang on knowing what may be coming your way? You know I never stalked you or Tim. I was never involved in Mary Kay and certainly never made any death threats in any way at any time. Tim, unlike "the other woman" and I, hasn't gone to the police or substantiated any of this. This fabrication by Tim is actionable and will send the last few reps running when the truth comes out. And, Jacko, the truth does have a funny way of rearing its ugly head.

We should not neglect to mention the many other scams Tim has been involved in.

Quote:

.....the 99% loss rate was shown to be caused by the pyramid recruitment model and the lack of retail sales, not the "failure" of the recruits.

Regarding the charge that the "non-retailing" business plan that most Quixtar recruits engage in is a scam, the FTC has prosecuted other MLMs on these grounds. FTC declarations have stated that if the majority of the money used to pay the "upliners" is gained primarily from the purchases of the downliners – not from their retail customers – the payments are de facto payments for recruiting. In such cases, the "business opportunity" is not to sell the MLM products but to recruit others into the "business opportunity" in an endless chain. Endless chains are considered "inherent frauds" since they cannot deliver on their promise of income to any but a few at the top; the vast majority are doomed from the start to financial losses; and the schemes must use deception to lure consumers into nearly certain financial losses.

You might want to read that again, Jack. It sounds like you boys have some real issues to deal with.
