Tim, claimed he was a member of the BBB, he never was!

Tim, claimed that his products were Federally trademarked, they were not!

Tim, advertised making $7,000 over and over again, yet he could not come up with 10 reps that have actually made $7,000 over and over again.

You guys had complete confidence that you prevail in the last lawsuit.. You did not!

I could go on and on and on.....

Jack, its amazing how brain washed you are.. You have zero clue what reality is...

Exactly, Wish! The boys may not even have any representation. The poor lawyer who represented Tim against the Better Business Bureau got blamed for the loss and badmouthed by Timmy. That poor bloke found out he was fired second hand when Timmy hired the lawyer that sent me that lovely Cease and Desist letter.

The lawyer who wrote that letter dropped Timmy like a hot potatoe when he found out Timmy had neglected to inform him of the BBB suit and Writ of Garnishment and is a total loose cannon. Reputable attorney's won't deal with clients that have a penchant for fictionalizing or concealing pertinent information.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

You sure are hanging around a lot, boy. Maybe we should have a little fun with math. You claimed 500 reps as of mid 2006 here on scam. Tim had a laughable 13 from June 2003 to January 2005. Total there must have been around 600 reps to date and as you said more than half were MMC-IVs and close to say 40% paid the $59.95. Tim said in the court papers and I suspect it is still true that no one who paid the $59.95 made any money.

Of the MMC-IVs you and Jim Wald were likely the only ones to exceed 100 grand, though Don Goldstein was in that neighborhood. 4 more might have broken even or made pocket change after expenses. One of those made over thirty thousand and said it was necessary to quit before they lost anymore money. 3 more listed in the court papers had received checks and since that time I hear about that many have received a few checks. So, basically Tim, Jack, Jim and Don are the only ones that have really show a profit. A few others are at pocket change or break even status.

Of those around six hundred reps total 91 or less remain. Just who do you think is going to testify they made what they signed up for on the interest form--you know 100 grand to a million. Who has made the goal or expected amount of at least 100 grand. There are many more fraudulent earnings claims documented, but you get the idea, laddie boy. Tell us who is going to face the music with you? Think of all those that have faced foreclosure, refinancing, sold homes, sold belongings, gone hungry, maxed out credit cards, used savings and 401ks and those still struggling financially because of how you, Tim and Advantage Conferences have changed their lives. Do you really want to face that army of former and quite devastated reps? Judgment day is at hand.

All this info is in the hands of the Attorney General's office, the FTC, the SEC, the Texas Department of Insurance, etc. After all the horrific losses do you think you will weasel out of this mess? Will Tim even be able to keep his insurance license after that Hidden Treasures fiasco and this current case involving fraud? I am still hearing rumors that this current whole life insurance has no sales and is crashing. Do you care to address that, Jack?

The many questions in my list that deserve an answer. You can't answer them because you will incriminate yourself, Tim Darnell and AC. This current case will be very enlightening.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

I appreciate those that private messaged me and emailed me over the past 24 hours. One thing that soapboxmom (why don't you use your real name now?) fails to recognize because she cannot, is the value in our mentoring products. Heather has never attended our conference, nor has she been plugged into our other mentoring products. It is a unfortunate fact that those who need a transformation and renewal of mindset, are the ones that are critical of these same mentoring products. A person has to want to change. I have been here and plugged into our product for 3 years, have attended 6 conferences to date, and I have learned more than I did from my MBA and 17 years in corporate America combined.

It is unfortunate that Zena Karelin has found it in her heart to name me in a lawsuit. I was not her enroller, nor did I talk with her before she joined Advantage Conferences. I even sent her money during a difficult time to bless her, while having no obligation to do so. She read and signed the representative agreement and she never attended the company's main product that she purchased, The Mindset Mentoring Conference. Zena sang the company's praises on a Mindset Mentoring call that is only for reps, so she was not attempting to influence candidates. I look forward to sharing all of my evidence with a jury. I will spend whatever is necessary to defend my character. I have never been sued and have never sued someone else in 40 years. I have complete confidence that we will prevail.

I also find it disappointing that Soapboxmom, who identified herself as "Elizabeth Templin" to one or more of our speakers (I am not sure why is she trying to misrepresent her identity still since we all know her name and address), who is really Heather Dobrott from Garland, TX, continues down this destructive path. Her latest efforts were to forward a copy of Zena's lawsuit to our pastor. I will continue to walk in love. We continue to be in prayer for her.

If you feel that you have been influenced in a negative way towards Advantage Conferences or me from defamatory or potentially libelous statements that Heather Dobrott, aka Soapboxmom, Mike Bromell, aka California Surfin, or any other individuals that have posted here on sca m.com, or on Heather Dobrott's site, please email me your contact information and a summary to:

Jack Weinzierl

Please be as specific as you can. If you were a candidate and this impacted your decision to purchase our mentoring products, please let me know. If you were a representative, and this influenced your mindset, business continuation and earnings, please let me know. If you can estimate the damages that you incurred, that would be helpful too. If you are with another company that gets attacked by these specific individuals on sca m.com, please let me know as well.

Brag about all your support, but destitute folks that are looking to Tim as a prophet and see AC as a church or the other few who are MLM junkies and desperate to find another mark to line their pockets are not going to be credible witnesses in court. It will all boil down to the e-mails, webpages, ads, videos, phone calls and court documents. All that documentation makes it obvious what the outcome of any court case will be.

Why don't we discuss the value of mentoring since you brought that up. Tim has always been a virtual pauper. You have always spent way beyond what any sensible financial planner would recommend.

Your 1 million dollar mortgage must be costing you around $5677 a month. Your second mortgage must be around $910. With insurance and taxes you must be eaten alive by that payment. Your current value should change to closely reflect you sale price of over 1.2 million. That will double your taxes. AC has had as few as zero sales a month in the past calendar year and it is down to less than a trickle in those better months. Is this the responsible handling of wealth you teach your reps?

SpyFu says:

So only 15 advertisers use the term Advantage Conferences and most are not AC reps. You have in desperation increased your budget. It was almost 4 grand last April and now from the piddly bit you allocated last fall it is back up to $1500. All that money and all those clicks and AC is still a colossal flop. Jack continues to ignore questions. Nothing new.. Jack, you can't pretend that you don't know the answers to the questions we ask. That won't work in court!

Jack, your perceived value of the mentoring and the conference is MUCH Different than the MARKET value of it.

Of course you have financial gain to praise it.

I don't know ANY business owner who does not think their product is the best on the market or does not think they provide the BEST customer service.

Of course they are going to tell you the do. Because they have financial gain to gain from it..

The fact of the matter is you would not have purchased the product without the ability to make money off of it. Therefore you can't say the product alone has that much value..

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

I just got off our powerful weekly Advantage Conferences Mindset Mentoring call. It was powerful information that is rarely taught in business and ministry. I was listening to the call and it was so obvious that the folks that have attacked us here will simply not get the value offered at Advantage Conferences. That is why no one will debate you here. It is simply a distraction.

During my reading this morning, here was some teaching that ministered to me this morning and here are some nuggets.

Stay sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading. Opportunities will come to you. In the meantime, you are being prepared for your calling. So lay aside every weight that could easily beset you and hinder you from fulfilling your calling and winning your race. (Heb. 12:1) Weights will distract you from your mission, so lay them aside. They may not be sin, but they will keep you from fulfilling your divine purpose. Distractions are part of the enemy's device. He uses distractions to keep you from walking in God's divine purpose.

Go before the Lord; seek His face, listen to His voice, and He will speak to you strongly and clearly. As part of the preparation for your calling, He will teach you how to hear His voice. To accurately follow God's plan for your life, you have to be able to understand the directions He gives you. You have to clearly see what He has ordained you to do. And you must be divinely led by Him. When the Lord leads you, there is divine protection, divine guidance, and divine wisdom.

As you seek His face, you will be emboldened as never before. When you know what He's called you to do, there is a boldness that accompanies His calling. As you yield to that boldness, doors will open for you. You will have more opportunities and supernatural favor than you can fathom. The plans God has for you are far greater than what you have imagined for yourself!

Super Conference....Jack says:
Quote:

This conference was so powerful that it became clear to me that it needs to be an experience that tens of thousands share, rather than a hundred or so that we've been averaging per event....

We're moving forward massively, and I would love to take all of you with me - that's been the offer on the table, but now we're closing out this particular methodology and moving into a larger format.....

With that new direction firmly in place, I won't be marketing via the Internet as the primary method of finding qualified Representatives as I have in the past. Instead, we'll be utilizing newspapers and radio to attract thousands to smaller ticket price events....

From the thousands of Attendees, dozens and even hundreds will understand the value of our product and will upgrade to our products, in particular the President's Package, which continues to offer the top value for customers. AC Mentors make $7,000.00 on each of these sales and will possibly experience multiple purchases at each event....

So, five people on this list will be accepted, and that's it. If you're an excuse maker or a procrastinator, then I hope that some of my e-mails have been a blessing to you. If you're one of the five, then I need to hear from you immediately. I would love to talk to you on the phone and you are welcome to call with any questions you may have. This is indeed an urgent timing situation...

Also, you need to be prepared to commit financially to this project. I certainly have committed from a time and financial standpoint, and don't consider it unreasonable at all to expect potential partners to do the same thing (although not nearly as much) like I have. You've heard the phrase, "it takes money to make money" - that statement is indeed true, although what I know about that is the decision to place money into an enterprise is just a decision that all successful people make regardless of the financial state they're in. Most think in terms of "can't" and "cling to the little money I have" - a mentality that never produces results. Those who understand the idea that all commercial enterprises require start-up funding, seed capital that, along with steady promotion, creates an environment that can produce fantastic profits - those are the individuals I'm looking to partner with....

Our first Super Conference is slated for March 15, 2008

When are we going to hear more about this event from Timmy's Magical Kingdom? I still haven't gotten a mailout, seen an ad on TV, seen an ad on the internet or heard an ad on the local radio stations. What's the matter boys? Why aren't we hearing about the SC?

Has urgent turned into desperate?

Lad, you have been very quiet. Did you round up anyone for your court case? Any of the 500 gone or 92 left going to ride to your rescue? There were 13 reps from June 2003 to January 2005. You said in mid 2006 you had 500 reps 200 of which were enrollments and 300 purchasers of some conference level. Now in 2008 you have 92 and that number is dropping like a rock.

All the harm AC has caused will be brought out in court:

bankruptcy

home refinances

homelessness

sold homes

foreclosures

sold possessions

hunger

401k money lost

savings spent

credit cards charged to the hilt etc.....

Keep the threats coming and more of the tragic truth will be in public record and shared here. I will not rest until I am sure no one else will be harmed by this scam.

The critics on this site constantly attack Advantage Conferences, our products, as well as me personally. In fact, look at any business or ministry having an impact and do a Google search. Attacks follow. It is unfortunate when people hide behind a screen name and think that they are immune to any responsibility/accountability. We operate in God's economy and I am going to continue to speak words of life and abundance when the world is constantly bashing and talking despair. This is not denial, but champions focus on the opportunity created in chaos and turmoil, as well as what they can do about it.

The people bashing here are the same ones who blame our government and specific leaders for our problems instead of praying for them and becoming part of the solution.

I know my heart and I know my motives. Am I perfect? Far from it. But I am contending for more and I thank God for His grace every day. I am a servant first and we are all called to minister.

I have complete confidence in the mentoring products that we represent as independent representatives with Advantage Conferences. Otherwise, I surely would not be here after 3 years and all these attacks. I do not own any of Advantage Conferences, but I am proud to represent this company and its products.

I encourage you to listen to these individuals share their experience with Advantage Conferences.

I would have paid $50,000 for what I have received over the past two years in terms of mentoring.

There will always be a group that wants to see you fail. It goes with the territory. Somehow if you fail, they feel better about themselves.

Well, we had another powerful mindset call yesterday.

I am expecting great things in my business this year.

I am expecting supernatural favor for my team members this year.

I am expecting divine connections with the best lineup of mentors for our next MMC.

Here are a few key scriptures that I was able to share on our call.

Colossians 4:12 - AMP...be convinced and fully assured in everything willed by God.

Hebrews 10:35 So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised.

1 John 5:14-15 This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us – whatever we ask – we know that we have what we asked him..

2 Timothy 1:7 For God did not give us a spirit of fear, but a spirit of power, and love, and a sound mind.

James 1:5-8 If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. But when he asks, he must believe and not doubt, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all he does.

1Peter 5:6-7 “Humble yourselves, therefore, under God’s mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time (proper time) 7. Call all your anxiety on him because he cares for you)

Amplified – vs7 Casting the whole of your care – all your anxieties, all your worries, all your concerns, ONCE AND FOR ALL – on Him. For he cares for you affectionately, and cares about you watchfully.

Have a blessed evening.

January 18, 2008 Ross Parker

Hi Jack,

I read your article on our Magnetic Sponsoring Forum and looked up your website.

You are so right about being sensitive to the Holy Spirit. Even just today I was nervous about all the public online communication I am doing, asking for God's protection as I put myself out there. You said when we follow His lead, there is "divine protection, divine guidance, and divine wisdom" and that boldness will accompany His true calling. Thank you for being bold. I'm inspired.

That weight that you mentioned that hinders us from staying in tune with the Holy Spirit's direction - it's pretty heavy. How can we win the race carrying heavy weights of distraction like fear of what others think, and fear of failure, and fear of attack, etc. Fears definitely are heavy weights but so are seemingly good things like you noted. The weight of just doing something good instead of doing a greater riskier calling of God is really heavy, really slows me down because it seems fine. But it's distraction by the enemy who loves to entice us with good things so that we aren't doing great things for God. It doesn't take boldness to get caught up in distraction.

I like to think of boldness as inner space exploration, my inner space, where, like you said, the Holy Spirit speaks. Being sensitive to the Holy Spirit and following through is bold! It's like an exciting expedition into adventure, into risky business! And it is critical like every thing else that goes with everlasting success. Inner space exploration is truly the only way to hear Him speak. He chooses to speak to us spirit to Spirit and if we are not sensitive to His voice, we will miss out on the greatest adventure of our lives. The Creator of the cosmos actually chooses to speak to us! All we have to do, as you know, is to invite the Holy Spirit of Christ to dwell in us, making Him our personal God and Lord.

Hard to imagine the Almighty God choosing us as His dwelling place now, instead of a glorious temple of gold and precious jewels like in Soloman's time. How in the world can I be the Holy of Holies? And yet I am, if I believe scripture and I do. What a fascinating journey inner space exploration is when the spirit of each of us, one person at a time, is made alive in Christ, and therefore tuned in to the Holy Spirit of God.

May the supernatural favor of God you mentioned continue to make you bold, my friend, because if we do not continue to share the truth about Him for the sake of others, who will?

I'm looking forward to reading more as you boldly go where few have gone before!

To your continued success in Christ,

Stephanie Weinzierl is no longer listed as a staff member of the children's ministry at their church. The information provided to that church by the dedicated posters here will allow that church to protect its flock from this scam. That may explain Jack's odd response to the latest information the pastor received. There is nothing even faintly resembling an attack as he calls it. We live in America and folks have a right to communicate under the 1st amendment. I deal in facts and have genuine a desire to see the public has information so that folks can make informed decisions regarding this venture.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

We have a society of quitters and those critics here are making it easier for folks to feel comfort in quitting. They are bashing the company and leaders with lies and innuendo that can assist newer reps to quit and fail, helping them further in their bashing initiatives. It is a viscous cycle of mediocrity, excuses, and truly a "lack" mindset. If you know anything about crabs in a pot, they will pull on their fellow crabs so no one can get out of the pot, all leading to their mutual demise.

It is kind of like the bashers who attack a company's stock while shorting that stock. The stock gets driven down with the herd mentality and it plays into their plan. In scam.com's case, the owners of the site are making massive amounts of money on Google AdSense revenue throughout the site. In fact, scam.com is promoting many of the same businesses that folks are bashing (sometimes on the same page). What do they care? Scam.com is making the money and their attackers and bashers are doing the work for them for free. A sad reality.

I had some revelation this weekend and I understand the folks that attack us are not bad people; they are just being used to do bad things. To Heather Dobrott, Soapboxmom, Mike Bromell and anyone else who attacks us, there is nothing you can do to make me not love you.

Romans 12:14

"Bless those who persecute you. Don't curse them; pray that God will bless them."

I really love you. I hate what is wrong and what you are doing and I will hold tightly to what is good. Have a blessed week.

To address the original post: I have been on nearly every conference call and at every Conference since June 2006. The price I paid for the Advantage Conferences products has been well worth it. From the beginning until now I have understood that there is always financial risk when starting a business of any kind. I own a "brick and mortar" business as well as being a part of Advantage Conferences, and the expense of running it is well beyond any marketing or purchases I have chosen to do for AC. In fact I have applied the things I have learned from Advantage Conferences to Green Cylinder Heads(my business) and It is growing and becoming more profitable because of the training from Advantage Conferences.

If you weren't satisfied with your Conference purchase, than for that I am truly sorry.

For those reading this that want to know more about Advantage Conferences, You can contact me personally. All of my info is in my signature. Take the time to look into both sides of this argument.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

<http://www.advantage-conferences-tra.../fear-not.html>

Jack it is very interesting you devoted your whole spiel to the subject of FEAR. I take it you now understand that legal correction is going to take place.

You have posted Tim's many lies about me. I never stalked anyone at anytime. I certainly have never been near either of your homes, families or recreational events. I never photographed your families and never made any sort of death threats as Timmy has been claiming. You do understand the police and my legal counsel have recommended I file suit against you both. It appears I will have no choice but to do so since Timmy, the lying goon, will not retract those vicious lies and remove those pages.

The police have been working with the neighborhood patrol, which my husband was actively involved in, because cases like this can lead to destitute, disgruntled reps destroying property or in rare cases physically harming innocent people. That is what your sick brother in scamming wants, though isn't it, Jack? Do you support putting my family in harm's way? You better give this some serious consideration as you may end up fighting another costly civil suit.

I also fully expect you boys to remove any reference to Mary Kay. I have never been involved with them or any other MLM. To paint me as a failed bitter rep is ridiculous and again totally fraudulent. You, Jack, are no Christian and do not value honesty.

These are the issues that effect my family, but what about all the lies, misrepresentations and deceptions surrounding Advantage Conferences itself. Do you really think those folks that lost tens of thousands of dollars are not going to take action? Very few families or individuals can recover from those losses reasonably. These folks are now facing or have faced hunger, bankruptcy, sale of homes, sale of possessions, gargantuan credit card debt, spent savings and retirement funds etc..... You and Tim and the other heavy promoters should be held accountable. You boys better clean up your acts quickly!

I said earlier it may be every scammer for himself. Is this the end of Jack and Tim as "brothers in Christ"? Do ask the boys about the current developments.

Announcing the Advantage Conferences Fire Sale!

Jack is announcing a new way to join the AC Paupers Support Group formerly known as the Millionaire Mindset Conference and the Mindset Mentoring Conference. This was on a packed call as usual. Monday 1/28/2008 had a whopping 9 people on the call. Did you guys make an even 10 for this one or get to your high for this year of about 15?

The boys, Tim and Jack, have decided to reduce the MMC-IV price to $7000.00 from the current $11,995.00. So, Tim gets 3 grand and Jack can pocket 4 grand. Doesn't that just smack of desperation?

Anyone who has bought an MMC-IV should immediately demand a refund for the difference in price. All the reputable companies out there will give customers (reps in your case) a refund for the difference as a matter of policy. Who wouldn't want $2995.00 back after losing thousands in this venture!

Jack,

For a guy with an MBA you sure do weird things. You might want to consider getting your own attorney to represent your best interest. Ciarochi sure is some choice after that Better Business Bureau case. Now, all the earnings misrepresentations, fictitious lawsuit threatening e-mails, fictional claims of stalking and death threats, Mary Kay stories, advising folks to use credit cards, mortgages, savings etc. and all those other numerous lovelies will be exposed under oath in public records. Check out those 21 questions I posed again and prepare to answer those in front of the judge. Way to go Jack!

We are now offering monthly subscriptions for people to get a glimpse into our Mindset Mentoring Conferences and our powerful mentoring products. You can begin for as little as $39.00 a month and you can begin today by clicking:

=> <http://www.advantageconferences.com/...bscription.asp>

Can you afford to make an investment in yourself today? Or rather, can you afford not to? I can tell you that you'll be glad you did.

Some of the great benefits you'll receive from our products are: you'll strengthen your relationship with Christ which is priority one; you'll get amazing inspirational testimonials and nuggets of wisdom that you can't get anywhere but from highly successful Christian millionaire and billionaire entrepreneurs; you'll become blessed by blessing others with what you learn, and if the business opportunity is a fit for you, it has an unlimited income potential. We have personally earned over $800,000 in commissions in our first three years and we are just getting started.

The marketplace is hungry for what we offer and there is an ever increasing harvest just waiting for someone to claim it. You'll learn time tested Biblical principles to create wealth, while serving others.

Have you ever wondered why some people make millions of dollars a year while others struggle to just barely get by, yet we all have the same 24 hours in a day? Much of it has to do with beliefs and mindsets about money. The parable of the talents is a good example of this. God has appointed you for something more and your timing is now.

Look at the subscription options at this link:

=> <http://www.advantageconferences.com/...bscription.asp>

Subscribe to the product level that fits your needs. I know that after you see the first DVD in the IMPACT subscription, you'll be ready to upgrade your subscription and get scheduled to attend the next Mindset Mentoring Conference.

And remember, if you are ready to take your business to the next level, you can save $5,000.00 on our President's Package right now, but we need to get your President's Interview approved quickly.

Let me know your intentions by Saturday night, as I have a limited amount of time to work with new team members.

In Service,

Jack blathered in November 2007:

Quote:

...I will be limiting my acceptance of people from this list - the one you're on - the one that this post is going to tonight in this e-mail, to only five new Representatives who can resourcefully enroll at the MMC-IV level. I'll keep the list, but those not chosen will not be asked to participate with me personally after December 15, 2007.

My new role will be to facilitate sales and growth for the Reps I'm already personally working with now (and by Dec. 15) by masterminding the production of the larger conferences and parceling out new enrollees and purchasers at those events to the Reps I'm developing now....So, five people on this list will be accepted, and that's it. If you're an excuse maker or a procrastinator, then I hope that some of my e-mails have been a blessing to you. If you're one of the five, then I need to hear from you immediately.

<http://www.scam.com/showpost.php?p=4...postcount=2824>

You are such a goof, lad. What happened to your claim that you would only work with those lucky five reps? You can't work with new team members when you have that five and a Super Conference to plan. Why is there no information available about that Super Conference. I will be there with my camara for that one!

If you have only earned over $800,000.00 in commissions you are in real trouble. $762,245.50 in commissions for your Jan 2007 press release means your earnings for the last year are abysmal, lad. The only thing unlimited in this deal is the downside! Its your reps and former reps that are struggling just to get by.

What harvest are you fantasizing about? There are no time tested principles to create wealth in AC. No one has or will make a million with AC. Tim was broke after taking All Star to bankruptcy as its founder, registered agent and 33% owner in 2004. Tim had $200,000.00 in credit card debt and had to borrow toilet paper and things from the neighbors. He also had reps giving him money back then.

Jack was floundering when his Soulmate MLM flopped and he left as Vice President. He was in disgust with his finances and had lost his life savings, $190,000.00, in MLM and stock. Tim begged Jack to do AC and he relented. Now in 2008 we are at a similiar juncture. The boys are embroiled in a costly lawsuit with lies, deceptions and controversy exposed for the public. Just cross Tim and you too will see his true colors as many have.

There is no way to take your AC business to any level but down the tubes. The boys appear desperate for money. No one that gets in at this juncture is likely to make a dime. Did anyone else notice that there are no ads for the March 15, 2008 conference that is only 5 weeks away? How can you sell conferences when there aren't any scheduled? Folks that have any questions can contact me. There are many resources to get help!
