

Page 19 of 29

< 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 >

Show 40 post\(s\) from this thread on one page

scams (<http://www.scam.com/index.php>)

- MLM / Pyramid Scams (<http://www.scam.com/forumdisplay.php?f=11>)

- - Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an EVIL Rat! Liar and Scammer!
(<http://www.scam.com/showthread.php?t=14273>)

Wishyouknew

04-20-2008 09:55 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

Good to have you back.. Care to make any predictions about the outcome of this next court case?? God going to pull you through this?

Is Tim planning to write another book about "Slaying his Giant" and make references about the former reps whom are suing Advantage Conferences?

I think its great that Soapboxmom and some of your former reps are holding you accountable for your actions and lies..

The case law from the BBB case should make this next court case a SLAM DUNK!!!

Soapboxmom

04-20-2008 09:36 PM

Re: Jack Weinzierl

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 506114)

Soapboxmom, just another example on how you twist the truth for your own agenda. In fact, it is interesting that those who disagree with you here get banned and have to open another account just to reply.

I am not a moderator here and have no control over who gets banned. You are breaking the rules and getting the same treatment as all those who do so.

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 506114)

I am dissappointed with your research here. If you were really in "the know" as you believe you are, you would know that our family left Oasis officially in December. In fact, you failed to mention (how convenient) that there are no staff members listed at the church except for Stan's wife. Oasis sold the building and merged with another ministry out of Los Angeles

We were blessed to have served the past 3 years at Oasis and it was time for us to help another ministry.

Quote:

Heather, that was very foolish on your part

From: Jack Weinzierl (jack@jackweinzierl.com)

Sent: Tue 1/15/08 12:22 PM

To: soapboxmom@hotmail.com

Heather, forwarding that to my pastor was extremely foolish on your part. We continue to pray for you Heather. You really should begin communicating with your real name as it is now known by many you attack.

In Service,

Jack

Jack, that e-mail is dated January 2008. You said "my pastor" and "we" after you claim you were long gone. I think it is much more likely your relationship at the church was damaged by the truth about your scam coming out. They were informed of everything by several concerned folks and I sent them the information about the current court case on January 15th as most Christians value the truth. They had a right to know so they could protect their flock.

Dentoncad.org says:

Quote:

Owner Name Oasis Christian Fellowship, Inc

Percent Ownership 100

Mailing Address 1569 W Main St

Lewisville, TX 75067

I can keep an eye on dentoncad.org, but that is a worthless rabbit trail as the point is the church is open and has regular services and in February through March did a series:

Quote:

Call To Battle

Date: Feb 16, 2008

Time: From 5:45 pm until 7:45 pm

Location: Oasis Church

1569 West Main Street

Lewisville, TX 75067

Map link

To Register, Click Here

For more information contact:

Kevin Weaver

info@calltobattle.org

Isn't Kevin Weaver an AC speaker from 2007? So, you could have continued to attend the church and enjoyed that relationship with your pastor you bragged of. Weren't you taking him out to lunch frequently? Wasn't Stephanie actively serving in the children's ministry?

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 506114)

Your heart is so hardened and only He can soften it. As for Treasures, regardless of what paperwork was in place and not in place, I was pleased to contribute monies to these ministry projects and people. Have a blessed weekend.

So, I was correct all along. I knew Tim had not filed anything with the IRS. Church members say the church didn't want any affiliation with Tim and didn't know about it until I found the corporation pages months ago and informed them. The papers filed with the state list Treasures for the Kingdom as an integrated auxiliary, but as the church doesn't recognize the relationship I suspect the IRS won't either. How could Tim put the non-profit status of his church in jeopardy? How could he risk the donations of his trusting reps being deemed not deductible? He didn't mention his church until recently. Why is that, Jack? How could he deceive his reps like this? What do you think will happen now that this whole sordid mess is in the hands of the church's attorneys? Will Tim honestly disclose the Treasures documents as required by law? Will we see that all donations and expenses are accurately accounted for? Will he gladly provide the church everything as his trickery involved them in his mess?

Jack, you do understand that AC has destroyed the lives of countless reps and put the churches in very compromising positions, don't you? Our family has sacrificed a great deal of time, money and emotional energy to reach out to the many you have harmed. How many tears have you shed over the great tragedies you have set in motion, Jack? Why is it you, Tim and the Treasures for the Kingdom Foundation have not reached out to the many reps that need help?

Soapboxmom

jweinzierl

04-21-2008 07:18 PM

Re: Jack Weinzierl

Soapboxmom, I read your post above and it is not even worth a response.

Your constant attacks on this company is what caused many of those you are now consoling to fail. You have been screaming fire and scam for two years now causing some people to operate out of fear. I have several businesses and Advantage Conferences will continue to be my main focus for many years to come.

Amazing that your hatred and attacks come from a person who has never experienced our main products.

So very sad indeed. Have a blessed week.

txfan

04-22-2008 12:28 PM

Re: Jack Weinzierl

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 506114)

As for Treasures, regardless of what paperwork was in place and not in place, I was pleased to contribute monies to these ministry projects and people.

Well, Jack, then I hope you didn't report it on your personal tax return as a charitable contribution since that could lead to a personal audit for you also!

Soapboxmom

04-23-2008 10:18 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack has his OPEN group--- <http://www.themarketleaders.com/>. Before, he had the colossal flop, The Christian Millionaire Mindset Mentors, on Ryze. OPEN too, I predict will fall by the wayside. Remember Jack's diatribe against the scambusters here. It still makes me chuckle!

<http://christianmmm-network.ryze.com/>

<http://www.ryze.com/posttopic.php?to...42&confid=1785>

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

04-24-2008 02:32 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

Since we are on the subject of Timmy's charity debacle. Why is it you kept arguing with me and didn't check it out yourself? I have also learned you promised to match donations. How much did you sink into that mess? Did Timmy lie to you about the whole thing or were you in on his scheme to use his church without their knowledge or permission?

What does your current pastor think of what you do to line your pockets. Can we expect your new church to endorse you? It seems you are keeping that part of your life secret. Why is that, Jack? Is the truth more than they can handle?

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

04-24-2008 09:52 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

One of your disgruntled ex reps e-mailed me this.

<http://www.big-ticket-wealth.com/>

In the early Advantage Conferences days you swore that it would be your sole focus. Now you are desperately looking for any other ship to jump to. The AC Titanic has split and is on its way to the bottom of the abyss. Now that Timmy's charity debacle is in the hands of the church's capable attorneys, his schemes and legal misadventures are all documented online and a whole slew of Tim's threatening letters with provably false threats are in the hands of the many lawyers working to clean up Tim's messes, is it now every scammer for himself? Do you really expect us to believe AC is going to make it to conference #7 and that you will still be aboard that Titanic?

Why don't you fill us in on your latest slimy deal. Will that one be built on the same lies and deceit? Your video sounds just like the nonsense you spewed with the last dozen or so scams you dragged folks into. Are you really going to act as your own attorney in the current lawsuit? Talk about having a fool for a client.

Soapboxmom

jweinzierl

04-24-2008 11:27 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

I have personally worked on two of the Treasures for the Kingdom projects doing major remodel jobs on two single women's homes all at our cost. I personally do not care if this was deductible or not as that is not my motivation. I don't even think I deducted it for that matter. For you to question the 50+ representatives that gave of their time and talents to help these people is ridiculous and irresponsible.

I have built multiple businesses for years and will continue to do so. You may want to try that yourself vs labeling businesses as scams. We all know you hate anything having to do with network marketing just so folks reading this know your bias.

I think it is sad that you are still attacking a company that has shifted to a straight affiliate model. Good luck with that. As for attorneys, we are very good in that department and I will fund anything to defend my good name and our business. You are interesting if not a bit predictable. Personal attacks on Mike and Laura Melvin are your latest. If you only knew the people you were attacking or better yet, if you had only experienced the product you hate.

Then again, who would comfort those that were harmed by your own bashing?

Soapboxmom

04-25-2008 04:06 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Quote:

-----Original Message-----

From: Jack Weinzierl

Sent: Friday, April 25, 2008 10:52 AM

To: My Clueless Marks

Advantage Conferences is one of the world-wide leaders for ongoing Christ-centered business and financial mentoring, helping individuals achieve personal growth and increased acumen in business, mindset, marketing, finances, income, leadership, and much more while strengthening their faith in Jesus Christ. An Advantage Mentoring Membership enables members to access a vast array of live and recorded training and services. For a limited time only we are offering a highly attractive pre-launch special, a significant 10% discount on the normal Advantage Mentoring Annualmembership pricing.

Normally $999.00, for a brief window of time you can obtain your annual membership for only $900.00 (plus a 3% PayPal fee). Take advantage of this rare and excellent savings soon, because with the impending Advantage Mentoring launch, the sale price postings will all reflect the $999.00 pricetag.

Email me for the Paypal link.

ALSO, as an Advantage Mentoring Affiliate, you will be able to offset your membership cost by enrolling only two individuals who pay for their AM Membership. Once you've enrolled two AM Annual Memberships, your service will have paid for itself FOR AN ENTIRE YEAR! You will find Advantage Mentoring to be an entirely new environment featuring powerful content and loving, consistent support that you will be receiving on an ongoing basis. Enroll more than two and you will be in a positive cash flow scenario that will be exciting and rewarding!

If you are an existing PASSPORT member, Advantage Mentoring is already included. You can still become a PASSPORT FOUNDER if you get your order in over the next few days (life-time AM member and lifetime Mindset Mentoring Conference Attendee with no subsequent ticket purchases required for the life of the program.

If PASSPORT (9,995.00) is too steep for you right now, don't miss out on the Advantage Mentoring Membership offer. Take advantage of the sales price now and welcome to Advantage Mentoring!

Email me for the Paypal link and then Email me your Paypal receipt so I can enter you into our mentoring training series. If you are ready to purchase your Passport, email me and I will get you the appropriate form. Have a blessed weekend.

In Service,

Jack Weinzierl

817.205.9513

Lantana, TX 76226
United States

Jack you and Tim have no business acumen. Tim has done nothing but run one scheme after another into the ground and left hundreds and hundreds of people out thousands and tens of thousands of dollars due to his folly. This is just another futile attempt at pumping the water out of the Titanic.

Soapboxmom

P.S. Is Timmy ever going to pay his property taxes that are way past due? Who is your brilliant new attorney? I don't see one listed with the district court.

jweinzierl

04-26-2008 12:08 AM

Re: jack weinzierl

Soapboxmom, you are unbelievable. A person like you who hates all network marketing should be doing cartwheels, but your hatred of this company and its leaders has blinded you. AC is no longer a network marketing company, plain and simple. Businesses adapt and change with the times and economy and I applaud Tim Darnell for these bold changes allowing folks to get involved for as little as $99 a month.

You and I can disagree forever regarding the value of our products, but I have attended 6 MMCs and you have attended none. I have attended about 150 hours of Mindset Mentoring calls and you have attended none.

The fact is, TheMarketLeaders.com has had over 52,000 page views already, over 7,300 visits and the average person stays for more than 7 1/2 minutes per visit. It is totally free and less than 15% of the folks are from AC, but you attack that too because it is Christ-centered mentoring and you have an agenda. Have a blessed weekend.

Now, you are attacking Free services too and any affiliate program because you don't believe in our mentoring products. Go figure.

I don't need to debate business acumen with you. Please.

jweinzierl

04-26-2008 12:11 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Heather Dobrott, from Garland, TX, please tell the rest of those on this board where you live, use your name on posts, where you go to church and so on. A "secret" life? Too funny. Last I looked, I have been an open book and you just don't like the story. Share your story with everyone here.

Soapboxmom

04-27-2008 10:20 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 508681)

I have personally worked on two of the Treasures for the Kingdom projects doing major remodel jobs on two single women's homes all at our cost. I personally do not care if this was deductible or not as that is not my motivation. I don't even think I deducted it for that matter. For you to question the 50+ representatives that gave of their time and talents to help these people is ridiculous and irresponsible.

Jack,

You sound as if you are admitting to charity fraud, lad. The work done is quite commendable and I applaud those who have given their time and money. You are totally misreading my posts. You are having reading comprehension problems again.

Our family has spent thousands reaching out to former reps you defrauded. We knew it wouldn't be tax deductible. Your charity debacle is based on lies and deceit. The status and nature of the entity was totally misrepresented in order to solicit donations.

If you were matching donations and gave thousands or tens of thousands of dollars, don't tell us you didn't deduct it on your federal taxes. I am sure the plaintiff as a donor will request those records and your annual tax returns for 2005-2007. IRS audit here you come.

That charity Timmy set up without his church's blessing or knowledge is just a way to fraudulently collect money and use it as he pleases with no active board of directors, control by the church or reasonable oversight. One of the 3 board members hadn't spoken to Tim in 2 years as of this April.

It is a relationship of parent and affiliate/auxiliary the church won't recognize and as a result the IRS probably won't recognize either. Timmy said all along that it was a federally recognized (the IRS is the only federal agency that has that in its mandate) 501 (c) (3). He knew full well it wasn't. The Texas Non Profit Corporation Act does not give an entity tax deductible contributions either. That again is the IRS.

Churches don't have to register to have that status, but if they are large umbrella organizations and have auxiliaries many will register so everything is covered under a group letter. The IRS made it clear that Treasures must follow the written guidelines I published. Let's review a few salient points we should be discussing.

<http://www.scam.com/showpost.php?p=5...postcount=3148>

Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act says:

Quote:

All records, books, and annual reports of the financial activity of the corporation shall be kept at the registered office or principal office of the corporation in this state for at least three years after the closing of each fiscal year and shall be available to the public for inspection and copying there during normal business hours.

Do you and Timmy have the books available for public inspection and copying as required by law?

The IRS says:

Quote:

-
- be described both as an IRC section 501(c)(3) charitable organization and as a public charity under IRC sections 509(a)(1), (2), or (3),
 - be affiliated with a church or convention or association of churches, and
 - receive financial support primarily from internal church sources as opposed to public or governmental sources.
-

How do you explain that when it is obvious the church is not associated with scammer Tim and is not treating the foundation as required? The church's website has never mentioned TFK and if one calls they have no clue what foundation one is talking about.

The IRS also says:

Quote:

IRS Approval of Exemption Application

If the application for tax-exempt status is approved, the IRS will notify the organization of its status, any requirement to file an annual information return, and its eligibility to receive deductible contributions. The IRS does not assign a special number or other identification as evidence of an organization's tax-exempt status.

Tell us what you know about those requirements and how AC is fulfilling them.

In addition the IRS says:

Quote:

Churches and religious organizations, like many other charitable organizations, qualify for exemption from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3) and are generally eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions....

Quote:

Church Exemption Through a Central/Parent Organization

A church with a parent organization may wish to contact the parent to see if it has a group ruling. If the parent holds a group ruling, then the IRS may already recognize the church as tax exempt. Under the group exemption process, the parent organization becomes the holder of a group ruling that identifies other affiliated churches or other affiliated organizations. A church is recognized as tax exempt if it is included in a list provided by the parent organization. The parent is then required to submit an annual group exemption update to the IRS in which it provides additions, deletions, and changes within the group. If the church or other affiliated organization is included on such a list, it does not need to take further action to obtain recognition of tax-exempt status. An organization that is not covered under a group ruling should contact its parent organization to see if it is eligible to be included in the parent's application for the group ruling. For general information on the group exemption process, see Revenue Procedure 80-27, 1980-1 C.B. 677.

Where is Timmy's letter showing he is part of a group ruling?

Furthermore the IRS says:

Quote:

(h) Integrated auxiliary—(1) In general. For purposes of this title, the term integrated auxiliary of a church means an organization that is—

(i) Described both in sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a) (1), (2), or (3);

(ii) Affiliated with a church or a convention or association of churches; and

(iii) Internally supported. (receive financial support primarily from internal church sources)

(2) Affiliation. An organization is affiliated with a church or a convention or association of churches, for purposes of paragraph (h)(1)(ii) of this section, if—

(i) The organization is covered by a group exemption letter issued under applicable administrative procedures, (such as Rev. Proc. 80-27 (1980-1 C.B. 677); See §601.601(a)(2)(ii)(b)), to a church or a convention or association of churches;

(ii) The organization is operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with (as defined in §1.509(a)-4) a church or a convention or association of churches; or

(iii) Relevant facts and circumstances show that it is so affiliated.

(3) Facts and circumstances. For purposes of paragraph (h)(2)(iii) of this section, relevant facts and circumstances that indicate an organization is affiliated with a church or a convention or association of churches include the following factors. However, the absence of one or more of the following factors does not necessarily preclude classification of an organization as being affiliated with a church or a convention or association of churches—

(i) The organization's enabling instrument (corporate charter, trust instrument, articles of association, constitution or similar document) or by-laws affirm that the organization shares common religious doctrines, principles, disciplines, or practices with a church or a convention or association of churches;

(ii) A church or a convention or association of churches has the authority to appoint or remove, or to control the appointment or removal of, at least one of the organization's officers or directors;

(iii) The corporate name of the organization indicates an institutional relationship with a church or a convention or association of churches;

(iv) The organization reports at least annually on its financial and general operations to a church or a convention or association of churches;

(v) An institutional relationship between the organization and a church or a convention or association of churches is affirmed by the church, or convention or association of churches, or a designee thereof; and

(vi) In the event of dissolution, the organization's assets are required to be distributed to a church or a convention or association of churches, or to an affiliate thereof within the meaning of this paragraph (h).

(4) Internal support. An organization is internally supported, for purposes of paragraph (h)(1)(iii) of this section, unless it both—

Again, Jack, we are addressing how Timmy set up his charity and why the church was never mentioned as the parent organization until April 11, 2008. If this is a Christian company, an oasis of integrity and built on honesty why is it every time I investigate another aspect of AC I find it is all built on lies and deceit?

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

04-27-2008 11:03 PM

Re: jack weinzierl

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 509222)

...The fact is, TheMarketLeaders.com has had over 52,000 page views already, over 7,300 visits and the average person stays for more than 7 1/2 minutes per visit. It is totally free and less than 15% of the folks are from AC, but you attack that too because it is Christ-centered mentoring and you have an agenda. Have a blessed weekend....

I don't need to debate business acumen with you. Please.

Gee, Jack, I wonder how many of those reads are potential marks and how many are the dedicated scambusters here. I have been counting the AC people and I have noticed most members are inactive. They sign on and then don't bother to return to your really lame site. The yahoo group is still shrinking so I doubt OPEN has garnered you a sale.

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

04-28-2008 01:42 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 508681)

As for attorneys, we are very good in that department and I will fund anything to defend my good name and our business.

Timmy, couldn't keep the reputable attorney he hired to go after me. Attorneys that hear of his BBB debacle, the Writ of Garnishment that emptied AC's accounts and Timmy's vast collection of threatening letters with verifiably false threats (remember that fictional grand jury indictment for libel and imaginary 400 or 405 grand judgment) won't have anything to do with this scam. Do let the district court know who this brilliant legal mind is. I will make sure they get the facts. Then you boys will be dropped like hot potatoes. Loose cannons that have a history of fabrication are not very attractive clients, Jack! You are keeping us all amused.

With the AC Titanic sinking fast how do you propose to fund these legal misadventures?

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

04-30-2008 11:28 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

<http://www.veoh.com/users/jweinzierl>

Quote:

About jweinzierl

My Website:www.big-ticket-wealth.com

About Me:<http://www.Big-Ticket-Wealth.com> online business opportunity. Learn why I said NO to Passport to Wealth. Earn $50,000 a month following a proven system. Christian mentoring. Call me at 817.205.9513.

<http://www.scam.com/showpost.php?p=421356&postcount=480>

<http://www.scam.com/showpost.php?p=440033&postcount=504>

Tell us scammer, Jack, why it is you have to jump from one scum bum deal to the next when you claim folks can make $50,000.00 a month in these programs? We will, of course, require tax returns showing that $50,000.00 a month you say we can earn with that proven system, buffoon. Those claims in writing sure will look good in front of the judge!

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-01-2008 09:32 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

Read your ad above again. That is exactly why you dirtbags get in trouble. You have made a fantastic earnings claim and are not substantiating it. How many make that $50,000.00 a month? 1 in 10,000 or 1 in 100,000 or 1 in a million might make that. How many thousands or tens of thousands will lose money to line the pockets of the top goon that makes that? How many must be financially ruined to funnel that money up to the dirtbags like you that spend the big advertising bucks on deceptive ads like that. I will include that in my next snail mail packet to the FTC.

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-06-2008 03:15 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Quote:

Current:

President at TheMarketLeaders.com

Past:

President at SoulMate

President at AED@Home

Marketing and E-Commerce Consultant at Nextera

Jack Weinzierl, MBA jack@jackweinzierl.com's Experience

President

TheMarketLeaders.com

(Privately Held; Marketing and Advertising industry)

March 2005 — Present (3 years 3 months)

I am currently assembling a global team of entrepreneurs that will serve as an Oasis for professionals seeking to combine their Christian faith with their business ventures.

President

SoulMate

(Privately Held; Internet industry)

2004 — 2005 (1 year)

Brand development, web site traffic growth, web site UI and integration of our service and networking model for thousands of business partners.

President

AED@Home

(Privately Held; Medical Devices industry)

2002 — 2004 (2 years)

Responsible for developing the complete business plan and go to market strategy for this new enterprise. I was responsible for raising capital, forging exclusive distribution agreements, establishing a call center, all marketing initiatives, P&L responsibility, as well as selection and full integration with our Oracle system.

Marketing and E-Commerce Consultant

Nextera

(Public Company; 201-500 employees; Internet industry)

2001 — 2002 (1 year)

Authored the company's 2001 corporate marketing plan, defined corporate vision and charted courses of action. Outlined objectives, strategy, mission, value proposition, SWOT analysis, target market, competition, research, financials and forecasts.

Served as project manager for the 2000 shareholders report. Conducted interviews with executive team and brought project in on schedule and under budget by 20%. Publication was hailed as an outstanding success and was leveraged in recruitment and business development initiatives.

Vice President
School Health Corporation
(Privately Held; 51-200 employees; Medical Devices industry)

1989 — 2001 (12 years)

Record of rapid promotion with this $25 million privately-held distributor of medical supplies (via catalog and E-Commerce) to the K-12, collegiate and professional athletic marketplace. Provided strategic, tactical and creative leadership across the marketing discipline to accelerate the business development pipeline. Responsibilities included website development, traditional/electronic marketing/promotions, strategic business partnering, and cross-functional team leadership.

Developed high-profile marketing campaigns, integrating electronic media with traditional marketing tactics (catalogs, website, database marketing, direct mail, brochures, print advertisements).

Themarketleaders.com website went up in March 2008 exactly 3 years after the March 2005 date you fictionalized. It is also not a business entity registered in any state that I am aware of. So, who cares if you call yourself president. Why don't you run down the street in your drawers and proclaim yourself the king of the maintenance engineers as you proudly wave a toilet brush!

I take it you are wanting to hide your association with the Advantage Conferences scam the way that Titanic is headed. You were actually in Advantage Conferences defrauding trusting Christians from March 2005 to the present. That association you had with AC for 3 years and 3 months is a sure career killer.

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-07-2008 10:18 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

<http://vids.myspace.com/index.cfm?fu...deoID=33038213>

Jack has found yet another crum bum deal. Can't we all just smell the absolute desperation. WorldVentures here comes Jack. It is just down the street from him in Dallas. Yikes!

Soapboxmom

jweinzierl

05-08-2008 06:45 PM

Re: 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl

SoapBoxMom, 2005 date fictionalized? I feel so sorry for you and your mindset. As you spread your hatred on these threads daily, Tim Darnell is sharing the Word of God each and every week. I build multiple businesses and will continue to do so for years to come. SBM, I know who I serve and I surely have better things to do with my time than hanging out on a board like this for more than 5 minutes. If you only could focus your passion on something that produces and not destroys. It has been your tactics of calling pastors and calling venues and contacting speakers to bash this company that will bare bad fruit. To play a victim yourself is almost humorous and people can see right through that. I do pray for you often.

Purpose: Spreading Good News to the World!

Cover to Cover Campaign

One of the greatest and most rewarding tasks you can ever accomplish is the reading of the Bible from Genesis all the way through Revelation. If you would like to start this journey (we read slowly), you are welcome to join an ever-growing group! Simply signify your intentions by clicking here. You will be blessed!

NEW TO THE BIBLE? If you are a new Christian or just haven't done much Bible reading yet, prior to committing to the Cover to Cover Campaign, I suggest you read three books in the New Testament for starters. Read the books of Matthew, John, and James. These wonderful books will give you a great introduction to the Christian faith and will be very eye-opening for you! Starting here will allow you to have a fresh perspective to begin the Cover to Cover study.

Footsteps of Faith Messenger - Issue 205

Praying for Terrorists
Matthew 5:43-44b

Tim Darnell

"You have heard it said, 'Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be sons of your Father in heaven."
Matthew 5:43-44a

In the sixties, we often heard, "Jesus is the answer." My fun-loving Puerto Rican friend, Frankie, would always comment, "I know Jesus is the answer, but what is the question," and everybody would laugh.

Here's an example of one of those important questions (of many) for you and me and the entire world, "how is the hatred and war in the Middle East ever going to be resolved?" Quite assuredly, the answer is that that situation can and will only be resolved when it is answered correctly – through Jesus Christ. He is the "way, the truth, and the life" John 14:6a and anytime that crucial, elemental understanding is rejected, then chaos ensues.

Neither side, Jews nor Palestinians believe Jesus is the answer. They believe that insults and threats are the answer. They believe that revenge is the answer. They believe that return of ownership of a small tract of land is the answer. The two sides will back down every once in a while, have a 'peace' conference followed by a truce, all the while thinking negotiation is the answer. That's sensible and reasonable, but it is not the answer. After a few weeks or months following the peace conference (sporting a conjured human answer that never includes Jesus), they'll quickly resort back to the belief that rocks and rockets aimed and deployed at their hated enemy is the "new" answer. All of those so called, answers - are not answers – they are man-made solutions that completely miss the point. Those answers are the thief's answer, but not Jesus' answer.

The fact is, their "answers" have not worked, and they never will. Their humanistic formulas always lead to the same desperate course of action - destruction. Destruction only begets more retaliation, ever-widening distrust, escalating anger and hatred, and further loss of lives. That is not Jesus' way and it is simply not the answer. Only Jesus is the answer. Jesus says, "come to me all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28 When the truth confronted the Jews in Jesus' day, they were quick to pick up stones, and reluctant to accept Him as their Savior. (See John 10:31-32) The same is true today, and until that changes, the same bitterness, darkness, and strife will remain as it has for so long.

I've seen first-hand how lives can be radically and dramatically turned around by Jesus Christ – fully changed by the supernatural power of God through Jesus Christ. I've also seen many, many people reject Jesus Christ, and in so doing, they set themselves up for disaster. That applies to towns, cities, countries and entire regions as well. Jesus warned His disciples about towns who wouldn't listen to the message of Christ, "I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town" Luke 10:12 Sodom, if you remember was completely and violently destroyed due to its utter rejection of God. That is a serious message, one not to be ignored.

In my personal experience, I've often seen people weep intensely as they've listened to the Good News of Jesus Christ and accepted Him into their heart, genuinely and with conviction. I've also been scoffed, mocked, derided, and lied about due to my sharing the truth of the message of Christ – many, many times for years. That will never change for many, although some of the mockers will come to their senses and receive the Good News, praise God!

We know that mankind has stubbornly rejected Jesus from the time of Adam. Separation from God is no laughing matter, but willfully choosing to reject Jesus Christ, our Creator and Sustainer is the sure route to destruction.

Now, my friend, it is time for us to pray for our enemies, that they would not continue to reject the answer, but would accept and embrace the answer – a genuine acceptance and trust in Jesus Christ. He is the only answer to all of our questions, and especially to the extremely important conundrums that surround all of us. He is the answer when individuals and entire nations are at odds with each other. Jesus absorbed all the blame and all the anger on a cross more than 2,000 years ago for the angry Palestinian teenager whose family has been wiped out by mortar fire. He took on all the accusations and venom welling up inside the Jewish woman's heart due to the tragic loss of her son in a failed military operation.

When a person comes to know Jesus Christ and puts their trust in Him and Him alone, they begin to discover true peace. The Holy Spirit begins to indwell them and soon the fruits of the Spirit emerge: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Galatians 5:22-23a Rejection of the Holy Spirit causes the negative opposites of these wonderful gifts to appear; and puts a person and even entire countries and regions at risk that they will eventually spiral out of control and experience chaos and destruction.

Do you have an enemy? Do you have someone who offends you? Is there someone against whom you have harbored anger and frustration? It is time to forgive them. It is time to pray for them, that God would have mercy on them and bless them. Let us all quit blaming, and drop to our knees and begin praying in earnest. Bring Christ into the equation. Let Him bear your burdens. It is exactly what He asks us to do and wants us to do. There is the real answer.

Jesus Christ is the only power capable of solving issues that are so daunting as the seemingly incessant warring of the Jews and Palestinians. He is the only power that will change a situation you may find yourself in now regarding an enemy and situation that has haunted you for too long. Pray for them. Ask God to bless them and reveal Himself to them. Ask God to show His mighty love for them and that genuine mutual forgiveness will appear.

Yes, Frankie, Jesus is indeed the answer, regardless of the question. He is the answer that we've known about all along, but for some reason, have not chosen to recognize, or follow through on our end by believing and praying. If you've forgotten the answer, let this message serve to remind you – it's Jesus. Don't give up on Jesus – He's not given up on you, and He wants you to come to Him with your problems, your pleas, and the desires of your heart.

Question: How do people resolve conflicts? They turn to love versus anger, blame, and conflict. God is love, and you will know His complete love when you find the way to God, a personal relationship with His Son, Jesus Christ. It is a matter of faith and surrender, not intellectual, formulaic reasoning; but rather patching the relationship that restores all people to Himself and makes people whole again. He is the answer for you. He is the answer for the Middle East.

You're right, Frankie, whatever the question is, there is a single answer. His name is Jesus.

If you would like to commit your life to Jesus Christ, you can do so, and thereby experience the most important gift ever offered to mankind! You don't have to be perfect – I'm certainly not and I know you aren't either. In fact, we all sin and fall far short of perfection. Won't you make the greatest decision you can ever make? I pray that you will do so today.

To accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, click this link:

<http://www.timdarnell.org/prayer.asp>

Tim Darnell is a Christian business owner, professional recording artist, and most importantly, husband to Cathy and father to Lindy, Hannah, and Caleb.

Cover to Cover Schedule and Tips:

Welcome to the Cover to Cover Campaign!

Simply signify your intentions to join the Cover to Cover Campaign by clicking here. You will be blessed!

May's Reading

Group #40 (C to C Readers beginning in May 2008) Genesis

Group #39 (C to C Readers beginning in April 2008) Exodus

Group #38 (C to C Readers beginning in March 2008) Leviticus; Numbers (Leviticus can be a little slow going, but you can get through it!)

Group #37 (C to C Readers beginning in February 2008) Deuteronomy

Group #36 (C to C Readers beginning in January 2008) Joshua & Judges

Group #35 (C to C Readers beginning in December 2007) Ruth; 1 Samuel & 2 Samuel

Group #34 (C to C Readers beginning in November 2007) 1 Kings & 2 Kings

Group #33 (C to C Readers beginning in October 2007) 1 Chronicles & 2 Chronicles

Group #32 (C to C Readers beginning in September 2007) Ezra & Nehemiah

Group #31 (C to C Readers beginning in August 2007) Esther & Job

Group #30 (C to C Readers beginning in July 2007) Psalms

Group #29 (C to C Readers beginning in June 2007) Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs

Group #28 (C to C Readers beginning in May 2007) Isaiah

Group #27 (C to C Readers beginning in April 2007) Jeremiah and Lamentations

Group #26 (C to C Readers beginning in March 2007) Ezekiel

Group #25 (C to C Readers beginning in February 2007) Daniel, Hosea, Joel and Amos

Group #24 (C to C Readers beginning in January 2007)

Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi (Get ready – you will have finished the entire Old Testament this month!)

Group #23 (C to C Readers beginning in December - 2006): Matthew and Mark

Group #22 (C to C Readers beginning in November - 2006): Luke and John

Group #21 (C to C Readers beginning in October - 2006): Acts

Group #20 (C to C Readers beginning in September - 2006):

Romans & 1 Corinthians

Group #19 (C to C Readers beginning in August - 2006): II Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians
Group #18 (C to C Readers beginning in July - 2006): Philippians, Colossians, I & II Thessalonians, I & II Timothy, Titus, Philemon
Group #17 (C to C Readers beginning in June - 2006): Hebrews, James, 1 Peter, 2 Peter
Group #16 (C to C Readers beginning in May - 2006): Jude and Revelation
Group #15 (C to C Readers beginning in April - 2006): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - April 2008
Group #14 (C to C Readers beginning in March - 2006): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Mar 2008
Group #13 (C to C Readers beginning in February - 2006): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Feb 2008
Group #12 (C to C Readers beginning in January - 2006): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Jan 2008
Group #11 (C to C Readers beginning in December - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Dec 2007
Group #10 (C to C Readers beginning in November - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Nov 2007
Group #9 (C to C Readers beginning in October - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Oct 2007
Group #8 (C to C Readers beginning in September - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Sept 2007
Group #7 (C to C Readers beginning in August - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Aug 2007
Group #6 (C to C Readers beginning in July - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - July 2007
Group #5 (C to C Readers beginning in June - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - June 2007
Group #4 (C to C Readers beginning in May - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - May 2007
Group #3 (C to C Readers beginning in April - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - April 2007
Group #2 (C to C Readers beginning in March - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Mar 2007
Group #1 (C to C Readers beginning in February - 2005): Cover to Cover Campaign Completed - Feb 2007

Congratulations to you on your decision! This is one commitment that will pay off beyond comprehension!

Pray for divine guidance and understanding each time prior to reading scripture. Remember, you are reading God's Words written to and for you! This is extremely powerful, so get ready to be empowered!

If you will resolve to read two chapters (or more) per sitting, you can easily accomplish the monthly assignments. How do you eat an elephant? One bite at a time!

If you get behind, you can join the group that came after you - no disgrace whatsoever!

Be sure to underline and/or highlight passages that stand out to you. You can even circle a verse or sections that really speak to you!

If you have questions, feel free to e-mail me at: TimD@AdvantageConferences.com Dialogue can be very helpful.

Reading the Bible is like developing a new muscle. The more you work out with it, the more you'll "get it". Don't get discouraged - be encouraged! Some books are easier to read than others. Every book contains incredible material - and soon it will start coming together into profound new understanding and revelation for you.

I'm praying for you daily. You can do this, no question about it. God bless you immensely!

In His Service,

Tim Darnell
Publisher / Editor
Footsteps of Faith Messenger

Soapboxmom

05-08-2008 07:22 PM

Re: 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 514855)

SoapBoxMom, 2005 date fictionalized? I feel so sorry for you and your mindset. As you spread your hatred on these threads daily, Tim Darnell is sharing the Word of God each and every week. I build multiple businesses and will continue to do so for years to come. SBM, I know who I serve and I surely have better things to do with my time than hanging out on a board like this for more than 5 minutes. If you only could focus your passion on something that produces and not destroys. It has been your tactics of calling pastors and calling venues and contacting speakers to bash this company that will bare bad fruit. To play a victim yourself is almost humorous and people can see right through that. I do pray for you often.

I am sorry you are so confused. I have contacted the church numerous times as have several other concerned individuals. Tim's hate speech at the conference where he for the umpteenth time spread those vicious lies about me stalking you idiots and sending death threats led to a very involved phone call. Tim's threatening letters to other reps and the one that led to the police at his door are all in the church's and its attorneys hands. Did Tim tell you and his reps about all those many threatening letters he sent out like the rest of us send Christmas cards? The church's attorneys need them in light of the current legal nightmare Tim has dragged them into. Folks from the church contacted me for information to handle that disaster. I take it you don't know or aren't being honest with your reps about that one.

I am sadly just one of hundreds of victims of this scam. Why is it you don't follow what the Bible commands and feed your enemy? I take it you and Tim skipped those verses or only honor the ones that suit your twisted purpose. Can't your bogus foundation afford to help the many you boys have harmed? I suggest you and Tim retract those hideous death threat and stalking allegations. I don't think you can handle any more legal challenges. What kind of sick hatred does Tim possess that he would spread vicious lies like that? He is determined to destroy his family by dragging them into this mess to address those ridiculous allegations. Good luck with that!

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-08-2008 08:16 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

How are all those legal disasters going with no attorney? Shouldn't you be busy producing discovery documents?

I must insist you and Tim go to the local police and provide proof of those stalking and death threat allegations. Why is it you boys haven't filed a report about it like I did? That is the first question everyone who hears about those fabrications asks me. They won't investigate until you do make a formal report. How about some lie detector tests?

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-13-2008 12:16 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

I hear you are in fact still using Tim's reject Ciarochi. Good luck with that! Get your bobo to the local police about those stalking allegations. We are all waiting with bated breath on that one!

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-14-2008 08:38 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Posted on Jack's many sites today:

<http://thedailybibleverse.blogspot.com/>

Quote:

Proverbs 1:19 - ill-gotten gain takes away the lives of those who get it

Such is the end of all who go after ill-gotten gain;
it takes away the lives of those who get it.

So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.....

Proverbs 1:19

Commentary

This particular passage deals with the attempt to get rich through violence (see verses 8-18), but the application is wider. Any get-rich-quick scheme is included.

MacDonald, W., & Farstad, A. (1997, c1995). Believer's Bible Commentary : Old and New Testaments (Pr 1:19). Nashville: Thomas Nelson.

Jack,

God is watching!

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-14-2008 10:44 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack said:

Quote:

I personally do not care if this was deductible or not as that is not my motivation. I don't even think I deducted it for that matter.

I find it highly suspect that you didn't want to deduct it and I don't really believe that someone who matched thousands in donations didn't in fact do so.

Is Timmy going to invent a new story as to how this works. He did file the paperwork saying he was integrated, but as many key points suggest, that may not be the case:

1. When one calls the church and asks for information about their integrated auxiliary Treasures for the Kingdom/TFK they have no clue what one is talking about.

2. The Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act states:
Quote:

All records, books, and annual reports of the financial activity of the corporation shall be kept at the registered office or principal office of the corporation in this state for at least three years after the closing of each fiscal year and shall be available to the public for inspection and copying there during normal business hours.

I suspect that those are not ready for me to copy as you haven't posted anything about those records.

3. The IRS says Treasures must be affiliated with a church or convention or association of churches. Timmy just made that claim for he first time on April 11, 2008.

4. The IRS states the integrated auxiliary must receive financial support primarily from internal church sources as opposed to public or governmental sources. Timmy has produced nothing to show that anyone other than his beleaguered reps has ever donated to his little foundation.

5. The IRS maintains that under the group exemption process the parent organization or church becomes the holder of a group ruling that identifies other affiliated churches or other affiliated organizations....The organization is covered by a group exemption letter issued under applicable administrative procedures, (such as Rev. Proc. 80-27 (1980-1 C.B. 677); See §601.601(a)(2)(ii)(b)), to a church or a convention or association of churches.

Are you boys now going to claim there is a group letter from the Collin Baptist Association or the Baptist General Convention of Texas which is in the IRS publication 78 list of tax-exempt/tax deductible organizations?

6. Are you boys going to claim that the TFK is operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with (as defined in §1.509(a)-4) a church or a convention or association of churches?

7. Does the church have any members on the board? Does the church have any say in who is appointed to the charity's board?

8. TFK's name certainly doesn't reflect the relationship Timmy claims with his church.

9. Timmy should be reporting annually according to the IRS or monthly according to his church's website. Post those documents, Jack.

10. The relationship of auxiliary/integrated charity and parent/church should be affirmed by the church. We see no evidence of that. The church members I spoke with said there was no sanctioned auxiliary, it has never appeared on the church's website and the office staff has no knowledge of any Treasures for the Kingdom Foundation.

Are you boys going to now claim that the church could be under the umbrella of the Southern Baptist Convention of Texas, which is registered with the IRS as tax deductible and tax-exempt? Will you goofs claim TFK is under the Collin Baptist Association that is not registered as I suspect it is under the umbrella of the Texas group? Since Timmy's church is in the Collin Baptist Association are you boys going to claim that the 501 (c) (3) status trickles down by virtue of the fact the church is a satellite organization of those groups? It is time for some facts boys!

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-16-2008 03:25 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

I checked the Denton tax rolls. Your house is on the rolls for a preliminary value of $919,000. I took the liberty of sending your mortgage papers to the Denton Central Appraisal District. You do have $1,164,450 in loans and you did say it appraised for 1.2 million. Since you are a Christian millionaire mentor, I knew you would want the truth to be shared. It will be such a great joy for you to pay the taxes on the fair market value of your property as reflected by your purchase price of course.

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-19-2008 11:01 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

I see you are using your many google keywords to push Profit Authority. Advantage Conferences is a real bust now isn't it, laddie boy? I do recall you said under oath that you didn't agree with the idea of multiple streams of income as it is definitely not the way to build any sort of team or long-term wealth.

Since Advantage Conferences is simply unsaleable you have no choice but to push Profit Authority, Vemma, WorldVentures, TargetMarket Profits, IbuzzProfessional, Traffic Oasis and whatever else you can find. Care to tell us your twisted version of the great charity debacle and give us an update on Tim's legal challenges? Funny how your tune changes as the Titanic sinks like a rock!

Soapboxmom

CowboyJimmy

05-20-2008 07:42 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

It's kinda Ironic,

Vemma is actually a member of the BBB in good standing.. Funny how Jack supports this company who supports the BBB..

<http://central-northern-western-ariz...&firm=97004349>

Ironic since another company Jack is very much involved with does NOT support the BBB and tried to sue them!

World Ventures-- Not a member of the BBB with a few complaints--

<http://www.dallas.bbb.org/WWWRoot/Report.aspx?site=50&bbb=0875&firm=90030075>

No BBB info that I could fine on--TargetMarket Profits or IbuzzProfessional

If its a MLM and its got the name PROFIT in it, he is IN!!!!

Soapboxmom

05-20-2008 11:31 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jacko says:

Quote:

Due to time constraints today...important regarding placement

It is 2:30 am and I simply cannot get back with everyone individually.

I am just sending this out to folks who asked to reserve a spot on our WorldVentures team before our launch call Wednesday night.

I am sorry for the delay. The response for pre-launch placement has been beyond our expectations.

OK, here are your instructions to secure your position in the next top spot.

- 1) Click on <http://jackweinzierl.worldventures.biz> ASAP
- 2) Watch the 1, 2 and 3 videos
- 3) Click on the upper right link that reads Get Started Now!
- 4) Choose the first package which is the best value and all of our placements have chosen this. It gives you the DreamTrips Membership and the LTC package, as well as your rep fee.

You will be placed in the order that you complete your registration. It takes 5 minutes tops so secure your position now.

- 5) Email me to let me know that you have secured that top spot. I will be building directly under you this next year, literally adding hundreds to your team. Of course, you will still need to build your team.

Since I do not have the opportunity to talk with all the folks who have asked to reserve a position, I need you to confirm the following as this is a Leaders' Launch, before we do our public call launch Wednesday night at 9 pm central.

- 1) Please confirm that you are not looking for a get r*ich quick scheme and that you want to build a long term business over the next several years with us.
- 2) Please let me know your "why" for building a WorldVentures business.
- 3) Let me know when you have confirmed today and I will add you to our Fast Start Team Training on Day 1.

OK, again, timing is important so complete the above over the next 30 minutes and let me know when you are confirmed.

In Service,

Jack Weinzierl

WorldVentures Expansion Team

<http://jackweinzierl.worldventures.biz>

817.205.9513

Posted on Tuesday, May 20, 2008 at 03:28AM by Jack Weinzierl

Jack you have never done anything long term. You just drag the suckers from one losing deal to another while you pocket all the money that comes upline and lands in your greedy hands. Much of the money generated in the business comes from the $400 signup fee and $40 monthly fees. Only a fraction comes from any travel purchased and the vast majority of recruits will lose money.

Those travel MLMs have horrendous loss rates. Obviously you are making around what-----zero dollars with Advantage Conferences and just want to rob the pockets of your brainwashed desperate reps once again. This will look so good in court.

<http://www.pyramidschemealert.org/PS...YTBScheme.html>

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-24-2008 10:43 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Scammer Jack,

I watched the video for the Dallas Leadership Acceleration Workshop. That is all recruit, recruit, recruit. No one mentions selling any travel products, but rather just getting plugged into the "acceleration system" as all the top 20 earners have done. What percentage of travel sales are to people not in the money making scheme? Build that business / team quick. We are in the "momentum phase"-----powerful! LOLLOLOLOLOLOLOLOLOLOL! Why would anyone pay between $200.00 and $300.00 for a silly motivational rally? Remember Amway, scammer?

http://jackweinzierl.worldventures.c...?event_id=131&

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-26-2008 09:24 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

Laddie boy, are you going to fund the next Mindset Mentoring Conference? Have you got a car you can sell? If all the remaining MMC-IVs have been grandfathered in at the Passport level and will pay nothing (the $995.00 charge, the fantastic MMC Advantage for repeat attendees has been eliminated in a desperate attempt to hang on to the few reps left and bolster conference attendance), how is it you boys are going to fund this next shindig?

If only 40 attended the last joke of a conference and many left AC after Tim's delusional rantings about the "attacker" and how I was sending him death threats and stalking him at the conference and his psychotic ramblings in the Footsteps of Faith messenger(which ended up in my box numerous times I might add), just how many attendees do you boys expect at this next one? AC has scheduled one conference this year in November. That is a full year since the last one and as I understand it there have been no sales for several months. Just how is it you intend to fund this thing? You may have to get very creative with those court cases hanging over you boys!

Jack, are you the one funding the legal counsel for the current cases? Those bills must be mounting fast. How hard are you goofs going to fight legitimate discovery? If this was an oasis of integrity you boys would have nothing to hide. The discovery should prove that we scambusters here are exactly as you described us in those sickening diatribes you and Tim write. The documents should clarify why so many were refunded that were your family members and and explain why you lied and claimed there were only 2 refunds when there were at least 9 of various description. Those documents should clarify why the rep list and commissions reported don't correlate with the known facts. Those discovery documents should show that the earnings are as fabulous as you lead folks to believe they will be. Folks did sign up to make between 100 grand and 1 million and expecting at least 100 grand their first year. Even you, scammer Jack, can't make it to that magic number with AC. Those documents should show that there have been numerous(as in more than zero) retail sales of the conference as you promised there would be under oath. The documents should prove Timmy did have $400,000.00 embezzled out of his former company All Star entrepreneur as he he uses that example to teach on avoiding that business landmine. Those documents will of course include those death threats and proof of the stalking you sick cons allege. Why is it you boys don't publish those few words on here that Tim claims will clear everything up?

I take it you two do want to face a legitimate libel and slander case for those vicious lies about me sending death threats and stalking you idiots. I assume you are willing to put your families through this kind of suffering to perpetuate the idea you and Tim are some sort of Godly, heroic martyrs. Do you actually have enough brainwashed reps left that you can keep this charade going? Haven't you figured out that your vicious lies have destroyed your credibility with mainstream society.

Soapboxmom

jweinzierl

05-26-2008 12:22 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

First off, I want to thank the men, women and families that paid the ultimate price for this country and our freedoms. To see these freedoms used in this fashion to attack and hate others on a day like today, is saddening. Soapboxmom, I pray for you almost every single day.

Soapboxmom, if you truly want to go there in terms of libel, you shall have your wish. We have everything assembled that is needed.

For you to make a comparison with YTB just because we are in the same $7 trillion travel industry, further reinforces the 1/2 truths and ignorance that you project onto others on this board. Now you are attacking training. It is almost humorous, if you weren't so jaded. You made it very clear with your Amway reference as well.

I guess if Travelocity and Orbitz paid commissions based on travel booked, that they would be scams according to you as well. BTW, there have been 10,000 people to date who have already taken DreamTrips to date. You may want to try it to get out of Garland on occasion.

You hate network marketing and we can agree to disagree on that. For you to endorse and support folks like Mike B. from Austin, speaks volumes as well. He is the same guy that used the "F" word on the phone with me a minimum of 30 times just last week. Besides that, he described what he was coming to do to my wife. You should be careful about the company you keep.

jweinzierl

05-26-2008 12:26 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Also, for the last time, I could give any amount to anyone at anytime. If I had wanted to bless anyone in my family, I had the right to give them any amount of my commission back. In fact, I did this before they even got plugged in our mindset training and conferences. Once again, your way of twisting the truth to try to sensationalize something to fit your bias. So very sad. Those who are believers who have discernment know the difference.

jweinzierl

05-26-2008 10:20 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Soapboxmom, your motives and bias is very clear. Advantage Conferences is now a straight affiliate program and you continue to attack it. Heather Dobrott, aka Soapboxmom, we do have all your attack documents. You have aligned yourself with folks that attack Christians and you have defended them on other threads. You have been screaming that the theater was on fire for over 2 years. You have literally influenced many to quit and that is the ultimate loss for them. In fact, you are hurting those you pretend to be helping. And now, you are claiming to be a "victim." Now that is precious. No, actually it is very sad.

Heather, now why don't you post why you are no longer attacking Liberty League? I know why, but I think some of your so called posse here would like to know. You picked on the wrong person, Heather. Thank God for His grace and I pray for your hardened heart. And yes, entrepreneurs invest in training for any business. Do you really have such a "lack" mindset?

jweinzierl

05-26-2008 10:30 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Scammer SoapBoxMom, yes you are the one scamming people from a real life-changing opportunity.

And Heather Dobrott, (why continue to hide behind a screen name Soapboxmom?) that is also very interesting how you are attacking <http://TheMarketLeaders.com> now. It is a 100% free site with no advertising and a network for Christian entrepreneurs. We have over 525 members in less than 3 months, but you focus on hatred, divisiveness and lack. What have you created lately, not counting more discontent? Seriously, what are you adding and creating?

Wishyouknew

05-26-2008 10:45 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

The great thing about what our Veterans have done, is fight for our freedoms. One of those freedoms is FREEDOM of Speech!

Jack,

For the record, I want to hear your definition of what a legal MLM is Vs. a Pyramid scheme that is against the law...What are the differences and what are the characteristics of a Pyramid scheme? I would love to hear your words and thoughts on this??

Can you answer me this one important question.???

Also why has Tim Darnell changed so much of Advantage Conferences?

Soapboxmom

05-27-2008 11:48 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Quote:

Originally Posted by jweinzierl (Post 521801)

Heather, now why don't you post why you are no longer attacking Liberty League? I know why, but I think some of your so called posse here would like to know. You picked on the wrong person, Heather.

Jack, why don't you tell us! You are implying that there is some sort of legal action against me or that I have been threatened into silence by Timmy's old haunt. There is no truth to that whatsoever. I blog about what I find appropriate, interesting and what time permits me to properly research. I do not attack any company. I post facts, figures, court documents, public record, calculations, stories of reps that are afraid of retribution and my opinion. The right to free speech means I have the right to honestly share my thoughts and feelings. Your sickening threats will not silence me.

You are free to post whatever you wish. Apparently, all you are able to do is attack the messenger. You obviously can't refute anything in the message. Where are those few words that Timmy says will clear everything up? Where is that discovery that should of course completely vindicate you boys? Is God still on your side, or will He see that once again the truth does triumph?

Soapboxmom

Soapboxmom

05-28-2008 08:39 AM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack, are you struggling with around a $7,000.00 a month house payment plus homeowner's insurance? How you are going to save the $24,000.00 or so you will need to pay your taxes in January 2009? Hilariously, the taxing district has your house at a preliminary value of $919,000.00 and is reevaluating its value. You have $1,164,450.00 in loans and I did send them the loan documents. The appraisal district should base the value on your sale price, but if that is not available they will guesstimate based on sales in the area. "The appraisal came in at $1.2 million" you bragged. So, do send the appraisal district a copy of that appraisal, lad. Good Luck unloading that thing for anywhere near what you paid if the tax rolls continue to reflect the current value of $919,000.00. You do move about every 18 months, so by Christmas you should be skedaddling out of the Lone Star State I hope. Yikes!

Do you mentor folks to get themselves into huge mortgages like yours? A very general rule of thumb is to multiply your salary by 2 or 3 to determine the rough value of a home one can comfortably afford. So, one should be consistently earning in the neighborhood of $400,000.00-$600,000.00 to be in a home of that value. Are you making enough to hang on much longer, Jack, with all the many losing MLM's you are pushing? Is having that mansion and the cars to show off in your videos helping you sell the garbage you are peddling? Jack, you always said things like:

Quote:

Yes, there is serious income potential, but once again, we are one of the few that are not showing pictures of cars, large homes, ...etc.... I am also glad that we do not focus on the luxury boats, cars, homes or travel on our sites. There is nothing wrong with any of those items and we have been blessed, but we are blessing to be a blessing to others. We are not looking for those seeking a “get rich quick” situation, although someone can do very well with this business in relatively quick fashion if they choose to be positive, focused and consistent with their marketing.

Quote:

Denton County Tax Assessor/Collector
1505 E. McKinney Street
Denton, Texas 76209-4525
Phone: 940.349.3500
Fax: 940.349.3501
Year 2007
Account No. R0235878
Statement No. 2007366351
Name WEINZIERL JACK & STEPHANIE L
Address *****
LANTANA , TX

Description LAVIANA ADDN PH 1, BLOCK 10C, LOT 4 W14
Property Location *****
Market Value 625,425

Agency	Taxable Value	Exemptions	Current Levy	Due	Penalty	Other Due	Amount Paid	Last
Pay Date	Amount Due
DENTON COUNTY	625,425		$1,475.32
20080103			$0.00

DENTON IND SCH DIST	625,425		$8,968.59
20080103			$0.00

DENTON CO FR WTR #6	625,425		$6,254.25
20080103			$0.00

Totals	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00	$16,698.16	$0.00
--------	--------	--------	--------	--------------------	--------	--	--	--

With those huge tax bills how are you going to help Timmy with his property tax? You sure have changed your tune. The many former reps I am communicating with feel anything but blessed!

Soapboxmom

jweinzierl

05-29-2008 09:17 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

I know who we serve. Heather Dobrott, aka Soapboxmom, any comments as to why you are no longer attacking Liberty League? I know, but you should share with your handful of fans here.

I am honored to be associated with Tim Darnell. That fact that you still attack this company speaks volumes. I pray for you most every day Heather. The fact that you align yourself with Mike B. in Austin is also telling. Whatever fits with your agenda, regardless of who gets hurt?? Investing two hours at Tim's daughter's school? You do need help and I pray that your heart is softened and that you focus on productive activity. Stop claiming that you are somehow a victim now when you have never been involved with this company or products. The damages are adding up and you will be accountable.

Footsteps of Faith Messenger - Issue 208

The Encourager
Matthew 12:33-37

Tim Darnell

Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart, the mouth speaks. The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned. Matthew 12:33-37

Over time, our actions give an indication of who we are; but even more revealing as to who we really are is the content of our speech. The words we use accurately expose who we really are. Jesus is saying that the words we say reveal the condition of our heart. How can we know whether our heart is good or evil? Our words unveil our heart's condition loud and clear.

Make no mistake, some people are evil. In fact, it would be naïve to not admit that evil people surround you and me. Jesus confronted evil people to their face, calling them what they really were, "you brood of vipers", and, "you who are evil." Evil people existed even in Jesus' presence; and they exist today. We recognize evil people by their evil speech. Evil people choose to mock others and put them down. They focus on the mistakes and weaknesses of others. They are fear and suspicion driven, and their words clearly reflect the condition of diseased hearts. They condemn and curse others to everyone's detriment, and especially their own. Jesus says, "how can you who are evil say anything good?" If the heart is diseased, then the fruit of that heart will be rancid, destructive words. And Jesus says very clearly, "by your words you will be condemned."

Pray for people who suffer from this particular type of heart disease, because Jesus can heal an unhealthy heart if the person is repentant and willing to change.

Thankfully, many people have sound, healthy hearts. The fruit of their hearts is encouragement.

They see good in others and the content of their words is supportive and uplifting. They build people up where the evil heart loves to gossip and tear others down. The loving heart is kind and gentle, and speaks about other people's strengths and talents. As much as believers detest being in the presence of an evil person, we are attracted and drawn to the encourager who uses words wisely.

Having the spirit of Jesus and the Holy Spirit in your life doesn't mean you ignore evil. Jesus got right in the face of evil people and called them out for their careless words. Jesus teaches us that our words are incredibly important and powerful. Our choice of being people builders rather than people destroyers is extremely important. If we slip and choose to destroy others by our words, we are doing nothing more than condemning ourselves. If we consciously choose to empower and encourage others by our words, we acquit ourselves and experience the joy of right relationships (righteousness) and right paths in life that offer great, heavenly rewards.

Take time to encourage someone today. Encouraging words release smiles and joy in other peoples' lives. You'll set yourself apart from the hustle and bustle, stressed out, world of selfishness and condemnation when you offer simple words of encouragement. In a world where so many discouraging words abound, don't give in to participating in that manner of speech; but rather, be the one who uplifts and encourages others regularly.

It starts by storing up goodness in your heart. When we store up the Word of God found in the Bible, we are storing up words of life. Scripture is full of positive words of hope and love that enter the heart, replacing the deathly diseases of gossip and suspicion. The Word of God replaces distrust, anger, and hurt that you may have been harboring. The Word of God morphs the hardened heart into a kind and gentle heart. God's Word becomes good words coming from our mouths. Good words reflect your good heart. Your words and your life will overflow with gladness and great reward when goodness is stored up in your heart and the evidence will vividly appear in the content of your speech.

Allow me to encourage you today. God loves you and so do I. You are a wonderful creation made especially by God; and you were made to build up others. Your life is an encouragement to me and I know that you can be an even greater encourager to others daily. They need your kind supportive presence, and they need your encouragement. You are the encourager.

Prayer

Lord, remove any disease that may be in my heart. Help me to never store up any form of evil in my heart or use words carelessly, but rather let me take every opportunity I can to store up good things in my heart. Let my words reflect a pure, clean heart and help me to share that goodness all the time. I choose to be an encourager to others, Father, and I do that through Your Holy Spirit and Your Word. Amen.

If you would like to commit your life to Jesus Christ, you can do so, and thereby experience the most important gift ever offered to mankind! You don't have to be perfect – I'm certainly not and I know you aren't either. In fact, we all sin and fall far short of perfection. Won't you make the greatest decision you can ever make? I pray that you will do so today.

To accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, click this link:

<http://www.timdarnell.org/prayer.asp>

Soapboxmom

05-30-2008 05:07 PM

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

<http://mysite.verizon.net/resurlf0/a...ruth/id22.html>

<http://mysite.verizon.net/resurlf0/a...ruth/id10.html>

So, let me get this straight. Tim attacks everyone on the planet as the links above show and then writes a pile of absolute nonsense like we see above in his Footsteps of Faith messenger "The Encourager". Tim has made a career of threatening anyone who has the courage to try and stop him from defrauding folks by using their faith as a tool to get their money. Many have said once they asked questions or discovered how they had been deceived they spoke to Tim and saw his true colors. Tim has viciously attacked many more good, trusting Christian folks in the same manner, but as they fear retribution from Tim I can't post the sickening diatribes he sent to them.

Tim always talks out of both sides of his mouth and much of what he says is provably false. You sure pick questionable company to keep, Jack. Read that Footsteps of Faith "The Encourager" and then ponder the many sickening attacks that have been made by Tim. It is certainly easy to see where true evil dwells.

<http://www.scam.com/showpost.php?p=5...postcount=3251>

Soapboxmom

jweinzierl

06-05-2008 11:51 PM

Be Encouraged Christian Entrepreneurs

Welcome to our Mindset Mentoring call for Thursday, May 5, 2008. Here are the notes from our call. As Soapboxmom, aka Heather Dobrott continues to attack this company and what we stand for, we will continue to mentor Christian entrepreneurs.

We are committed to building our businesses and lives on the solid foundation of God's Word. If that resonates with you, please stay on the line. The world will tell you that you need to separate your faith from your business and we believe that is a major mistake that most people make. We believe the marketplace is ministry if you are called to be an entrepreneur. If that is not your viewpoint, I do encourage you to stay on this call as I believe it will be a blessing to you.

We are going to share several things this afternoon and I want to begin with the foundation first and highlight a Profile of the Christian Entrepreneur.

The Christian Entrepreneur is Called to Make a Difference

It is the fundamental precept of the Christian Entrepreneur Organization that God calls not only ministers and other spiritual workers, but in fact, calls everyone to specific roles in his kingdom. This role may change over a lifetime but will usually stay consistent with an individual's basic gifts. Christian Entrepreneurs realize that their calling is to establish and lead business organizations that are designed to achieve results in the secular world; but they do so while being led by the Holy Spirit. This is not a new idea, but a return by unfulfilled business leaders to the sense of "calling" enjoyed by fellow laity in the U.S. and Western Europe prior to the 20th Century. The goal is to develop a new understanding that blends current findings on business excellence and entrepreneurship with a Christian perspective. A couple references for you to look up after the call are: Ephesians 2:8-10; John 15:16a; 1 Cor. 12: 12-18.

Positioned by God

The Bible places much emphasis on spiritual gifts. Christian Entrepreneurs believe that one of their gifts is the specific position in which the Lord has placed them. By birth, by education, by training, or by circumstance, the Entrepreneur has an opportunity to create some sort of business enterprise which meets the needs of people. Christian Entrepreneurs are not blindly driven by ambition and greed, but in fact, feel called by the Lord to perform certain tasks and achieve certain goals in their business enterprises. References: John 15:16b; 1 Corinthians 12:18.

Visionary

Because of the position in which the Lord has placed them, Christian Entrepreneurs develop a specific vision of the future - the way things could or should be for customers, suppliers, employees, family and community. Over a period of time, this vision creates a very strong commitment which weathers countless set-backs and adversities. Through the Lord, the Christian Entrepreneur becomes empowered by this vision. Although their motives are often misunderstood, dedication to the unfolding truth of their vision as revealed by God is the guiding premise of their labor. References: Romans 1:1-14; 2 Cor. 4:1, 6: 4-10; Gal. 6:9-10.

Calculated Risk Taker

The Christian Entrepreneur believes that life is not for the faint hearted. Modern business requires that major commitments be made. Generally, there isn't sufficient information available in order to totally justify decisions. Therefore, the Christian Entrepreneur must become a calculated risk taker. There is significant Biblical foundation for taking risks. The Christian Entrepreneur is drawn to a life of adventure in service, but recognizes that the price of the adventure will be occasional failure and set-backs. References: Genesis 12: 1-12; Acts 21:13-14.

Servant Leadership Provides Value to Customers

The Christian Entrepreneur of the 2000's recognizes that the world has changed as mass customization, the Internet and globalization have taken new ideas and rapidly moved them into practice across the world. The prerequisites for business success have changed dramatically. In the new economy, the Christian model of service correlates well with the requirements for achieving business success. Today's Customer requires dedication in all of the little things, as well as a constantly evolving desire for innovation, quality and cost-effective products and services. Christian Entrepreneurs are called to a life of serving customers through the realization of their vision. References: John 13:7-20.

Relational Leadership

This is no longer a Horatio Alger world. Gone are the days in which a single entrepreneur can make it on his own over time. This is true because the world so quickly adapts and copies new innovations and ideas. It isn't the entrepreneur against the world, it is the entrepreneur involving a group of committed individuals to embrace the vision in order to constantly bring new value to the customer. In order to get committed employee/partners, Christian entrepreneurs must put their personal relationship with them near the top. The Christian Entrepreneur cannot be everything for everyone, but must build a highly focused organization which serves a few customer groups very well. Entrepreneurs build networks of people while everyone else looks for work. References: Philippians 2:1-29.

In the World, But Not of It

When is enough, enough? The world often characterizes entrepreneurs as crass materialists. The Christian Entrepreneur gratefully receives and acknowledges material blessings which may come with successfully developing a business; however, material goals are always secondary to the primary calling and vision. Financial success has a way of contaminating the Vision. The Christian Entrepreneur constantly seeks out strength from above to stay willing to "lay it on the line" for the vision. The Christian Entrepreneur will refuse to be drawn into the materialistic world in which we live. With this commitment, a strong moral character is developed over time. Integrity is no guarantee of worldly success, in fact it often works against it; but without integrity, the prize is worthless. References: 1 Cor. 9:19-26; Acts 20:33-35; Philippians 3:7-15; 1 Timothy 6:5-12.

Now, that we have some foundational principles for Christian entrepreneurs, I want to continue this call with some basics regarding success and then get into the challenges and problems that each of us face, and more importantly, how to overcome them....not according to the world, but according to the Word.

Success is a choice . Failure is also a choice. When you understand God's promises for your life as a Believer, the purpose of wealth and the lives we can reach, there is nothing that can stand in your way....at least not for very long.

....And maybe I am the only one that has ever dealt with some of these limited thoughts, well, here are 5 key thoughts that most of us deal with at various times.

1. The first thought of defeat: You Can't Do It. The root that empowers: Philippians 4:13: I can do all things through Christ that strengthens me; I CAN DO IT!

2. Second thought: You Have the Wrong Motive. The thought comes to you 'You just want to be blessed because you're selfish. Who do you think you are? God says He wants me blessed! God calls me blessed, so that I can be a blessing.

3. Third thought: You're not worthy –you don't deserve to be blessed. Look at all the mistakes you made; you don't deserve it. You say, I'm not worthy through my works; I am worthy through the BLOOD of Jesus. I do deserve it (not through my works) but through grace and because God is a good God.

4. Fourth thought: It's not going to happen for you. It doesn't work for everybody – Well, He did it for Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and so He's got to do it for you. God is no respecter of persons and He says whosoever believes shall have what they say, and I'm one of those whosoever who believes! Amen?

5. The Fifth thought: It's Too Late. You can't recover. Look at how much ground you've lost. Everybody is ahead of you. BALONEY. You say NO! He that began a good work in me is faithful to complete it! Jesus is the author and finisher of my faith. It wasn't too late for Abraham, Peter, Sarah, or Rahab the harlot. We're not too discouraged, too broken, or too sick to be healed.

OK, enough of those limiting thoughts that we all have faced at times in our entrepreneurial journey.

I have a few questions for you....

Are you praying and believing for the Lord to direct your steps, your family, and your business? Are you believing and expecting divine appointments in your business? Believe for divine appointments. Let His appointments and schedule become yours. He can open doors you can't open in the natural and doors that no man can shut.

Are you believing for Divine solutions?

Are you believing for Divine favor?

Are you believing for Divine results?

His results multiply. A lot of us say, Lord, you're in control, but we are still in control. We have to surrender and truly make Him Lord of our lives.

We are not just here this afternoon talking about money. Prosperity in the Bible is not just money folks. It means nothing lacking, wholeness, and abundance.

OK, just about now, if we were not on moderator mode, I could hear Joe is Ohio shouting to his wife, Susan (fictional couple of course), I thought this was going to be a business call. You bet it is. We have the proper priorities of God, Family, Health and Business, in that order. The marketplace is a ministry and we are to go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone. Preach means to announce and we are to be the bearer of Good News wherever we are at, amen?

I have been in this entrepreneurial mentoring journey for several years now and some of my successes and failures, over the past 20 years in corporate America and in networking, are my gifts to you. They cost me dearly along the way, but it was a great investment in our success and now I am passionate about mentoring others. It was only 3 years ago, however, that I truly saw the opportunity and responsibility and co-mission that we all have in the marketplace, to share the Good News, every day of the week.

OK, let's change gears one more time and talk about how does the average person think about problems? The average person thinks negatively about problems and that is a reason why they are average. Wealthy people are opportunity oriented. An average person will look at a business with poor cash flow and sees a problem, the wealthy person will look for the opportunity. When people look at today's economy, they see the real estate problems or a business struggling. The entrepreneur sees the opportunities created, real estate or businesses that can be purchased, or maybe some employees that they can add to their team that they were unable to hire prior.

I hope after today you may change your viewpoint of problems. All people have problems. If you have a dream or vision, you have problems. If you have this deep seeded belief that they are negative, you will do your best trying to avoid problems. I have spent the better part of 40 years trying to avoid problems. Successful people have problems too and the more successful they are, the bigger the problems, because they have a bigger vision. The difference with successful people is they get the problem at hand solved, then go search out more problems.

Why? Because problems create opportunity and value. Think about the last time you felt incredible. Most likely, it was when you solved the last big problem you were faced with. There is an old saying that a man or woman is paid in proportion with the problems a person can solve. If you are in real estate and can only sell homes that everyone can sell, your income is limited. If you can solve problems others cannot, then you will be rewarded.

Let's look at one major challenge or problem in the Bible that we are all familiar with, the story of David and Goliath. David was young of age and small in stature taking on this huge giant. You can read the story in 1 Samuel 17. When Goliath gave his speech, everyone ran. It states everyone and that includes David. But what did David do next? David hears of the reward for the guy who takes Goliath down. Land, no taxes, he got to be a prince and you got to marry the princess. He had hope. He had a vision. Dreams are critical.

When he got turned on, he was attacked. Who put him down? His own brother. Hey, do you guys realize this is just a sheepherder? Sometimes the people closest to us, are like this about our businesses and dreams, as most people operate out of fear. And we cannot let fear stand in the way of our dreams. You will be attacked. How did David handle being attacked? Did he get all upset? He turned from him to another. It could mean that David turned to God or to some person in the crowd. He turned away from the dream stealers and you need to find people who will support your dream too and turn away from the dream stealers. What did David do next? He rehearsed. He gets to the tent and nobody was there. Everyone wants to be a prince, but there were no long lines to volunteer. A key point here is this. There is little competition at the top. Very few people are willing to pay the price. He who attempts the impossible, will have little competition. From my experience, the 80/20 rule is so overly generous. It appears to be more like 95/5 in most environments.

Goliath was the best thing that ever happened to David. Translate this to your own life. Maybe your super challenge is that you were just laid off, or your back is against the wall financially, or you are facing an impossible relationship that needs healing. Maybe you are facing cancer. What are you facing that seems impossible? Goliath brought out the best in David. David didn't take Saul's armor. You don't have to copy someone else. You don't need their fancy education or personality or armor. You have your own gifts and strengths and the Word of God to face your Goliaths. Goliath studied his competition and the problem. David didn't study Goliath; he focused on the solution and the reward. Ask yourself if you are spending your time in analysis and studying everything to the nth degree, or are you focused on the solution and the reward. David didn't even have a sword. Goliath didn't have a chance with God on David's side.

What are you trusting in? Are you trusting in research, statistics—I'll tell you if you are trusting in statistics, you will probably never be a successful entrepreneur. Shoot when 90+ % of businesses fail, why would you if you put your trust in statistics, or what your competition is doing, or are you trusting that the Lord will direct you towards the vision He has given you.

Are you trusting in dollars; your company; your degree or education; are you trusting in the world's armor and weapons, or are you trusting in God?

We all will be afraid of different things in life. But we have to have a vision, a dream. Many adults have stopped dreaming. Or they retire and then die within 3 years of retirement, because their initial dream to retire was realized and they did not have another dream.

Here are 5 quick keys we can learn from David if you are taking notes. Again, if you would like the notes from today's call, email the person who invited you today, and they can get those to you via email by the end of the day.

Number 1....

We will all have fear at times

Have a dream

Make it a big dream—impossible dream—keep your eye on the dream, not the problem

Find People who believe in you and your dream

Have Faith and take action—without action nothing happens.

David's final words. Be strong, be fearless and go do it. Go do your dreams.

When you are faced with problems and challenges, you want to speak those scriptures that advise and direct us to not fear. Here are a few.

“Fear Not”

Deuteronomy 1:21

Look, the LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and possess it, as the LORD God of your fathers has spoken to you; do not fear or be discouraged.’

Deuteronomy 3:22

You must not fear them, for the LORD your God Himself fights for you.’

Deuteronomy 31:6

Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, He is the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you.”

Deuteronomy 31:8 And the LORD, He is the One who goes before you. He will be with you, He will not leave you nor forsake you; do not fear nor be dismayed.”

Judges 6:23

Then the LORD said to him, “Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die.”

2 Kings 6:16

So he answered, “Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

Psalms 27:3

Though an army may encamp against me, My heart shall not fear; Though war may rise against me, In this I will be confident.

Psalms 46:2

Therefore we will not fear, Even though the earth be removed, And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Psalms 56:4

In God (I will praise His word), In God I have put my trust; I will not fear. What can flesh do to me?

Psalms 118:6

The LORD is on my side; I will not fear. What can man do to me?

Isaiah 35:4

Say to those who are fearful-hearted, “Be strong, do not fear! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, With the recompense of God; He will come and save you.”

Isaiah 41:10

Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.’

Isaiah 44:8

Do not fear, nor be afraid; Have I not told you from that time, and declared it? You are My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me? Indeed there is no other Rock; I know not one.”

Isaiah 51:7

“ Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, You people in whose heart is My law: Do not fear the reproach of men, Nor be afraid of their insults.

I have another page of scriptures and you will be able to print these with the notes, but out of the interest of time, we will not cover those on this call.

Isaiah 54:14

In righteousness you shall be established; You shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; And from terror, for it shall not come near you.

Daniel 10:12

Then he said to me, “Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words.

Daniel 10:19

And he said, “O man greatly beloved, fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong!” So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

Joel 2:21

Fear not, O land; Be glad and rejoice, For the LORD has done marvelous things!

Matthew 10:31

Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Luke 12:7

But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Luke 12:32

“Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Romans 8:15

For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, “Abba, Father.”

2 Timothy 1:7

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

Hebrews 13:6

So we may boldly say: “The LORD is my helper; I will not fear. What can man do to me?”

1 John 4:18

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love.

Do you want victory? Has fear stood in the way? What are you fighting for?

Do you want to succeed? Do you want to succeed as an entrepreneur? Truly succeed?

Yes?

Then you better be willing to do battle, get in the game, and fight like your success depends upon it -- because it does.

Don't let anyone kid you... if you want to succeed you're gonna have to fight. What's more, you'll be fighting a very formidable enemy: yourself!

Here's what I'm talking about...

Whoever you are, you have the capacity to be your own best friend -- OR -- your own worst enemy. A lot of folks will blame the enemy, but we are to take every thought captive.....and our thought life is critical.

To create serious success you must be willing to go to battle with that part of yourself that says things like:

"I can't"

"I don't want to today"

"I'm not good enough"

"I can't find the time"

"I hope this is worth it"

"why can't I do this"

"just give up"

"I'll try" get this "try" word out of your vocabulary right now. I cannot tell you how many folks share that on the phone or in person when talking about their business.

Most of these negative statements are obvious, but others like "I'll try" are more subtle, yet just as dangerous. And, make no mistake, they are all based in FEAR.

Thoughts like these WILL cross your mind... it's inevitable. It's what you do with them however that matters. You cannot fight this fight alone and that is why we have His Living Word to instruct us, guide us, and tell us who we are as a child of God.

You cannot allow these negative thoughts to persist and turn into patterns of daily thinking... it's far too destructive. It is truly a gate for the enemy.

Instead, CHALLENGE any and ALL negative thinking, and take action...

Then... move out of the "thinking phase" and into the ACTION phase. Take consistent action and implement your ideas. When you fail (and you will), make small adjustments and go at it again, and again and again.

If you want it badly enough, exercise the mental discipline it takes to stay in action mode, doing what it takes to get to where you want to be.

Never question IF you can do it. Or IF you can make it. Make a decision that YOU WILL make it. YOU CAN do all things through Christ who strengthens you. Believe it. Then, act on that belief and continue to act on it every single day until you get there.

If you look at the most successful people in the world, what's the common denominator? Is it how they speak? Their age? Their height? Their looks? Not usually..it's what's in between their ears... it's how they think. It's the ATTITUDE they bring to the table. The ATTITUDE that says failure is not an option. That "I won't settle for "I'll Try".... but only: "I'll DO."

When you hit a wall (and you will)... find a way over that wall, around that wall or right through that wall... Do whatever it takes to get past that wall.

Be resourceful, resilient, resolute.

Monitor your self talk. Watch what you focus on. Be careful what you say to yourself. Ruthlessly examine your daily routine, and the action you take and streamline your approach so that when you're "doing business" you're doing it with maximum effectiveness and unto the Lord.

Do what others are unwilling to do, so you can achieve what others never will.

And never, ever underestimate the power of THOUGHTS ... because what you think will make you... or break you. Control your thoughts. If you don't, you can be quite certain "they" will control "you". Remember, your thoughts lead to actions, that form habits, that lead to character, that leads to success or lack thereof, but it is fruit from your thoughtlife.

I want to begin to wrap up with this as I know there are some folks on the line this afternoon facing major challenges and persecution.

What happens when your faith is on trial? When you are facing challenges and you are right in the middle of trouble and persecution? It's great to be people of faith. We all know that faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word, but it is not saying that our faith is never going to be put to test. The Bible says this is the victory that overcomes the world even your faith. Just because the trial or persecution comes, doesn't mean it is going to rob you of your victory. We need to know how to respond when things are not seemingly going our way.

Your faith is going to be tried and will be in the middle of persecution and you will come out of it with victory. We cannot give up, cave in and quit. Faith needs to be firm in distress, afflictions, or whatever comes your way. You need to make sure you have faith before the trouble comes. What have you identified from the Word of God—this book of promises to anchor yourself when that tribulation comes or you are facing trouble. It starts by getting into the Word and looking specifically for those scriptures for what you are facing. Identify the promises from the Word.

Faith needs to be firm in the midst. Outlast it.

To suffer for a Christian means (not what most people think) it means to resist. None of us have to be nailed to a cross. Jesus' suffering was to obtain the victory. He truly suffered for us. Our part is to take the victory that He has obtained, and we are to maintain. He obtained and we are to maintain. Our job is to resist anything that is trying to rob us from that victory. We need to get in God's Word and our suffering is resisting. Where it states that By His stripes, we are healed.... We are already "the healed" protecting our healing from sickness and disease. We are already "the prosperous" protecting our prosperity from anything not sound. Find the victory you already have, and our job is to resist and maintain our stance in that victory. I'm already blessed, victorious, already healed, already delivered and already prosperous and the enemy will do all he can to take that victory away from us. Stand therefore, stand there for until you get what you are standing there for. Take the time clock off God. This is what the Word says, this is what I believe, and I will not be moved.

God is faithful. We stay with the Word regardless of what report or fact comes against us. We walk by faith and not by sight. It may be a fact that you are struggling financially, but there is a difference between fact and truth. He didn't say that the fact is going to set you free, but He said the truth will set you free. The truth will set you free from the fact. There may be a fact that you have cancer, but the truth says, that by His stripes you are healed. And if you stand on that truth, the truth can make you free from that negative fact. I hope you get this. This was revelation for me. We live by faith. This is not denial.... We live by truth. We call those things that be not as though they were.

I have a question for everyone on the line this afternoon. Do you believe in miracles? Do you truly believe in miracles? If you are a Christian, you HAVE TO believe in miracles. Before you think what I just said is controversial (something in our nature—probably pride resists words like "have to" or "must", or if you don't agree with that, well the virgin birth was a miracle; the resurrection was a miracle. Case closed.

So, what can stand in our way of our healing and victory in all areas of our lives?

Unbelief, doubt—we have done several trainings on this subject
Unforgiveness—if you don't forgive, you will be in prison. This will stand in the way of so much

Judgment—judging others. We need to love and pray for those who attack us. Not bad people, just being used to do bad things. This can go the other way too when you see wealthy people. We judge every day. Never judge a man's harvest until you know his seed. Faith worketh by Love. If you are judging, you are not walking in love.

Strife—is there strife in your home. No peace. No power.

Pride---recognizing pride—this is an area that I have dealt with over the years and I have yet to meet an entrepreneur who has not had challenges along the way, when it comes to pride.

In closing, we need to think battleship, not cruise ship. On a battleship, every person has a critical role on the ship. God needs all of us to work together and we are not lone rangers. Too many entrepreneurs operate as such, really limiting the impact their businesses and lives can have for the kingdom. We need each other. Every joint supplieth. The key is found in two words, unity and accord. Unity means to be united as one with a single spirit, purpose, interest, or sentiment. The definition implies that individuals are bound together in oneness of heart. Accord has a similar definition. It means to be in harmony, with no one dissenting or disagreeing. If you have studied Bible history, you will know that unity (or accord) is the theme of the book of Acts. The word accord is used 11 times in Acts—a book that details the tremendous things that occurred during and after Pentecost.

When we in the Body of Christ and those in marketplace ministry begin to unite ourselves in the unity and power of God's Word and the Name of Jesus, we're going to see some supernatural things. I believe we are going to see unity in the Body of Christ that we have not seen before, and the power of God is going to be demonstrated as never before. Let us purpose in our hearts to lay aside all differences and walk in greater glory, amen.

There have been many key success factors in building our businesses over the years, but I would estimate none as important as having the expectancy that by prayer, planning and perseverance that God will provide ALL that He says He will in His living Word.

We can have that same kind of expectancy from God's Word. If God said it in His Word, the Bible, we can be sure He will keep His promise....and expectancy is something you can choose intentionally. If you have resistance when I am sharing today, work through it and hopefully this will challenge you to get into God's Word and see for yourself what promises He has for you.

I have a personal confession to share with you this afternoon and if we covered nothing more than this, it will be ALL you need. It is not something I am confessing to you to get off my chest, but something I am confessing based on who God says I am and what promises He says I have.

I set the course of my life today with my words:

I declare today that I will not be defeated, discouraged, depressed or disappointed today.

I am the head, I have insight, I have wisdom, I have ideas, I have authority.

I exercise my authority today with my words and I decree a thing and it is so.

Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world (1 John 4:4)...the same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead, lives in me... (Romans 8:11)

As I speak words today, they come to pass (Job 22:28); they go before me, they bring the things to pass that I desire; and they stop all attacks, assaults, oppression, and fear from coming to my life.

God is on my side today and, therefore, I cannot be defeated.

His favor surrounds me today as a shield. (Psalm 5:12). I expect favor today from heaven and from the earth.

I expect and receive favor in my home, favor in my Advantage Conferences business, favor in my ministry, favor with my finances, favor in every deal I am involved in.

I have wisdom from God today. I will think the right thoughts, say the right words and make the right decisions in every situation I face today.

My mouth speaks wisdom and my heart is filled with understanding. (Psalm 49:3)

I ask for, and receive, an abundant supply of wisdom and understanding today from God (James 1:5)...wisdom from above, wisdom that is pure, peaceable, gentle, unwavering, willing to yield, without hypocrisy. (James 3:17)

Wisdom and understanding are better than silver and gold and nothing I desire can compare with them; therefore, I make it my ambition and desire to have understanding and wisdom; therefore I know I will have all of the other desires of my heart. (Proverbs 8:10-11)

My words go before me in securing my divine health and healing...

I will not be sick today; I will not be sad today; I will not be broke today; I will not be confused today.

I have health today; I have joy today; I have all the money I need in the name of Jesus.

My steps are ordered by the Lord... (Psalm 37:23)

I have a covenant with God and by the blood of Jesus I release my divine protection and divine provision.

My angels are carrying out the Word of God on my behalf.

I receive supernatural strength and encouragement from God and my angels. (Psalm 103:20)

I expect to have divine appointments today, to run into the right people, and to be delivered from the wrong people.

Any adversity, attack, accidents and tragedies that were headed my way are diverted right now in Jesus' name.

I speak to the raging waters in my life: Peace, be still.

is
08:3
6
PM.

Scams Message Board - Copyright ? 2004 Scam.com , All Rights Reserved.