Un - Holy Communion

January 12th, 2007 · Posted in Christianity, Theology ·

It's hard to believe — but Gregory Dickow is selling a product he calls: The Power of Communion: Receiving the Favor of God. For a mere $40 a month you get:

* A 30-day supply of communion elements to help you establish the habit of receiving communion as a part of your daily lifestyle.

* The Power of Communion: Receiving the Favor of God message on audio CD or cassette tape.

* A Communion prayer card. Many people have called or written wanting the words of the prayer I use when I lead people to receive communion on our television show.

* The DVD of our TV show titled “The Power of Holy Communion” • where I teach you one-on one, the meaning and power of communion.

Dickow urges us to:

Take the first step toward unleashing the power of God’s favor in your life today by learning the power of communion. I encourage you to take communion today over a situation where you don’t feel God has turned to your favor. Then that situation will change because God has a blood-bought oath to show you His favor through His precious body and through His precious blood.

And I always thought the Sacrament was to help us remember the body and blood of Christ broken and shed for the forgiveness of our sins — not to change situations we don’t feel “God has turned to our favor”.

This brings to mind 2 Timothy 4:3:

For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths.

I just saw on TV a ‘religious’ program that is marketing something that is perhaps the most egregious and pathetic and deplorable thing I have ever seen pushed by the health-and-wealth, name-it-and-claim-it quacks on television...The Holy Communion Package: Releasing God’s Favor.

I watched this heretic - Gregory Dickow - as he led his viewers in taking ‘communion’ through the television set; as he talked about health and wealth through the taking of this ‘communion’; and how he never mentioned even once the true meaning of the Lord’s Supper and what it represents: the bread being Christ’s body broken and given for us, and the cup signifying the New Covenant in His blood. The atoning work of the cross was never even so much as hinted at, only a bunch of junk about eating the anointing...receiving the anointing...and being healthier and wealthier by taking this ‘communion’...not to mention the fact that this guy is encouraging people to take what they think is true communion apart from the rest of the body of Christ. An UN-corporate Lord’s Supper!

Here is what you too can receive if you order the Holy Communion Package:

A 30-day supply of communion elements to help you establish the habit of receiving communion as a part of your daily lifestyle.

The Power of Communion: Receiving the Favor of God message on audio CD or cassette tape.

A Communion prayer card. Many people have called or written wanting the words of the prayer I use when I lead people to receive communion on our television show.

The DVD of our TV show titled “The Power of Holy Communion” where I teach you one-on-one, the meaning and power of communion.

Take the first step toward unleashing the power of God’s favor in your life today by learning the power of communion. I encourage you to take communion today over a situation where you don’t feel God has turned to your favor. Then that situation will change because God has a blood-bought oath to show you His favor through His precious body and through His precious blood. I want you to expect it today!

There are also testimonials on the website which recount stories of healings, financial gain, and job promotions after taking this communion. I will not provide the web address or links to this horrible heretic here because I do not want to risk contributing to his abominations. If you want the link, email me and I will consider it.

This is the kind of thing that makes me cry even louder, “COME, LORD JESUS!”.

Folks do read the 55 comments on the preceding blog.

Jack,

It looks like you and your friends in Christ will do anything to make a buck. How Christian is it to evangelize good, trusting Christians out of ten grand or any amount in the name of the Holy Dollar to line your pockets.

Is this how you got your 1.2 million dollar shack?

Jack,

Remember all these posts where you asserted that Treasures for the Kingdom was in fact a registered 501 (c) (3)

<http://www.scam.com/showpost.php?p=207671&postcount=623>

<http://www.scam.com/showpost.php?p=207693&postcount=628>

Timmy claims to be the Founder and President, but it was in fact incorporated by Mr. Ward and he was the only registered agent until July 25, 2007. Funny you neglected to mention that, Jack. And as I have known for months, Timmy never filed a shred of paperwork with the IRS. The Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act does not make him a 501 (c) (3) either.

All bets are being hedged on a claimed affiliation with Tim's church even though they refuse to be affiliated with him, have never given express or implied permission for their name to be used and have never served on any board for any of Tim's ventures.

I guess you better put your MBA to use and tell us about the business ethics of using the church's name without their permission and making them legally responsible as they are named in the Articles of Incorporation. "AC's business methodologies are second to none in ethics, morals, and efficiency," said Tim in the post that follows. Are you sure about that, Jack?

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Heather Dobrott, you remain in my prayers. I also forgive you as you actually think you are correct in your blatant attacks. Trust me, forgiving you has not been easy.

When You Can't Forgive

Forgiveness is never easy. But sometimes it feels down-right impossible in light of the devastating and horrendous pain we have suffered. If you have a hard time forgiving someone, ask God to help you. Pray for them. It's amazing how God softens our hearts as we pray for people. Our anger, resentment, and hurt turn into love.

Don't worry, however. When we forgive someone, it doesn't make them right or justify what they have done. It releases them into God's hands. Forgiveness not only sets us free from the person we forgive, but frees us to move into all God has for us. Our forgiving someone doesn't depend on them admitting guilt or apologizing. If it did, most of us would never be able to do it. We can forgive no matter what the other person does.

Have a blessed week everyone. Heather, again I ask you, you seem to attack every work that I and others have done. When called out, you gloss over your innuendos or misleading posts. What exactly have you ever built yourself? Yes, I thought so. It is much easier to be on the sidelines and be a critic.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

Quit feeling sorry for yourself. You and Timmy have it completely backwards. Shouldn't it be in light of the devastating and horrendous pain you boys have caused so many reps?

Remember the rep with the "medical problem" you and Timmy are responsible for? You boys were forced to give a partial refund, but you never checked on that rep. You simply belly-ached to the BBB attorney about how extremely upset you were. The only concern you have ever had is your own pocketbook.

You, Jack Weinzierl, and your brother in Christ, Tim Darnell, have caused tremendous devastation. My family and many others have reached out to those you harmed. Think about all those reps that faced hunger, foreclosure, sale of homes, sale of possessions, mountains of credit card debt, bankruptcy and depression. You then fabricated allegations of death threats and stalking in a desperate attempt to silence those who advocate for the public and have shared the truth about your venture.

What does filing frivolous, groundless lawsuits have to do with forgiveness?

Wake up, Jack!

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

Do be prepared for your brother, Jerry Weinzierl, your father-in-law Al Tannous and your nephew Aaron to be tangled in this further. They were all in Advantage Conferences. You paid for Aaron to join. You refunded your $7,000.00 commissions to Jerry and Al even though it was clearly against AC's and Tim's policies to do so. We expect that same generous refund to be offered to everyone who enrolled in AC as an MMC-IV. Discrimination and predatory business practices must be challenged. It is high time this discrimination be handled by the authorities.

Re:

Heather Dobrott, it is you that is causing harm and pain for the reps in the business and we do have that documented. When you have blatantly attacked this company for 2+ years, it has no doubt contributed to the inability for some of these folks to build a business. You are the misguided one and the one doing damage. I have invested years supporting and training entrepreneurs 6 days a week and a misguided critic is not going to stop what God has purposed in my heart.

People reading this thread should also know that Soapboxmom has never experienced one of our live conferences or products. I have been to 6 to date over a 3 year program. Some of the same folks that she has convinced are victims, were singing the praises of this company after attending a conference. I have pages of testimonials regarding the life-changing events that Advantage Conferences hosts. But, how would you know since you have never attended and you have listened to a handful of folks that have not attended or quit on the representative side. I have also worked on two of the homes that were updated and made over to assist to single women.

Do you really think I would put up with your hatred and attacks if I didn't believe in what I did? And yes, when explaining to an attorney in Dallas just yesterday, she was blown away by this targeting and personal attack. And yes, it is an attack on our faith and free speech regardless of what you say. There is no question as I monitor your posting and lack thereof on other companies.

In fact, you continue your attack on this company even when it is no longer in the MLM space with it's compensation plan.

As for my family that you mentioned, I just spent three weeks with them in Michigan and we had a great time. What I chose to do with my commissions is completely my personal choice. It is not unlike you to take a small piece of truth and try to sensationalize.

So you continue your attacks on the business, us personally, <http://TheMarketLeaders.com>, ministries that are changing lives globally, and you will be held accountable from above. What is sad is that a handful of folks begin to believe you and then shift their mindset from producing to blaming.

You still have not answered the question about what you have produced and built. The world is full of critics. I pray for your heart daily Heather Dobrott.

Jack those hideous allegations were on the replicated webpages which all reps have and you posted the Opposition page on your jackweinzierl.c*m site. You receive and encourage others to sign up for the Footsteps of Faith Messenger. I fully expect those sickening lies will be retracted!

Jack you posted your own address and home pictures when you had that hilarious estate sale and made all kinds of demands for no negotiation and firm prices on your used stuff. That was entirely your doing. We just found it quite amusing!

Tim's church is open to all God's children and in fact church members contacted me for help and information. You are not going to deny anyone's right to free speech. Go take your control trip elsewhere. God's children must be protected from those out to fleece His flock!

Jack,

You are not playing the blame game????? The high failure rate of Advantage Conferences (98%) matches the historically high failure rate of all Aussie 2-ups. The compensation plan was written by Darnell. It is strictly a numbers game and the numbers doom your reps to horrific losses. It is time for a little fun with math.

95 reps left (x 4) = 380 (x 4) = 1,520.....6,080...24,320...97,280...
389,120.....1,556,480....6,225,920....24,903,680.99,614,720...398,458,880....
1,593,835,520.....6,375,342,080

Let's give each of those 95 15 total sales so they can make the \$100,000.00 mininum they were expecting or had as a goal. $95 \times 15 = 1425 (x15) =$
21,375.....320,625.....4,809,375.....72,140,625.1,082,109,375.....16,231,640,625

Quote:

FTC declarations have stated that if the majority of the money used to pay the "upliners" is gained primarily from the purchases of the downliners – not from their retail customers – the payments are de facto payments for recruiting. In such cases, the "business opportunity" is not to sell the MLM products but to recruit others into the "business opportunity" in an endless chain. Endless chains are considered "inherent frauds" since they cannot deliver on their promise of income to any but a few at the top; the vast majority are doomed from the start to financial losses; and the schemes must use deception to lure consumers into nearly certain financial losses....

Your Responsibilities

If you decide to become a distributor, you are legally responsible for the claims you make about the company, its product and the business opportunities it offers. That applies even if you're repeating claims you read in a company brochure or advertising flyer. The Federal Trade Commission advises you to verify the research behind any claims about a product's performance before repeating those claims to a potential customer.

In addition, if you solicit new distributors, you are responsible for the claims you make about a distributor's earnings potential. Be sure to represent the opportunity honestly and avoid making unrealistic promises. If those promises fall through, remember that you could be held liable.

Remember you boys went from zero/0 to one/1 retail sale of the flagship conference product according to Darnell under oath and that clearly makes AC a pyramid recruiting scheme by the FTC definition.

The one speaker the reps loved, Arch B., has no involvement with AC any more and he spoke at Tim's church for free. Why pay ten grand to hear someone who loves to share his inspiring story for free?

Those old testimonials you reference are worthless. I have personally communicated with folks that lost tens of thousands of dollars. Even folks that were in AC in 2005 and got a few checks are long gone as they discovered the advertising was eating them alive. Remember the rep that wrote the great radio jingle? Ask all those reps that have left to tell the real story behind AC. Is Mike Napoli is gone? Did he pay the $16,000.00 to have the back cover ad for a year? Did he get refunded for the 5 covers/10 months of advertising he did not receive?

The fact your family's 3 pastors, from Grace Christian Church, will not participate in Advantage Conferences speaks volumes. The fact that they would accept refunds when folks have gone hungry, lost homes, refinanced homes, sold homes, sold possessions, faced depression, faced mountains of credit card debt and suffered unspeakably is quite disturbing. All the reps should be treated the same. What is happening is clearly discriminatory and should be addressed. I hope Grace Christian will reach out to those in peril because of AC. God loves all his children.

I am accountable to "above." I have an obligation to see the public has the facts that will allow folks to make an informed decision. If Advantage Conferences was such a wonderful, God-ordained and Christ-centered opportunity it would be flourishing. It is imploding because the truth shines about your alleged "oasis of integrity."

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

According to Tim's church the facts are that at no time have they had any affiliation or connection with Advantage Conferences or (TFK) Treasures for the Kingdom. They never gave express or implied consent for AC or TFK to act on their behalf or use their name. They also never had anyone serve on any board for AC or TFK.

I think that I and my posse, as you call them, should start a foundation as well. This one could reach out to the many former reps who have faced financial disaster due to Advantage Conferences. I will ask Mr. Ward to incorporate this one too. How about we incorporate under Grace Christian Church. We will ask them and ignore their answer of flat out no. We will just incorporate under them without their knowledge, permission or blessing as Tim did to his church.

An oasis of integrity would naturally use the name of the church without their blessing or permission and leave them legally responsible for a charity they had no control of or any relationship with whatsoever. God always supports folks going behind the back of His sacred house, correct?

Just what should we call this proposed entity? Treasures for the "Prey" An Integrated Auxiliary of Grace Christian Church? Treasures for the Deceived? Treasures for God's Children?

We will make sure to follow Tim's fine example and send in no financial statements to the church and run the charity with few or no board meetings or legitimate oversight. Naturally we will not register with the IRS either. Jack's brother will be thrilled!

Jack,

What happened here? It looks like you and your pals tried to buy the church. Did the financing fall through? Did they check your credit, background or recent earnings (as in your 2007 tax statement?) Did they decide you didn't have sufficient collateral? How is it your former church ended up in the hands of LifeChangers, your old haunt from Illinios?

Should I call your pals from Flower Mound and Lewisville to get the whole scoop or would you like to share the story?

Think how perfect it would have been to have owned the church. For guys out looking for reps, Christians are easy marks and quick to trust those who paint themselves as fellow believers. It sure makes it easy for guys like you to line your pockets when you are the head of a church in an affluent area. Will LifeChangers let you solicit in their building?

Re: Watch Out

Soapboxmom, again trying to make something out of nothing.

We owned part of the building to assist Oasis when they bought the building. You are posting folks that owned the building. I am honored to call each of them very good friends.

I thought you would like my notes from my TGIM call this morning.

Have a blessed week and yes, I demand back what the enemy has stolen.

Welcome to our Thank God It's Monday call for Monday, July 28. This is the day that the Lord has made and we will rejoice and be glad in it, amen.

It is great to be back in Texas after visiting family for 3 weeks in Michigan.

I have a rather short, but powerful message to share this morning having to do with getting back what the enemy has stolen. I don't know about you, but I want my stuff back. How do we get our stuff back? Through a lifestyle of praise. And we are not talking about just a song here. We are talking about putting God first. Numero uno. Read 2 Chronicles 20 today and you will see how King Jehoshaphat led the army of Judah and put God first appointing singings to walk ahead of the army. By the way, Judah means praise. The other armies attacked and killed each other and King Jehoshaphat and his men went out to gather the plunder. The Lord gave them victory over their enemies. He is no respecter of persons and will do the same for us.

And make no mistake, the thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy and His purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life....not my words but Jesus' words in John 10:10.

And also make no mistake, if satan can get your praise, he can get your stuff.

Our attention needs to be on God. David's was in 2 Samuel 6:21 when he talks about dancing before the Lord and he says in verse 22 that he is willing to look even more foolish than this, even to be humiliated in my own eyes.

This message is as much for me as anyone on the line this morning. It is not to beat you up, but to encourage you. His grace covers us all. The Bible says that a righteous man can fall 7 times and gets back up.

We need to not let our emotions be our guide as they will usually mislead us...let the Word lead you. We need to be filled up with God's Word so we have joy in the midst of trials. Devil, you are not getting our stuff and in fact, you need to repay us up to 7 fold for what you have stolen. In Job 42, Job received double for his trouble. In Proverbs 6:31, the thief has to pay back seven times what he stole.

And Fear is the greatest thief of our future.

Satan comes to rob us from expectation, joy, peace and our future.

Why does Satan come to attack our praise? He was the worship leader in Heaven. When he stopped praising God, he lost everything. That's why he wants you depressed. And praise is not just a song. Praise is giving Him the rightful place. When He is #1, we are covered. We can't just shout on Sundays, and then doubt on Mondays folks. When we just try to fit him in, we give the enemy place to get in. We can't fit in God. The bumper sticker that says, God is my Co-pilot. Well, folks, we better move over and let God be our pilot as He can drive a lot better than we can, amen? He needs to be pre-eminent. Praise is a lifestyle. Is He Lord of our attitude? is He Lord over my body? I don't do certain things, because I want to honor God and the motivation is not what the world may promote, but to glorify Him. Is Jesus Lord over your finances? Are you honoring Him?

OK Jack, you had me until you talked about finances. Then folks, that may be a specific area that you need to make Him Lord over, amen.

So how do we get our stuff back?

1) Praise is the first thing.

God is too big to be fit into our lives, we need to fit into His. Praise is the anecdote. We have to stop complaining and criticizing. You cannot complain and praise at the same time. Say I praise you Jesus 3 times right now. Did you complain when you were praising Him? You can't.

2) Devil, give me my stuff back, give me my stuff back. We are not waiting and we are not going to let the Devil get my stuff any more.

So we need to praise God first, then we need to take action and demand our stuff back and,

3) We need to encourage ourselves in the Word.

No one can do this for us. In 1 Samuel 30:6 David was greatly distressed, perplexed, confused, and felt defeated. His own soldiers talked about stoning him. The very people you counted on will not be there to encourage you at times. We have to encourage ourselves in the Word.

If you need encouragement, look to Matthew 9:2 Our sins are forgiven...I am encouraged

Matthew 14:27 Take courage as I am with you

John 16:33 I have overcome the world

Acts 27:22 Take courage as there will be no loss

Yes, you may be thinking, well he already took everything and that is temporary. Whatever the devil thinks he got, you are getting it back. I know I am getting it back. Paul said, I believe God vs I believe in God. Even the devil and demons believe in God.

Isaiah 35:4 Say to those with fearful hearts, "Be strong, and do not fear, for your God is coming to destroy your enemies. He is coming to save you."

Vengeance is His. God will show up with vengeance--recompense...we are going to be repaid, amen.

How...

1) Speak His Word

2) Job 9:27 Forget your complaint--wow this is a tough one for me

Leave off my sad countenance. Forget what people have done...that is not forgetting what our needs are. No room for whining and complaining. Fast from complaining.

Again, this is as much for me as anyone on this line. I have allowed the thief to steal in our lives long enough.

3) Encourage ourselves

Devil, I demand my stuff back. Loose my stuff in Jesus' name.

I am going to close this call in prayer and open up for any comments, but before I do, I want to read a personal confession and if you have a copy of this, you are welcome to read along with me. It will be in my notes from this morning.

This is a new day. Be encouraged and here are some personal confessions that you are welcome to print and leverage this next week and every day.

I set the course of my life today with my words:

I declare today that I will not be defeated, discouraged, depressed or disappointed.

I am the head, I have insight, I have wisdom, I have ideas, I have authority.

I exercise my authority today with my words and I decree a thing and it is so.

Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world (1 John 4:4)...the same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead, lives in me... (Romans 8:11)

As I speak words today, they come to pass (Job 22:28); they go before me, they bring the things to pass that I desire; and they stop all attacks, assaults, oppression, and fear from coming to my life.

God is on my side today and, therefore, I cannot be defeated.

His favor surrounds me today as a shield. (Psalm 5:12). I expect favor today from heaven and from the earth.

Jesus had favor with God and man (Luke 2:52), and as He is so am I on this earth. (1 John 4:17)

Therefore, I have favor today with God and man.

I expect and receive favor in my home, favor in my job, favor in my business, favor in my ministry, favor with my finances, favor in every deal I am involved in.

I will think the right thoughts, say the right words and make the right decisions in every situation I face today.

My mouth speaks wisdom and my heart is filled with understanding. (Psalm 49:3)

I ask for, and receive, an abundant supply of wisdom and understanding today from God (James 1:5)...wisdom from above, wisdom that is pure, peaceable, gentle, unwavering, willing to yield, without hypocrisy. (James 3:17)

Wisdom and understanding are better than silver and gold and nothing I desire can compare with them; therefore, I make it my ambition and desire to have understanding and wisdom; therefore I know I will have all of the other desires of my heart. (Proverbs 8:10-11)

My words go before me in securing my divine health and healing...

I will not be sick today; I will not be sad today; I will not be broke today; I will not be confused today.

I have health today; I have joy today; I have all the money I need in the name of Jesus.

My steps are ordered by the Lord... (Psalm 37:23)

I have a covenant with God and by the blood of Jesus I release my divine protection and divine provision.

I expect to have divine appointments today, to run into the right people, and to be delivered from the wrong people.

Any adversity, attack, accidents and tragedies that were headed my way are diverted right now in Jesus' name.

Now I speak to:

every mountain of fear

every mountain of discouragement

every mountain of stress

every mountain of depression

every mountain of lack and insufficiency

And I say, "Be removed and cast into the sea in Jesus' name!" (Mark 11:23) I expect the best day of my life spiritually, emotionally, relationally and financially today in Jesus' name.

Dear Heavenly Father, I know I have not always had you as my first priority and I thank you for your grace. We want to honor you in all we do and I am committed to not just fitting you into our busy lives....but making and keeping you as the priority in our lives. Thank you for your love and your protection and for the authority you have given us as a believer as your sons and daughters. We pray for our enemies this morning that you touch their hearts and minds and heal them, in Jesus name, amen.

Jack Weinzierl Dear Christian Millionaire Mindset Mentor Friends,

If you are receiving this, you are probably aware that our primary business is focused on educating, mentoring and equipping Christian entrepreneurs. We already have 300 team members around the world. We are so blessed to be involved with Advantage Conferences as our marketplace ministry. Hidden Treasures, which is part of Advantage Conferences, is at the center of our vision to raise $250 million for ministries and non-profits over the next 5 years.

There is a sense of urgency and importance to this post. We just added a major capital component for seniors, ministries and non-profit organizations. It's a program that we've been chosen to represent that can literally raise millions for these groups, and what's so unique about it is that it doesn't require money out of anyone's pocket. We have access to institutional investors who are buying unused insurability of qualified seniors...in other words, we aren't selling anything. We are buying. These seniors have an asset that they're not even aware of...their unused insurability...their Hidden Treasure!

Where does the fundraising and benefit to the senior come in? A senior will have many choices when this policy is in place for their estate and one option is to sell this policy. Qualified seniors are given major financial incentives if they qualify with our underwriting guidelines, and with those very large checks they can donate all or part of it to the Christian non-profit organization of their choice! It truly is a new asset class that most people are not aware of.

Although every person is different, there are qualified seniors who have received well in excess of $100,000 for an asset they did not know existed. In many cases, it has exceeded $300,000 to the qualified senior. There are NO out of pocket expenses for the senior and NO risk. It is a very simple process that I will manage for the senior. Once again, at no cost or risk to the senior and in fact, we will encourage them to consult with their financial advisor, attorney and CPA, once we determine if they qualify.

In terms of qualification, if you have a family member or friend who fits the following criteria, please email me at jack@advantageconferences.com with your phone number and a good time to call and I can provide more information for you.

MUST BE BETWEEN THE AGES OF 72-88

MUST BE IN GENERAL GOOD HEALTH

This is truly a new asset class for seniors. It can have a great impact on the senior's family and ministries worldwide. All we can do today is see if they are qualified. I look forward to sharing with you.

The Texas Department of Insurance says:
Quote:

Texas Department of Insurance

Consumer Protection – Public Education, Mail Code 111-1A CONSUMER ALERT

333 Guadalupe • P. O. Box 149091, Austin, Texas 78714-9091

Consumer Help Line: 1-800-252-3439 • Website: www.tdi.state.tx.us

Stranger-Owned Life Insurance: Zero Premium Life Insurance and New Issue Settlements

The Texas Department of Insurance (Department) has recently experienced an increase in the number of consumer inquiries regarding two different nontraditional offerings in the Stranger-Owned Life Insurance (STOLI) market. One arrangement is frequently referred to by names including “zero premium life insurance,” “estate maximization plans,” or “no cost to the insured plans,” and the other arrangement is often called a “new issue life settlement,” “high net worth settlement,” or a “non-recourse premium finance transaction.” This notice is to advise Texas consumers to proceed with caution when considering participation in such transactions. The offers are typically marketed to consumers between the ages of 65 and 85 and may have some or all of the following features:

(1) Consumers are being solicited to participate in the application for life insurance to be owned by a stranger in exchange for a lump sum payment or for the consumers’ beneficiaries receiving only a portion of the death benefit. These programs may be referred to by names such as “zero-premium life insurance,” “estate maximization plans” or “no cost to the insured” policies.

(2) Consumers are being solicited to participate in the application for life insurance in anticipation of a future life settlement transaction. These transactions are known as “new issue life settlements,” “high net worth settlements,” or “non-recourse premium finance transactions.”

The Department is currently gathering details and investigating whether STOLIs are policies purchased by a person or legal entity, typically an investor, institution, or corporation, unknown to the policy owner or insured person before the transaction. Texas law allows an individual to consent to the purchase of insurance on his or her life by another person or legal entity, including strangers.

Texas law also allows any person of legal age, with certain limitations, to designate any other person or legal entity, including strangers, as the beneficiary and/or owner of an existing policy on his or her life. The sale of an existing life insurance policy is referred to as a “life or viatical settlement” contract and typically occurs after the policy has been in effect for a period of time. Viatical and life settlement providers and brokers are required to hold a certificate of registration issued by the Department in order to do business in Texas.

However, the Texas Insurance Code prohibits the offer of rebates or inducements to enter into life insurance contracts.

In the interim, the Department urges consumers to proceed with caution when considering nontraditional STOLI arrangements. If you are considering:

- allowing a stranger to purchase life insurance on your life in exchange for an immediate lump sum payment of some amount;
- allowing a stranger to purchase insurance on your life in exchange for a partial payment of the policy’s face value to your beneficiaries upon your death;
- entering into a contract for “free” or “no-cost” insurance on your life;
- purchasing a life insurance policy for the sole purpose of selling the policy; or
- materially participating in transactions leading up to the purchase of a life policy for the above-stated purposes, then the Department offers the following suggestions:

- Determine what company you are applying with by inspecting the insurance application closely.
 - Be cautious if your application is being sent to more than one company and multiple insurance policies are being purchased on your life.
 - Obtain a sample copy of the policy for which you are applying.
 - Be careful about disclosing confidential health and/or financial information.
 - Consider any potential tax consequences of the amount offered to you for allowing someone to purchase insurance on your life. Discuss this issue with an attorney and/or a tax consultant.
 - Understand that the policy may count as an asset when determining eligibility for public benefits, such as Medicaid long-term care benefits.
 - Confirm that all persons and entities involved in your transaction are properly licensed and registered by the Department. Agent, insurer, premium finance company and life or viatical settlement provider and broker licensure and registration can be verified at the TDI's website (www.tdi.state.tx.us) or through the toll-free Consumer Help Line (1-800-252-3439).
 - Remember that filing an application for insurance containing materially false information may be prosecuted as insurance fraud and subject you to civil and criminal penalties.
 - Obtain all details about the program and have a complete understanding of your obligations. If necessary, discuss this information with an attorney.
 - Use common sense. Remember the warning "If it seems too good to be true, it probably is."

Timmy blathered under oath:

Quote:

I have been told by many religious that they will not allow us to even approach the congregation about buying insurance to benefit themselves or the church until the BBB issues are resolved. I recently had a discussion with the leader of Cottonwood Creek Baptist Church. But, for the Better Business Bureau posting, I am unable to sell the Hidden Treasures and Fundraising Advantage products. I have personal knowledge that when the BBB postings are resolved and the content of the site is changed that Advantage Conferences will make $10,000 off of this long term relationship. I have great rapport with the church as it is my local parrish and I am licensed to sell the insurance product, but I cannot do so until the BBB website refereces to a pyramid are removed. Unfortunately, the members of the church are also harmed because the church and its congregation cannot take advantage of these products, which literally give something to a qualified elderly person for nothing for allowing a third party to take out insurance in that person.

Jack,

A concerned former rep thought we should revisit this huge debacle. You said, "there are qualified seniors who have received well in excess of $100,000 for an asset they did not know existed. In many cases, it has exceeded $300,000 to the qualified senior." I was told by former reps that zero dollars changed hands. No policies ultimately went through, thus no seniors ever received a penny and none of the 60 agents Timmy dragged into this mess received even a penny in commissions after months of expenses and work. So, it looks to me like you lied once again.

"However, the Texas Insurance Code prohibits the offer of rebates or inducements to enter into life insurance contracts," according to the Department of Insurance. Isn't that exactly what you boys were doing? Do you have any idea how many reps were burned by this fiasco financially? Do you understand the financial devastation this program caused?

Tim Darnell used this as an excuse to sue the Better Business Bureau for 10 million dollars. Do you think that is ethical and moral, Jack? I am sure it is all fantasy that Tim's church would buy the STOLI ever. They made it clear under oath they never had anything to do with his schemes.

You, Jack, have quite a bit of explaining to do. It looks like zero dollars were raised for Christian ministries by Hidden Treasures.

Re: Watch Out for

Again, you never apologize for your loose accusations. You make the fact that I owned part of a church building a negative thing. Then when corrected, you shoot for something else.

A person can continue to attack a company, its leaders, reps in the field and hurt a company and its individuals, albeit temporarily. You state that you are helping folks when in fact you have hurt people with your attacks. You have repeatedly attacked ministries as well. Vengeance is His.

And as for the insurance offering, I love that person you are referring to and she was at the same training in California before we rolled this out. She will also tell you that our company decided to shift gears since that company could not process and fund the apps submitted. Companies are constantly adjusting course based on experiences and the marketplace.

Again, you have yet to answer the question...What have you ever built when it comes to business? It is easy to criticize...

BTW, there is no more 7Kadvantage system, there is no more network marketing component as Advantage Conferences is strictly an affiliate program now with an incredible value proposition. Yes, it is obvious that you are obsessed attacking this company every day of the week and we know the real reason for doing so.

There were some of the lovely posts about your church. Oasis was purchased, according to the tax rolls, on 11/7/2006. Are you saying the tax rolls are inaccurate and Oasis, the church proper, is not a 100% owner? You are saying that you and Stephanie, the two couples and that Dallas company were part owners as well?

So, you buy part of the property to help out the church in November of 2006 and in December of 2007 you officially leave a church you are part owner of? You are angry I e-mailed Pastor Dennis and refer to him as "my pastor" and say "we" are praying for good ol' mom here. How can it be my and we if you are officially gone. I am all confused again.

Just yesterday, we heard from two of the gentleman that discovered Noah's Ark and then we had 90 people over to our home Saturday evening for a BBQ. Then, last night, my brother just got back from Pebble Beach with John Maxwell and he informed me his church in Detroit was sowing $15,000 in our ministry in Dallas. Yes, for those who know me, the tears are flowing. God is good.

I always laugh at your recruit, recruit, recruit confirmations. But, back to the church. You gave your brother's church, Grace Christian Church, $100,000.00 in hopes of getting your 3 family members to recruit there and as we all know that didn't work out as you had hoped. Was this $15,000.00 mentioned above a gift for Oasis?

Did your family of pastors quit Advantage Conferences after that attorney looked into it? I see that there were no citations issued and no motions filed. I think we all deserve an explanation.

Hundreds of reps have been harmed financially as have the BBB, Dr. Taylor, myself and many others who must help those in financial peril. If Grace Christian Church is involved in any way, they should certainly be looking for ways to minister to those who have been harmed.

You and Tim have a very strange method for evangelizing and every church and church council should be questioning if the work you are doing is in fact what God asks of His children and is what God wants for His children.

Jack Weinzierl Scam

The Jack Weinzierl Scam had been identified as a kind of scam that greatly takes advantage of poor victims of its schemes. It is even known as the 7KAdvantage that is very evil and liar as categorized by most of its victims.

The Jack Weinzierl Scam is all about an evil man who masquerades as a Christian. His name is of course Jack Weinzierl where the name of the scam was derived. According to some victims, what this man does is lying and cheating every last penny of savings and would not bother to return any of the calls of the victim.

Once the man had got enough your last penny, he would then disappear and nowhere to be found. The man has a wife who will keep convincing the victim to invest more on the business and then keep telling that everything would work out in God's perfect time. Jack Weinzierl and his wife would play on the faith of the victim on how strong it is or not, which is totally insane.

This is one of the reasons why Jack Weinzierl was called by its victim as an evil rat.

Just like any online scams, the Jack Weinzierl Scam would offer the victim some ridiculous opportunities involving a huge amount of money. And in every step of the way, the masquerade man and his wife would encourage the victim to invest more and more money for business they are offerings.

Some of the victims of the Jack Weinzierl Scam have acknowledged their fault of trusting someone online who even uses God as their encouragement power. However, the scam had served as a lesson learned for the victims. The victims of this so-called Jack Weinzierl Scam or 7KAdvantage can be found over the Internet on some forums and blog sites.

The Jack Weinzierl Scam even has a website, the jackweinzierl dot com whereas good testimonials and forums are mentioned by people about Jack Weinzierl and his wife. The testimonials and forums even use God's words and wisdoms, which can be very deceiving for targeted individuals.

In investing a business, you should have a strong decision making and judgment skills. Do not let yourself believe easily in some online or MLM scams that offer big amounts of money such as the Jack Weinzierl Scam whereas in the end, the results would just fall into you of losing your money and self-confidence as well.

Online or Internet businesses are quite hard to believe in because there's no such thing of earning big amounts of money just dedicating yourself of forwarding advertisements to people to promote the products and services or recruiting people under your network, and other similar stuffs involving online businesses. It is still best to always get assured on things before making yourself involve in it.

Jack,

It is high time for an update on your rapidly shrinking fan club. Your brother, pastor Jerry Weinzierl of Grace Christian Church, ran for office with no party affiliation. Jerry was the candidate and treasurer for a failed run at a seat on the city council in Warren, Michigan.

<http://campaignfinance.macombcountym...mmitteeID=4910>

<http://campaignfinance.macombcountym...s/48294403.PDF>

<http://campaignfinance.macombcountym...s/48294656.PDF>

Jerry loans his campaign committee $1828.86. He collects $2125.00 in contributions from several individuals and companies as listed in the documents to follow. Jerry then pays himself back $1846.44.

<http://campaignfinance.macombcountym...s/48294657.PDF>

<http://campaignfinance.macombcountym...s/48295831.PDF>

<http://campaignfinance.macombcountym...s/48295832.PDF>

Ooops, he changed his mind and decided to only refund himself $1346.00 after lots of haggling and confusion.

<http://campaignfinance.macombcountym...s/48296301.PDF>

Jerry used the church's e-mail address, so I take it they were behind this fiasco. He had to find something to do after dropping his repship with Advantage Conferences. It doesn't look like Jack donated for this historic campaign.

Jerry didn't have any time to devote to Advantage Conferences, but found all kinds of time for this nonsense. Did Jerry discover Advantage Conferences promise that one "must be expecting to make at least $100,000.00 or more your first year," working 5-10 hours a week is bunk? He received a $7,000.00 check and a refund of the $7,000.00 commission on his purchase from earning stud brother, Jack. Funny, he didn't insist that other reps in financial peril receive the same treatment he did. I guess he supports discriminatory and predatory practices in business. I wonder how Jerry feels about the horrific 98% confirmed loss rate?

I share your repulsion to Darnell, Weinzierl, and Huckabee.

However your profanity and vulgarity does hurt our cause. Please clean it up.

Thanks my friend

Thank you, Mr. Thomas. It is so good to see you back.

Surfin, are you selling your services to any current AC reps, or have you been assisting ex reps with other opportunities? My sources suggest that AC is very much on its last leg and lots is going on behind the scenes. I pray no one else waste their money, because there is no hope at this point of Advantage Conferences exploding, expanding, growing or any of the other things Jack and Tim blather about.

Let's please keep it civil and stick to the facts. Happy Holidays to all!

Self employed... its umm good to see you back (i suppose) may i ask that you please keep it civil.... Soapboxmom, Wishyouknew, and the wonderful Frank Thomas are here trying to warn others of Advantage Conference and your profanity is hurting the cause. We ask that you post and state the facts as they are.... Darnell and Weinzerl are hurting many people and continue to do so....please post responsibly.

Thank you.

And yes, it is an attack on our faith and free speech regardless of what you say. There is no question as I monitor your posting and lack thereof on other companies.

Jack,

You would have seen the blown away attorney on Tuesday the 22nd of July. It has been almost two weeks. Why is it your lady attorney is not listed on the register of actions as your attorney of record for the case against you boys in Collin County? There is quite the rumor mill going in the Dallas legal community thanks to Tim's frivolous lawsuits and some determined scambusters sending out information. Is she pulling the drop you like a hot potatoe routine like others have done that were given the facts (such as the Better Business Bureau case and resulting Writ of Garnishment?)

Do explain again how I will be held accountable to "above" and how your free speech is being attacked (denied.) We can't wait for you to update us on the fascinating developments.

Jack,

Did Tim Darnell forget to tell you the sites were all going down? Your www.oneoasis.com used to direct to your cheesy default page at Advantage Conferences, www.advantageconferences.com/jack. Now your page doesn't go anywhere. Brilliant businessmen to be sure!
