Jack,

Most of your clueless recruits still have domain names that do not go anywhere. The yahoo.com search is even more amusing than the Altavista.com search. Many of the web addresses are directed to the now non-existent www.advantageconferences.com replicated sites. Why is it many of them have not bothered to do anything in light of Tim's latest brilliant business move? Have many of these few remaining reps (approximately 100 Tim Darnell said under oath June 23, 2008) have abandoned the AC Titanic? That sure is professional having gobs of pages that are not working. Tim Darnell the brilliant businessman strikes again. Aren't you glad Timmy is there to mentor you on your financial and business decisions?

I just got the 8th call or email about the latest and greatest nutrition product that is just launching. In fact, they have all offered me a "founder's" position with the company. It kind of makes you wonder how exclusive that position is?

This particular company offers nutritional supplements based on your DNA that you send to them. Not really sure how I feel about sharing my DNA for starters, but that is not my point today. If you are building that business, please do not take offense and be passionate about any company that you represent. The company itself is not the point of this post.

Over the past 9 years, I have witnessed friends and myself at times, moving from company to company. Folks, that is not how you build long-term wealth. It equates to chasing and having a lottery ticket mindset.

Let's stop the insanity and get real about building a REAL business from the comfort of our homes, amen?

If you are looking for the flavor of the month and are part of the M*LM of the month club, I encourage you to shift that mindset starting today.

Whether we work together or not, make a commitment to yourself to no longer follow the hype and program of the month club. The club dues are too high and truly stand in the way of your long-term success.

Make a commitment to build a real business starting today.

So, Jack, you do just hop from one opportunity to the next. Many of those people you "evangelized" into joining AC are out tens of thousands of dollars. Is this your lame attempt at explaining that. Are you suggesting that if folks had stayed in long term that would have been the Christian thing to do? Should they have hung on and racked up thousands more in debt advertising and brought others in that were surely doomed to lose money?

Are you building long term wealth with the Advantage Conferences Titanic, Vemma, ibuzzpro, Target Market Profits, Profit Authority, My Internet Business and/or WorldVentures? How about all the other losers you were in like Soulmate, Income Buddy, Life Force, Card Global, Pro Step and Traffic Oasis? Didn't you say under oath, "I really don't focus on the MLM industry because I was really burnt out from the traditional MLM businesses....A lot of them were full of hype. They're full of, you know, make $100,000.00 tomorrow. They're full of empty promises....sell time freedom...You're trying to support 10-15,000 people."

You neglected to name that "real business" that your are going to work long term. Is it the business disaster Advantage Conferences? Is that long term business the travel MLM, WorldVentures, that is taking tremendous heat for 88.5% of its reps not receiving a check at all? That MLM will prove to have a horrendous loss rate. So, Jack, what is that "real business?" Just what one company are you committed to? We will be watching your domain name www.oneoasis.com to see the answer.

Gee, Jack, want to talk about all your completely fictitious allegations. Are you, lad, ready to repent yourself? Why don't you tell us how deliriously happy your current reps are as this scheme implodes like all the others Tim has been involved in. I wasn't around for the United Health Sciences to be deemed an illegal pyramid with Timmy the proud author of its compensation plan. I wasn't around when he bailed from that bum deal, Liberty League. I wasn't there when All Star made its historic plunge into bankruptcy with Timmy at the helm when almost all that debt was accrued. He was the president that the Marriot hotels filed against.

Here is some more insight for those who care about the truth about Advantage Conferences.

We could look at hundreds of examples like the ones I shared regarding almost any subject. The point I'm making is that statistics can lead to a surmise of a situation that would be seemingly intelligent, yet perfectly invalid. This discussion now brings us to the world of the business opportunity offered by Advantage Conferences.

Depending on which statistics you read, you'll come to understand that the world of business is fraught with failure. In fact, most businesses fail over a period of five years or more. Advantage Conferences and her products are here in large measure as a response – a “solution” to those figures. We are dedicated to changing the statistics regarding business failure and success so that more check marks go in the “Win” column than in the “failure” column.

Tim Darnell has been dedicated and focused for years to define and describe the necessary intangibles that are requisite in becoming a business Champion; as well as to expose the problematic areas of the business world that can impede an enterprising person's progress or even sink their business completely. I believe it is extremely important to talk openly and honestly about what can go wrong in a business (including AC) at least as much as we talk about the benefits of successful business.

In addition to the educational product and environment provided by Advantage Conferences, the Company also offers a powerful income opportunity. As we offer our approved Representatives this opportunity, you will never hear us say the word, easy. In fact, our Reps are not allowed to use that word, because it is simply not accurate in describing any genuine business endeavor like the AC opportunity.

Frankly, Tim has done everything he possibly can to create an opportunity that is more doable and accessible to the common person than anything else out there, but he would never make the mistake of saying this is “easy.”

Neophytes to the income opportunity industry see an income opportunity and their first reaction – their first thought is always the same – “get-rich-quick-scheme.” You will never hear us describe the AC opportunity in that regard although there have been some time-frame exceptions that actually allowed a few Reps to get rich quick. For most people this opportunity requires considerable time and diligence to figure it out and take the appropriate actions that bring in the potentially sizeable revenues.

I would also be the very first to state publicly that most people don’t have the wherewithal or ability to sustain an endeavor for the amount of time necessary to attain the profits that are potentially available here. The fact is, like the statistics above have pointed out, most people quit. Many quit before they even get started. Some give a three or four month effort. Unfortunately most people quit, to use a football analogy, on the 2 or 3 yard line.

Changing your life financially requires changing many things about your life that include long held perspectives and enacting repeated action steps – two areas of change that most people are not willing to make. Creating a successful enterprise takes work and it absolutely requires endurance. In addition, success requires consistency and a totally positive attitude all the time. In reality, how many people can do that? The answer, in my opinion and experience is that there are very few. The battle for success is in the mind of the enterprising individual. It is that battle with self that few people ever win.

The ones who are successful and the ones who have said and mean the following statement: “I will be the exception to these statistics. I will be the one who prevails. I will be the one who is able to trust in God during the down times and “last out” the days in the desert when no revenues are coming in.” They listen to positive messages and “tell-it-like-it-is” training, and believe in that teaching. They have faith and the single intangible SUB (Sustained Unwavering Belief). Most people can’t or won’t implement sustained, unwavering belief. The ones who do truly change their life for the better.

So, can you make a successful go of the AC opportunity? Here’s the answer: “Only you know the answer.” In my opinion, this is the best, most doable and most reasonable opportunity in existence and it just keeps getting better. It is designed for the common person who is willing to make an uncommon effort. Did you hear that? Are you willing to make an uncommon effort? Are you willing to do more than you ever have in the past to create more reward for yourself* than you ever have in the past?

If not, then Advantage Conferences may not be a good fit for you.

Jack,

Do you remember that charming post you made, lad? Why don't you keep your promise and openly and honestly talk about what has gone wrong in AC? Tell us about Hidden Treasures and the devastating losses as reps hung on for months and zero policies were written and no commissions were paid. Tell us about Givers magazine and the folks that lost money and never received their advertising, magazines, coffee table books or refunds. Tell us about Treasures for the Kingdom and how Tim's church said under oath they were not affiliated or connected with it, Tim or Advantage Conferences in any way. Tell us why the Be Your own Banker program has disappeared. Tell us about Advantage Conferences plunge into the abyss.

Tell us about the BBB suit Tim lost and how his account was garnished. Tell us how the current lawsuits are going and how it is effecting business. Tell us about the registration numbers and speakers for the November 2008 conference you boys claimed would be well attended, but Darnell admits in the court papers may have to be cancelled. Tell us why over 98% are losing money with this "powerful income opportunity." Tell us why over 84% of the reps are long gone. Tell us the true number of refunds and why folks that qualified under the policy and by law were denied their refunds. Tell us why most of the domain names out there that once went to Advantage Conferences pages now go nowhere and the reps haven't bothered to direct those names to a working page, but simply abandoned them.

Tell us why the change to Advantage Mentoring. Respond to the charge that with only one retail sale of the conference this venture is a pyramid scheme according to the FTC and Texas law. Explain how folks are getting the return on their investment they were promised.

Why is Tim Darnell living like a pauper and racking up tax bills and debts? Tim is a serial business failure with an alarming number of schemes on his resume including NuSkin, Amway, Global Prosperity, Liberty League International, Travel Dynamics and All Star Entrepreneur. AC is just another venture that Tim has been involved in at the expense of hundreds of good, trusting people. I intend to see that no one else is "evangelized" out of their life savings.

Come on, Jack, let's talk openly and honestly as you promised!

Mike Bromell, wow you return and reading your posts on the other threads, it appears you have a full time job spewing hatred. At least you are an equal opportunity hater. Anyone is welcome to click on Self Employed and see the sick and disgusting posts that are shared. It speaks volumes, Mike. A person can compare posts and there is no winning the argument with folks who believe any network marketing company is a scam, like Mike Bromell and Heather Dobrott.

I choose truth and helping people. Do people fail and quit in any business, you bet and my heart goes out to them. Many including Heather's friend never even attended a conference, the main product for the company. Heather's constant bashing and contacting conference speakers before and after events, has caused hundreds great harm and she has a responsibility for these actions. Vengeance is His.

As for the sites, I no longer use the oneoasis.com domain and we have a better training site in place now which you posted 3 or 4 links to the same site, including where jackweinzierl.com was forwarded to.

Heather, I continue to pray for you and will not stoop to your level sharing pictures of yourself or daughter. In terms of the almost humorous attacks about me building other businesses, your attacks on this company and my name have required me to focus on additional businesses and I will continue to build multiple businesses for years to come.

Here are testimonials from customers and business owners who I have trained and mentored. These were received August 7, 2008. Many of these folks have been colleagues for over 3 years, as well as new team members this year.

I have known Jack Weinzierl now for four years. Jack's level of commitment, mentoring, and helping others has never been exceeded by anyone. I am honored to be on his team!

I have never met Jack Weinzierl personally face to face. It truly amazes me how he portrays himself in his emails and on the phone. You can honestly perceive his commitment to help someone is for real. Thank you Jack!

John Beard Kansas

I have a great appreciation in the leadership example that Jack Weinzierl sets. First, as a leader, Jack is willing to serve others. Jack is also willing to share information and to teach others. I personally believe that is another requirement of a good leader. A leader must be willing to promote others and see others grow and become the most that they can be. Thanks Jack for your faithful service.

Jack Weinzierl has been, and continues to be, a daily encouragement to me. When we met Jack at the two Conferences we attended in Dallas, we found him to be very personable, who was ready and willing to share his testimony for Jesus Christ. Each phone call; each email just lifts me up and tells me, "Don't give up, Bob...you can do it". May God richly bless Jack as he continues serving Him in whatever he does.

Jack Weinzierl's assistance has been invaluable since day one. He talked with me personally several times walking me through the set up of my site and has been there to answer all my questions. Being new to the Internet, this has proven to be especially valuable. Jack has the experience and expertise to help me to avoid some of pitfalls in starting a new business and shortening the learning curve. Marketing is the most difficult part to learn and am grateful for Jack's training and mentoring.

A. Collins GA

I have known Jack Weinzierl for at least three years and met him personally in 2006 in Dallas. I have been personally impressed with his Christian testimony and outstanding character. One outstanding characteristic of Jack is that before he directs how to do something, he will go out and do it himself to make sure there are no bugs in it. If there are, he'll work the bugs out to make sure it works before passing it on. I know of Jack working way into the night to complete a project that he has started. There are certainly are not many men of that caliber and I look up to him greatly even though I am his senior by many years.

Darrell Martin North Carolina

Jack Weinzierl has been a unique and consistent influence that we have drawn from for years now. His personal example is extraordinary. Jack's efforts have enabled our vision both on and offline in the areas of posturing, branding, marketing strategy and most importantly the proper mindset in regards to true success. I call him a friend and mentor.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

Jack,

Your clueless marks don't see the "Christian Millionaire Mentor" who doesn't have the good sense to purchase a home that is reasonably affordable. Nor do they see that you insisted on staying in a business that sued the Better Business Bureau and lost for good reason. Your lack of judgment I suspect is going to be the cause of your downfall.

Honest people don't put themselves in situations where there are clearly serious ethical concerns and possibly issues related to legality. Sadly many were hurt by your misrepresentations and ever evolving schemes and many are paying a steep price.

I can also tell you that many state and federal agencies are looking at various issues surrounding Advantage Conferences. The reps with true integrity and concern for others left as the writing was clearly on the wall. Some of those very honorable reps came to me and ask that I alert folks about what was going on and provided me contact information as I had the facts. Those court papers and other documents are public record and should be offered to anyone who could benefit from reviewing those facts. Many of your former reps followed up with folks that had been involved or could get involved and hurt by their association with AC. You and Timmy cannot deny anyone their right to free speech. The vicious lies and sickening threats you boys made will come back to haunt you. God is watching!

If you can't see that there are quite a few caring concerned ex reps who want to see no one else is hurt than you are quite clueless. AC was filled with such wonderful folks who are now long gone. Are you going to fill our readers in on the real reason you are lashing out at me?

Re:

Heather Dobrott, the real reason? Are you serious? There will always be folks that blame a company and it's leaders. Some had no business being in a business of any kind. Advantage Conferences used a written interview process to do 100% more than many companies to try to ensure a good fit. The real reason that I have posted under my own name is because you have destroyed hundreds of people who were trying to represent a Christ-centered conference and mentoring company. I have lost almost everything I own because I would not give into your heavy handed tactics and bashing. I believe 100% in the mentoring that Advantage Conferences has provided. Again, I will not stoop to your level. You may have cost people greatly, but it will be paid back 2-7 fold.

You immediately discount the folks recent testimonials I shared, rather to believe your anti-network marketing agenda, regardless of the truth.

Judge~ Mary Murphy

That is the result of Timmy's brilliant business methods. Is the judge's order confusing to you?

You have hundreds that lost money due to your schemes. Hidden Treasures, for one of many examples I could choose from, was a product that legitimate insurance companies do not want to touch. Are you going to tell me that I am responsible for you and Timmy lying about $100,000.00 to over $300,000.00 possibly illegal incentive payments having been made when not a dime was paid? Are you suggesting I was responsible for the fact that no policies were written and no commissions paid. We could spend all night going through one failed subscheme after another that hurt your reps.

There are also a number of state and federal agencies looking into various aspects of this so called venture. Good luck with that. Why don't you tell us how these reps that wrote the glowing testimonials are faring in the ventures you have dragged them into? If you have lost almost everything you own and you are on the top of the many heaps / pyramids you are in then heaven help your downline. My prayers are with the good, trusting Christians that you and Tim brought into this disaster of a business model known as Advantage Conferences. God is seeing the truth prevail as Timmy promised.

Advantage Conferences used a written interview process to do 100% more than many companies to try to ensure a good fit. The real reason that I have posted under my own name is because you have destroyed hundreds of people who were trying to represent a Christ-centered conference and mentoring company. I have lost almost everything I own because I would not give into your heavy handed tactics and bashing. I believe 100% in the mentoring that Advantage Conferences has provided. Again, I will not stoop to your level. You may have cost people greatly, but it will be paid back 2-7 fold.*

You immediately discount the folks recent testimonials I shared, rather to believe your anti-network marketing agenda, regardless of the truth.

Jack,

You are also in a number of other ventures. Are you saying that you couldn't make any money in Traffic Oasis, Vemma, IBuzzPro, Profit Authority, MyInternet Business, Target Market Profits and World Ventures etc?. You are such an internet marketing guru and 6 time attendee of the famous Mindset Mentoring or Millionaire Mindset Conference and yet you have proven to be a total business failure as evidenced by the fact you have lost almost everything. The Better Business Bureau suggested that Advantage Conferences was a pyramid scheme that only had the conferences in order to perpetuate that pyramid scheme. You have just proven that. You had all that mentoring and couldn't make a go of any other business and now as that AC pyramid collapses you are going down the tubes.

Quit playing the blame game as Timmy has been teaching and take responsibility for the disasters you have set in motion. Your financial problems are entirely due to your involment with Tim and that spend like your successful lifestyle you adopted. I have no sympathy for anyone who recklessly spends money as evidenced in your videos that you put after bragging on here you don't show the cars and homes. You have flaunted your opulent lifestyle gained at the expense of your downline and now you might discover for yourself how painful the devastation in your wake really has been. Think of all those who have gone hungry, lost homes, sold homes, sold possessions, taken out loans, drown in credit card debt, declared bankruptcy, worked extra jobs and paid a dear price for their involment with you, Jack.

Mike Brommell is "Self Employed"! (Probably not employed at all. He is a "Loser" with a Capital "L" ....Mike "the Loser" Brommell! After 3 strikes....he thinks he's still at bat! Get outta here!

You posts are as stupid as you!

Scumbagmomma Heather has nothing better to do with her time! She should start a career as a "fault finder". I wonder what church she goes to? First Church of the Pessimist! Somewhere between an Atheist and an Ignoramus and a Negatoid!(Negatoid is a hemorrhoid with a bad reaction...if you would quit picking it....it may go away! Hopefully you will!!!) At the First Church of the Pessimist they probably sit there and pass gas and think that they have some kind of inspiration! It's called PU!

"I wish" ...could it be you "Den. Las." of days gone by? My My My!

Would guess from your "deep insight" you are most likely a Republican

What a brilliant refutation of the fine points raised on this thread. LOL! As with all the others who have come and gone, you are apparently completely bereft of facts. Please comeback when you have something worthwhile to contribute, junior. You are making your hero look so darn silly! Are you representative of what is left in Jack's downline?

Funny, Timmy or whatever nut your are, but you have been saying that for years. You can't follow through on your threat because unlike you and Jack Weinzierl I have always been completely honest and conducted my affairs with integrity. Since you keep company with Jack and Tim we can see what caliber you are. They have tons of internet attention because of their own actions. The public must be protected.

Jack, your financial demise is entirely your own doing. You chose to get involved with Timmy and chose to stay when scheme after scheme blew up in your faces. You knew full well that Advantage Conferences had been adjudicated to be conducting a pyramid scheme as the Summary Judgment Motion and the Judge granting it in all respects made that clear. You happily watched as hundreds of the 700 or so reps lost their money. 98% lost. Of that 98% you said over half were MMC-IVs. Those folks lost thousands or tens of thousands of dollars.

You and your greed led you to a 1.2 million dollar mansion and the Hummer, Mercedes and BMW etc. You chose to buy extremely costly clothes and extravagant furnishings. You set yourself up for financial disaster. How can you be helping the widows and orphans as you insist you are if you can't pay your own bills? You are a fake and total fraud. With your reckless spending and flaunting of your possessions you should never mentor anyone again. Your hero Timmy teaches folks not to play the blame game, but that is the only game you know.

Our family handles our money responsibly. I would be horrified to think I might leave a debt I incurred unpaid. I guess you need a sensible home and cars and a good dose of humility. Get a real job and quite fleecing the public and attacking me when your schemes implode. I deal in facts and I have an obligation to see the public is not harmed. My fellow citizens should not have to fund your folly, Tim Darnell and Jack Weinzierl.
