Jack you said at your bankruptcy hearing on September 15, 2008 that you closed Vemma a month ago as it was not profitable. You also said just a few months ago in June, on video no less, "I will also tell you for the last 2 1/2 years, a we been building one and our income is less than $1000.00 per month and that is not bad. That pays for my utilities'' when referring to Vemma. Your utility bills in a 1.2 million dollar mansion must be quite high. You do list $920.00 for utilities on your bankruptcy filing. Which is it scammer? And, why, if you are out of Vemma, do you still have that silly orange page up? It looks to me like you can't keep your stories straight.

Zillow.com is the site Jack mentioned. He paid 1.23 million ( yes, I wrote $1,230,000.00 ) for his tract chateau and now Zillow puts the value at $697,500.00. Loans to folks like scammer Jack are why banks are failing. Our economic problems stem very much from the bad loans that are collapsing the banking industry.

This Jack character has no business mentoring anyone. His nouveau riche lifestyle is a recipe for disaster. His thinking led to complete financial folly. He has $220,000.00 in credit card debt he wants us to forgive. He and Tim have serious zero disease. When discussing possible earnings with candidates they tell folks to add a zero to their current monthly income and expect to make that. Jack publishes humongous earning claims, but, when he files for bankruptcy we have the incredile disappearing zeroes.

Heather, contacting folks from TheMarketLeaders is very foolish. They simply have forwarded me your emails and you are making a complete fool of yourself. I sure would not want to reap your harvest. I pray for you daily.

Jack

Heather, only you. You demand and post repeatedly that I take responsibility for my debt. I decide to do so and now you spin that. Unbelievable. May God have mercy on you and heal your hate-filled heart. I have documented every post and the attacks for the trustee and they can decide if they want to pursue the damage that you have done.

Would someone explain the right of free speech to Jack? You, Jack, think it is okay to e-mail everyone on the planet and solicit your bum business opportunities. People who lost thousands in AC called and e-mailed me very hurt and saddened by the fact you contacted them not as a friend, but to solicit them for more of your bum business deals. That shows your true colors, Jack.

We are in America and I can e-mail whoever I choose. You and Tim Darnell are not in charge of anyone else. If you can e-mail solicitations, then I can e-mail facts, documents and whatever I choose.

Now as to your bankruptcy. You do understand that there were complaints. I always cooperate fully with the authorities and never disclose any info about any investigations. Why would you think someone who has contacted and been contacted by the authorities would have action taken against them by the trustee?

Explain this damage you refer to. You better read quatloos.com. The current filings in your case are already up and I will have them up here shortly so we can discuss them. I think you should explain why you filed and then refused to turn over the requested documents. You apparently decided you wanted your bankruptcy dismissed when you had to substantiate your claims with facts. I see they wanted bank records and I would imagine tax returns and the like. What happened to that "oasis of integrity" You sure seem to have much to hide.

CASE NO. 08-42155
(Chapter 7)

APPLICATION TO EMPLOY SPECIAL COUNSEL

NOTICE

NO HEARING WILL BE CONDUCTED ON THIS APPLICATION UNLESS A WRITTEN OBJECTION IS FILED WITH THE CLERK OF THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT AND SERVED UPON THE PARTY FILING THIS PLEADING WITHIN TEN (10) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF SERVICE HEREOF UNLESS THE COURT SHORTENS OR EXTENDS THE TIME FOR FILING SUCH OBJECTION. IF NO RESPONSE IS TIMELY SERVED AND FILED, THIS PLEADING SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE UNOPPOSED AND THE COURT MAY ENTER AN ORDER GRANTING THE RELIEF SOUGHT. IF AN OBJECTION IS FILED AND SERVED IN A TIMELY MANNER, THE COURT WILL THEREAFTER SET A HEARING UNLESS IT DETERMINES THAT AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING IS NOT REQUIRED AND THAT THE COURT'S DECISION WOULD NOT BE SIGNIFICANTLY AIDED BY ORAL ARGUMENT. IF YOU FAIL TO APPEAR AT ANY SCHEDULED HEARING, YOUR OBJECTION MAY BE STRICKEN. THE COURT RESERVES THE RIGHT TO SET A HEARING ON ANY MATTER.

TO THE HONORABLE BRENDA T. RHOADES, U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Christopher J. Moser, Chapter 7 Trustee in the above styled and numbered case, and pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §328(a) makes this Application to Employ Special Counsel and would show the Court as follows:

1. On August 11, 2008, Jack Weinzierl ("Debtor"), filed with this Court a voluntary petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.
2. Christopher J. Moser was thereafter appointed interim trustee of the estate, subsequently qualified and is now the acting Chapter 7 Trustee.

3. There are one or more transactions by the Debtor which have the appearance of being preferential transfers or fraudulent transfers.

4. The Trustee anticipates vigorously contested litigation. Thus, it has become necessary to retain special counsel to represent the estate in this matter.

5. Richard L. Bufkin, Texas Bar No. 03316950, whose address and telephone number are 3811 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Suite 1600, Dallas, Texas 75219-4558, (972) 808-9791, is a CPA and MBA as well as an attorney holding J.D. and L.L.M. law degrees. He is experienced in accounting and financially-oriented litigation.

6. Mr. Bufkin has agreed to represent the Trustee on a contingency basis as follows:

- Mr. Bufkin will advance all costs and expenses associated with the prosecution of any claims arising out of and identified by his review and analysis of the records and his conduct of other informal discovery (the "Claims").
- From any recovery, Bufkin would first be reimbursed all out-of-pocket expenses.
- To the extent the Claims are resolved prior to the filing of any joint pre-trial order in any adversary or other proceeding arising out of this engagement, Mr. Bufkin would receive 40% of recovery after expense reimbursement.
- To the extent the Claims are resolved after the filing of any joint pre-trial order in any adversary or other proceeding arising out of this engagement, Mr. Bufkin would receive 45% of recovery after expense reimbursement.

7. For the foregoing and all other necessary and proper purposes, the Trustee desires to retain Richard L. Bufkin as special counsel.

8. The Trustee believes that Richard L. Bufkin does not hold or represent any interest adverse to that of the applicant or the debtors' estate, and that said attorney is a disinterested person within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §101(13). Attached hereto as Exhibit A is Rule 2014 Statement of Connections signed by Richard L. Bufkin.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee prays that he be authorized pursuant to §328(a) to employ Richard L. Bufkin as special counsel under the terms and conditions set forth above and for such other and further relief to which the Trustee may be justly entitled.

Chapter 7

Debtor

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE'S LIMITED OBJECTION TO DEBTOR'S MOTION TO DISMISS

TO THE HONORABLE BRENDA T. RHOADES, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY
JUDGE:

The United States Trustee hereby objects to Debtor Jack Weinzierl's Motion to Dismiss
(the "Motion") and respectfully states:

Procedural History

1. This case was commenced by the filing of a voluntary petition under Chapter 7 of Title 11 on August 11, 2008.
2. The meeting of creditors was held on September 15, 2008.
3. On September 17, 2008, the United States Trustee sent Debtor an extensive request for documents concerning Debtor's income and assets. The United States Trustee indicated that Debtor should respond by October 3. No response has yet been made.

4. On September 24, 2008, the Chapter 7 Trustee made a request upon Debtor concerning certain bank deposits.
5. On September 30, 2008 the Debtor filed his Motion to Dismiss.

Background

6. Debtor filed this Chapter 7 case scheduling the following:
  - Schedule I shows $0 in monthly income;
  - Schedule J shows $14,190 in monthly living expenses (including mortgage related payments in excess of $8,000/mo);
  - Schedule A shows a homestead valued at $980,000;
  - Schedule D shows 2 liens against the homestead, totaling approximately $1,163,749;
  - Schedule F shows over $220,000 in unsecured debt, along with a lawsuit (which was apparently pending-and stayed at the time the bankruptcy was filed);
  - The Statement of Financial Affairs states that Debtor has had no positive income in 2008, but that Debtor has withdrawn some $53,300 from his SEP;
  - The Statement of Intentions states that Debtor intends to reaffirm the debt against his homestead (over $1,000,000);
7. At the meeting of creditors, Debtor could provide no clear testimony to indicate how he intended to continue to pay for his home. Nevertheless, Debtor testified that the payments on the first mortgage were current, and that he was only 1 payment behind on the second mortgage.
8. Based upon (1) information obtained by the United States Trustee, (2) Debtor's testimony at the meeting of creditors and (3) Debtors' schedules, Debtor's financial situation seemed extremely odd. How could Debtor pay for a Million Dollar home without any income? How did Debtor pay his living expenses during the first 7 months of 2008 (i.e., $14,000 per month) by using only his SEP account totaling $53,300? More information was needed to determine Debtor's financial picture.

9. Given the factors listed above, the United States Trustee made an extensive request upon Debtor to provide information concerning Debtor's assets, income and expenses.
10. The Chapter 7 Trustee has also inquired of Debtor concerning certain bank deposits.
11. The requests by the United States Trustee and the Chapter 7 Trustee were obviously directed at determining matters related to §707(b), §727 and §541 (as to administration of the Estate).
12. Debtor has failed to make any reasonable response to the requests of the United States Trustee and/or the Chapter 7 Trustee. To the contrary, Debtor seeks to dismiss his case-without prejudice, and without stating any "cause". 11 U.S.C. §707(a). Debtor simply states that he has "new business ventures" which he "feels" that he can pay his creditors with. This appears to be inconsistent with Debtor's testimony and schedules.
13. Debtor was being sued when he filed the Petition. That suit was arguably stayed by this Chapter 7 proceeding. Debtor has enjoyed the benefits of bankruptcy, without providing parties in interest with a reasonable explanation of his financial situation. To allow Debtor to simply dismiss his case is prejudicial to creditors and parties in interest. Instead, dismissal under these circumstances should be to the prejudice of Debtor.

14. The United States Trustee objects to dismissal without prejudice. Under the circumstances, Debtor's case should only be dismissed with prejudice. Debtor should be barred from filing a bankruptcy case under any Chapter- in any jurisdiction- for a period of 2 years. This way, creditors should have ample opportunity to attempt collection against Debtor and his assets.
15. Alternatively, dismissal should be denied and the case should proceed.

WHEREFORE, the United States Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order denying the Motion to Dismiss and granting further proper relief. Alternatively, the United States Trustee requests that the Court enter an Order of Dismissal with prejudice, and barring Debtor from filing another bankruptcy case for a period of 2 years from the date of entry of the Order of Dismissal.

Quote:

I want to encourage you this morning. I don't ignore the circumstances with the economy and everything else around us, but I walk by faith and not by sight. I know there are folks that are reading this message today that are going through some struggles. Be encouraged.

Some of you know the challenges and attacks that we have been under for the past two years and we appreciate your prayers. With that said, I am truly excited about our future. We need to think ourselves happy. It is a choice, regardless of what is going on around us.

If you are a man or woman of faith, we need to set ourselves apart from the fear and world system of worry and doubt.

If we are to truly walk by faith, we need to:

- 1) First, we need to believe
- 2) Second, we need to take action, and
- 3) We need to have confidence in our faith and the actions that we are taking that we will have the results that we are seeking.

A quick example is a glass of water. Picture a glass full on your table. You can believe all you want that the water in that glass is needed for your survival....

...but that doesn't do you any good until you take the action to drink it.

Of course in this example, you will have the confidence that it is life giving clean water.

If you find yourself getting caught up in the stock market news, election news, and other circumstances that life throws at us, meditate on His living Word. Take comfort that He is our provider. When challenges come, you can get better or you can get bitter. I choose to get better.

I have been thinking about my responsibility to you as we build this business. I came to the conclusion that I cannot believe for you, I am not able to take action for you, and I surely cannot have the confidence for you. The good news is, you can do all three. It is a decision we make every single day.

So, it may not be what you want to hear, but it is as real as I can be. My responsibility is to share training and tools that you can use to take action to achieve what you have set out to achieve.

Again, we need every team member to take ownership for their learning and business. Get equipped and explode your business this Fall beginning next week. OK, I am a bit excited.

Again, success is a choice. Why am I writing this to you at 1:30 am when my cushy bed is calling...it is so every team member gets equipped to succeed. I am interested in your success. I know that you are on my team so there is a vested interest there, but I also know that families are hurting and they need to get equipped.

I could go on and on. You have the keys in the ignition, it is time to drive forward. I am excited and I am excited for you. I literally was up until 4 am yesterday going through all this training and it is some of the best I have seen at 1/10 the cost. I wish you could it across from me in my home office right now as you would see a library that is well in excess of $10,000. I don't share that to boast, but it is critical that we invest in ourselves....especially now.

I cannot make this investment in "you" for you. We all need to watch our spending right now, but never stop investing in you. The return is for too great.

In Service,

Jack Weinzierl
Social Traffic Explosion

If I challenge you in the future to get out of your comfort zone and learn new things, know that I am doing so out of love and respect for you. I only want the very best for those around me. Plain and simple.

Jack,

You want folks to invest in your training so you can pocket some more money. If you truly cared for people you wouldn't be dragging them into one bum deal after another. All these ventures you are in are sure money losers for the vast majority of participants. You have legions of angry, broke and disillusioned reps in your wake. You have been in gobs of MLMs for years now. Nothing has been long term. You have lost boatloads of money or made little in most you have been in.

Advantage Conferences made you money in the beginning before Tim Darnell sued the Better Business Bureau. Reps in AC started dropping like flies after they spent 20 - 30 grand and realized they couldn't afford to spend enough to compete with your advertising budget of 6 grand or more a month. When they ran themselves down to nothing or worse yet accumulated staggering debt they had to quit and most could not bear the thought of getting someone else into the financial disaster they were in. Reps also came to the horrifying realization that there were no retail sales and the little subschemes AC cooked up were bombing left and right. You are now floundering in chapter 7 bankruptcy and seem desperate to dismiss it as the trustee seeks to appoint special counsel and investigate possible fraudulent transfers.

"Some of you know the challenges and attacks that we have been under for the past two years and we appreciate your prayers," you said. Jack, sharing the truth, court documents, mainstream media reports, endlessly quoting AC and expressing opinions is not an attack. It is the truth made available for the public. Haven't you yet got a grasp of the right to free speech. As I have said a million times before, if there is any inaccuracy, misstatement, something out of context or exaggeration quote it exactly and provide the facts to refute it. You are totally bereft of facts. You simply delight in whining about how mistreated you are.

Remember that Application to Employ Special Counsel that said in part:

Quote:

3. There are one or more transactions by the Debtor which have the appearance of being preferential transfers or fraudulent transfers.

4. The Trustee anticipates vigorously contested litigation. Thus, it has become necessary to retain special counsel to represent the estate in this matter.

By order filed October 7, Judge Rhoades approved the application of the Chapter 7 trustee to hire special counsel.

I've called him twice and left messages. He has yet to return my calls. One was left on 10-5 and the other one on 10-08. I called in reference to World Ventures. I have some pointed questions to ask him about travel since he seems to know so much about the business (yeah, sure he does). I guess he's not that interested in promoting THAT business venture.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

First off, No Moron Here....why would you lie about leaving me two messages on my line? There are no voicemails in my inbox as of this evening.

Heather Dobrott, aka soapboxmom, I do feel for you and your family. I truly do.

What kind of person has this kind of hatred in their heart?

We do pray for you most every day. One cannot have such a critical spirit and have it not affect all areas of your life.

Here is a person who attacks a company and many of its reps for two years, not ever having experience with our products, 6 conferences or mentoring. Then, when she contributes to the damages by tearing people and a company down, she attacks those who are not prospering with that same company.

It is like a trader who is short on a stock attacking and bashing it for two years, then turning to all many of those that lost their money stating, come here, I support you...I am your friend and champion. In fact, let's get a group of you together to sue that same company. It is appalling and so very sad.

Does anyone think we would have subjected ourselves to all this if we did not believe in the products and training represented? Folks, you have seen our finances courtesy of Heather Dobrott. There are a lot easier ways to make a living for a person with an MBA. I believe 100% in the products and training represented.

After we felt it necessary to file for bankruptcy, soapboxmom continued her attacks calling for me to take responsibility for our debts. In fact, challenging me to not go through with the bankruptcy. The day after our initial hearing, I had a peace about dismissing our bankruptcy and began the process. I knew that it would take the next two months of my life and I needed to focus on business, not bankruptcy. I agreed with soapboxmom...wow, but no, then she began her attacks that it must mean there is something to hide.

The attorneys now understand the difference between when I submitted initial paperwork and when the hearing was and additional support documents were provided. I wish I had some assets to hide (although I wouldn't), but I will share one thing, through this process, soapboxmom has partly inspired me for the new business and service offering that we are focused on. Of course, she has already attacked that new business as a scam. She has shown where her heart is that is for sure.

In fact, Heather also knows that the only reason that I was named to that lawsuit from Zena, is that she believed that I had deep pockets. She knows that I am an independent representative like hundreds of others at the time and that I did not talk with Zena before she joined someone else in the company. She also knows that I sent Zena money to help her when she was struggling, but that the refund policy for the company was very clear...a person needed to attend a conference. I would love to help Zena further, but these accusations, attacks and suit have made it impossible to do so. Soapboxmom is only interested in her agenda, regardless of who it hurts.

We are simply trying to honor our obligations and paying our creditors over this next year. We want to be part of the solution, not the problem in this economy. You can spin it and create controversy daily as that is where you get your sense of purpose.

With all going on in the world today, you truly need to have a reality check.

By the way Heather, every time you post a comment to my videos and various sites, I am notified, it is reported, 80% are deleted and it also gives me extra weight with the search engines, even after the deletion, as it counts as activity. And yes, of course, I will continue to delete and report bashing and spamming comments on my video pages and sites.

If there are other believers on this thread, I simply encourage you to ask the Holy Spirit to guide you on these matters. If I have offended anyone on this on this thread in any response on this thread, you have my apology.

Re: Watch Out for 7KAdvantage/Jack Weinzierl is an

So, Jack, whether or not Heather has a bad attitude, whether or not you pray for her and her family, regardless of your very sweet and tender words, the question remains.....

Are the things she accuses you of true? Did you draw people into various pyramid schemes by misrepresentations and false promises? Did you tell people they could make lots of money, while all the time knowing that only defrauding and cheating others would profit them? Did you blame your victims, by telling them they simply didn't work hard enough, and it wasn't your fault they couldn't get their money back? Did you transfer money to various others to hide it from the law?

If your money-making systems are so successful and foolproof, why did you file for bankruptcy?

Regardless of "belief", or "hateful attitudes", or any of the other stuff you are talking about, what's the truth about YOU? and your business activities in Advantage Conferences, 7K Advantage and other such schemes?

Julie, if you are really interested in truth, I surely would not invest time on these boards. I have my MBA and have never made promises for any company I represented. Many on this board believe that any network marketing company is a scam or pyramid, and although there are plenty illegal gifting schemes, etc, I would never be involved with something illegal, period. In fact, we had an interview process to ensure there was a good fit and not someone looking for get rich quick. You can read notes from people I have worked with directly on my sites. I am not here to debate anyone as it is a no win situation on a board like this.

Jack, truth is truth regardless of what board it's on. Heather has posted a lot of opinion and editorial comment, but also a lot of legal documents, quotes, and so on from others who are not involved here at all. Do you deny her accusations of fraud and deceit? Not in your response. You simply hedge. I'm not sure your board is any more objective than this one. What other objective site could you give for a reference to your honesty and straight-forwardness?

There weren't huh? How about the name Tom (that's me) and an 858 area code? I'd love to hear what you have to say about WV compared to what you say on YouTube. But now I've spoiled all the fun. I don't appreciate being called a liar, especially from a scamming weasel that bases everything on religion to suck in the gullible and stupid. And a bankrupt weasel at that. Some mentor you would be, both Christianwise and financially.

As for the rest of your comments to Soapboxmom, I realize they weren't addressed to me, but all I can say is "BULLSHIT!" I think Soapboxmom has documented everything very well.

There is a hearing on October 21, 2008. I assume that will be concerning your contention that the trustee should not be allowed to employ the special counsel that the judge already approved? Do you think you will get a dismissal and that the allegations that follow will be disproven and not pursued?

"people want to blame others for their lack of success"

-Jack, you aren't even close to success yourself. Cheating others and hurting their finances is way beyond success, it's called being a low-life scum.

And know, I'm not blaming you, I'm already successful. Fact is, I don't f8cking need you and never will.

Even if I did need you, all you would do is scam me and place in a more worse scenario.

Anyone else that is scammed.

You can make money online without spending money. Join either clickbank or some affiliate network for FREE, not some 7K MLM shady scheme.

Then create a blog, write articles, get backlinks.

Find a niche, promote a product, do keyword research and get traffic free via Search engines.

Then you get commissions on sales. That's how you do business. No scams, no this that. No fucking douche trying to take your money.

By the way, I googled in 7K Advantage and I gotta say Jack, your wife is one SLUTTY looking woman. hahhahaha

How in here wants to bang that? hahahaha

Check that document carefully, Jack. Didn't you say under oath your wife, Stephanie, did not work the business and had no income at the creditor's meeting for your chapter 7 bankruptcy? Why did she sign up as an MMC-IV, the highest level rep (9,995.00 price tag ) and collect large matrix checks if she wasn't in the business and had no income? Looks like she got $400.00 matrix commissions as a rep on that single general ledger sheet alone.

Soapboxmom, yes the authorities do have everything. My motion to dismiss our bankruptcy was granted on 10-16. To quote "After consideration of applicable papers, argument and law, and the Parties agreement to the relief as evidenced by the signatures below, the Court concludes that the Motion should be GRANTED as follows:"

I agreed that we would not be able to file for a period of 1 year and have no intention of doing so thereafter.

Of course, you will find a way to spin this truth as well. I will focus my energies on producing something positive. We plan to be part the solution in this economy.
