- # Scam Revealed

07-23-2007 03:38 PM

Hey everyone,

Back in November 2006, a person by the name of Greg Compton had smoothly convinced me to give him $2000 to join Cash Arrives 365. Very dumb mistake on my part. I should have known better and paid more attention to my intuition but he kept telling me how well he was doing and how Cash Arrives provided him fast cash. In fact, his website is called Fast Cash to Wealth.

Well, I went ahead and wired him the $2000. Come to find out, he NEVER actually enrolled me in the company. There is no record of me in the database at all and when I spoke with a representative of Cash Arrives they confirmed the same thing.....no record of me whatsoever.

So, Greg Compton took my money and never even enrolled me within the company.

I tried to get my money back from him once I found out this information since he took my money fraudulently and misrepresented himself.

Greg has not refunded me the full amount of my money. I have emailed him and emailed him and he says things like he "intends to" pay me the money, he "will resolve this issue," etc. but he has yet to pay me the full amount and I have been dealing with this since November 2006.

Anyone have any suggestons? Greg is quick to process the payment but he did not follow the sign up policy of the company and I was never enrolled to begin with.

He is a huge scam artist and is extremely misleading.

Re: Advantage Conferences BS (Merged)

Scamrevealed,

Is Greg Compton involved with Advantage Conferences?

In Advantage Conferences you are basically gifting money to Tim Darnell and Jack!

Really, the mindset here is really sad. If I posted that 20% of all reps were making $100,000 a year already, Renloyx would focus on the 80%.*

The humorous part of these posts and posers (I mean posters) is they do not care about facts.

#1 We have several people already who have made over $100,000 with Advantage Conferences. That should be applauded in a young company with very few representatives in total. In fact, it blows away almost any opportunity that I am aware of. Some people build AC as a full time business, some people are there to plug into the personal growth with the MMC, weekly calls and mentoring, and some people will quit almost before getting started. It is the nature of any business.*

#2 Since almost ALL of the commissions go to 1 person vs. 15-20 like traditional MLM, those individuals making it happen and earning significant incomes have done so on their own effort. It has little to do with being in early in a program and everything to do with consistent effort* and treating your business as a business and not as a hobby or something you pick up once a month. In fact, if I make an MMC-IV conference sale today, I earn the $7,000.00 commission and my mentor will earn $50.00. It is the most fair compensation plan based on individual effort that I have seen.

Individual accountability and responsibility to build one's own business. An interesting concept for you to get your arms around.

Advantage Conferences 2003-2004 webpages:

Quote:

"In business and in life, the advantage goes to those who proactively and consistently acquire appropriate education."

How would you describe your business - healthy, functionally dynamic, and extraordinary?

The Company

Advantage Conferences?, LLC, (Advantage) chartered in 2003, is a newly formed subsidiary of Portfolio Marketing Group, LLC, (PMG) chartered in September of 1998. Advantage is a Texas based LLC dedicated to delivering exceptional educational conference experiences.

Founder and President, Tim Darnell (48) is a lifetime business owner who has been involved in successful educational conference and speaker / music production since 1987. Mr. Darnell has also authored two important entrepreneurial works as well - the "Reverse Margin?" audio program, and "The Language of Success?", a poignant work on the importance and power of words in business and life.

Mission Statement

Providing the educational advantage for entrepreneurs in business and life.

The single most important product that exists is education. Pertinent and applicable education regarding business methodology and entrepreneurial mindset is the foundation of AC. For those who truly want to advance in their career, their business, and their financial strength, the information and education provided here is a MUST.

Indeed, the addition of a single idea or the absence of that idea can mean all the difference in whether your business successfully generates millions of dollars, loses hundreds of thousands of dollars, is taken over, or goes out of business. ONE IDEA!

And when combining the importance of the information you will obtain, while at the same time, financially helping charities, foundations, and/or organizations through our incredible ?TFA (The Fundraising Advantage?), you are going to feel like you could be involved with no better company or campaign.

"Marketing Make-Over" by Tim Darnell

Whether you are a multinational Corporation, a Church, a Charitable Organization, or a Home-based Business Owner - purposeful, creative, and sustained marketing tactics enable your organization to create the image, attention, attendance, and/or sales of much greater magnitude. Newly created, cutting edge strategies combined with proven techniques will dramatically enhance your organization?s growth!

Power Concept I: Combine the resources of the top experts and authors in the world - highly accomplished, hugely successful individuals who consult Presidents, CEOs, Billion Dollar Companies, and Millionaires. Power Concept II: Bring them together in a (tax deductible) Conference / Vacation in the most attractive destination spot in the world - beautiful Maui, Hawaii.

Purposes

- A. To introduce scriptural truths and lessons to Christian and non-Christian business people in order to strengthen their faith and enhance their business acumen, stability, and profitability.
- B. To discover and implement powerful church growth methodology and technology to reach the "un-churched" majority.
- C. To introduce and incorporate the living Word of God to and into the corporate workplace.
- D. To mobilize $500,000,000.00 through The Fundraising AdvantageSM for Christian churches and charitable organizations to ensure their financial solvency and enhance the effectiveness of their organizations.

ADVANTAGE CONFERENCES has created the "Footsteps of Faith™ Wealth Building Conference" to be the catalyst for a privileged few Conference Attendees who have the desire to grasp this exclusive information and dramatically move forward.

"The Footsteps of Faith™ Wealth Building Conference" is the top event of 2004 for entrepreneurs, independent contractors, and anyone looking to move forward in life. It is the one event you will never forget - a time that will be remembered as the turning point for YOUR incredible success story!

Truly the Vacation Conference
Experience of a Lifetime!!!

Wealth Building Conference" is the most profound event offering that stimulus and training.

Is this event significant? You better believe it. Your ability to cross the bridge from where you are to where you want to be is what we at Advantage Conferences are all about. You must know how to cross the bridge. You must have the knowledge.

Will you be one of the 1,500 privileged Attendees? I trust you will make the positive and beneficial decision to attend!

The Price?

By the way - why do businesses regularly pay hundreds of thousands and even millions of dollars for knowledgeable consultants to input ideas and suggestions?

Because the relatively small investment in consulting and training creates revenues MANY times the amount of their original investment. Put in X amount - get back 10X - 100X - the basic premise of entrepreneurs.

Are we certain of the value of The Footsteps of Faith™ Wealth Building Conference? You bet we are! And therefore we have no reservation in offering a full MONEY BACK GUARANTEE?

IF YOU ATTEND THE CONFERENCE AND FOR ANY REASON FEEL YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED PROFOUND VALUE FOR YOUR EXPENDITURE OF TIME AND MONEY, ADVANTAGE CONFERENCES WILL REFUND YOUR TICKET COST!

By the way, after ten years in the Conference business, we have as yet to have a single request for a refund! You will experience tremendous benefits and enjoy the trip of a lifetime!

A. Conference Attendees are an impressive demographic that includes entrepreneurs, upper echelon achievers, and aggressively independent "movers and shakers",

B. An aggressive marketing campaign targeting hundreds of thousands of candidate Attendees in these categories makes "The Brilliant Business™ Conference" and event a prime sponsorship choice for companies with similar target markets.

The Advantage Conferences' Corporate Sponsorship committee will be pleased to review your Company's marketing strategies and the rationale and merit for your affiliation with "The Brilliant Business™ Conference".

The Surprising Truth about Who Sues ? You Need to Know This Immediately

Once you "get" the Millionaire Mindset Income Producing System?, everything else is too involved, boring, or just not profitable enough!

..if you would like to have a dynamic, automated method that is legitimate, ethical and effective at bringing strong cash flow in on a consistent regular basis, then you will want to understand and implement a simple process known as the Millionaire Mindset Income Producing System tm!

This System is designed to make you serious money ? ethically, legally, professionally and absolutely uniquely!

1. A Legitimate, Extremely Valuable Product that pays a whopping $7,000 Commission on every transaction!
2. A Company that supplies and orchestrates all aspects of the Millionaire Mindset Income Producing System? and is willing to pay you a higher commission on each transaction (Reverse Margin?) than received by the Company?
3. An "A to Z" Marketing Method, called the Millionaire Mindset Income Producing System? that locates thousands of income opportunity seekers for you inexpensively and quickly, and then delivers a concise communication that identifies those of like mind and purpose!
4. Closing Calls and Three Ways for your prospects by the professionals at Advantage Conferences that finalizes each transaction!

Hi.? My name is Tim Darnell and I have an observation.? If I can show you a simple and easy method for creating significant cash flow ($7,000 a month, a week, and eventually every few days and more), could you get excited about that kind of income and what it could do for your life??

I can tell you that this particular concept is the best the market place has ever witnessed!

Now, lets compare the reality of the years 2003-2004 with Tim's lies, misrepresentations and gross exaggerations.

We can see Tim has had lots of those "one idea" problems. Tim's "Marketing Makeover" is obviously totally worthless. He has almost no sales and no growth in his own business. Why would anyone pay for his worthless advice?

Where are these "top experts and authors in the world - highly accomplished, hugely successful individuals who consult Presidents, CEOs, Billion Dollar Companies, and Millionaires?"

Above we see all the sales for those years. The Maui conference never happened. There were no 1500 attendees.

The TFA is not anywhere 500 million. It is the colossal flop in business history. The conference sales never happened, the sickening insurance product bombed and the King's Conferences are just another desperate and sure to fail incarnation of this loser's schemes.

Tim's a liar and con who has had numerous request for refunds and doesn't have the decency or honor to keep his word. Only Tim and 2 reps (Jack and Jim) got the minimum 10X return on their investment in this scam.

"Conference Attendees are an impressive demographic that includes entrepreneurs, upper echelon achievers, and aggressively independent 'movers and shakers,'" according to Tim. I see good trusting Christian folks who are being conned out of their life savings in many cases.

Tim promises "An aggressive marketing campaign targeting hundreds of thousands of candidate Attendees," but we can see from the rep list what a joke that is. The earnings as referenced above also answer that question.

One of the products, featuring Richard Hockert Esq., talks about who is likely to sue. We know the answer. It is Timmy the pathetic loser!

Tim also theorizes "This System is designed to make you serious money ? ethically, legally, professionally and absolutely uniquely!" So, bilking desperate folks out of their life savings, seeing their homes in jeopardy and reps going without food is ethical? Misrepresentation of earnings is legal?

"($7,000 a month, a week, and eventually every few days and more)...Ability to Make Tens of Thousands of Dollars QUICKLY" Only 7 reps broke even or profited. Hundreds more have lost money. Tim is nothing but a well dressed thug. His own words impeach him!

Boys and Girls,

Our little Timmy boy had another of his schemes go straight down the toilet. www.thekingsconference.com Remember the delusional Mike Napoli said God had spoken to him and told him not to market the TFA. The Fundraising Advantage at that time was that sickening insurance product where seniors were exploited for their insurability. That disgusting product quickly disappeared after Timmy had 60 reps get their insurance licenses to market that garbage. Now I see that the King's Conference has mysteriously disappeared from Advantage Conferences replicated webpages. Did Arch Bonemma get wind of the extremely negative publicity AC has been getting and bail to save face? Did God speak to Napoli again and admonish him not to sell the King's Conferences? Poor Napoli advertised on the inside and the back cover of that silly Givers magazine.

Gee, Timmy, what will bomb next?

Key to Miracles!

When King David stepped forward to give his great wealth for the building of the temple, it prompted other leaders to do the same. In a matter of hours, the massive resources necessary to build the magnificent Temple of God had been pooled, and THE PEOPLE REJOICED at the willing response! I Chronicles 29:9

Giving is Contagious! It is exciting. It is the most joyful and fulfilling use of money that exists. Giving thrills both the recipient and the Giver.

Giving is the most apparent characteristic of a genuine Christian – and, here's the little known secret: Giving is the Key to Miracles. A single person's decision to give often triggers a truly profound and amazing chain reaction of one miracle after another.

Givers Magazine highlights the stories of Christians who have learned the secrets of completely trusting God in every aspect of their life. No portion of a person's life reveals a person's true character more so than does their willingness to give. Those who have explored this little explored and often feared territory report back to us the phenomenal blessings and rewards they have discovered!

Their stories and testimonials are illuminating, and serve to edify the body of Christ about this tremendously important subject. And when you find out the miracles that are taking place in other Christian's lives regarding their mindset and practices in Giving, you too will be surprised and amazed. When you hear the results that stepping out in faith and trust with finances can produce, your life will never be the same.

The key that iNspired Givers have discovered is being handed to you now through each issue of Givers Magazine. More importantly, God's Kingdom flourishes, expands, and grows through the willing, joyful, giving heart of iNspired Givers!

ONE STORY CREATES MILLIONS IN REVENUES FOR MINISTRIES AND CHURCHES!

I know that, for me, a single story told to me by a wonderful Christian woman entrepreneur that took no more than four or five sentences – that ONE STORY inspired me to commit in greater dollar amounts to my home church than I ever thought possible. Once I committed, God began providing like never before. That is how He is! He honors genuine commitments – joyful, wholehearted commitments!

If that one story, told as an afterthought, could make that profound a difference for me and others within earshot that day, what would telling many of those stories on a regular basis and letting millions across the world in on these secrets do for the Kingdom of God? The answer is: nothing short of a REVOLUTION of RESOURCEFULNESS within God's Kingdom – a profound new dedication to funding Godly ministries in the Christian community!

I know in my heart of hearts that those stories, and more accurately, the inspiration from those testimonies, is going to stimulate literally billions – yes, BILLIONS of dollars pooled together and directed toward worthy Christ-centered ministries and projects! Other organizations and faiths are adept at raising monies for their, often heretical, causes. The Christian community can do a much better job of Giving – raising money for God’s Kingdom and keeping it within His Kingdom for His purposes. And we will when we are iNspired to do so!

That is the reason for Givers Magazine – to iNspire committed Christian Givers in the way of Giving Excellence as modeled by exemplary followers of Christ. That modeling and INSPIRATION of other little know men and women of great faith has made all the difference in my Giving and I know it will for you and hundreds of thousands of other Christian men and women.

Givers Magazine – the one tool that supernaturally AMPLIFIES RESOURCES for God’s Kingdom!

Together we will be used mightily to fortify Christ’s Kingdom on earth by tangibly increasing the financial support of worthwhile ministries everywhere.

Well, I’m more excited than I’ve ever been before! I ask you to join me in prayer for continued success in delivering this extremely valuable message of Giving out to the masses.

Does anyone know how or where Givers Magazine is being distributed?

How many copies are going out?

What company is in charge of distributing it?

You would think that would be a huge factor to decide if you wanted to advertising with them. I did not find anything on their website regarding this...

Re: Advantage Conferences BS (Merged)

Givers Magazine is back online. I guess we have more work to do to stop that ridiculous publication from poisoning the minds of unsuspecting readers. I will make sure to poke more fun at that silly AC plug.

Jack bragged that they had 250 subscribers in India, but I will bet the majority of the subscribers are the reps themselves who are also the major advertisers in this silly fluff. Mike Napoli advertised the King's Conference that was supposedly previewed at the scamference. We know that there were two of those silly rallies booked by Albert Surovik earlier this year and now they are apparently history. I am sure Arch Bonnema decided he didn't want the negative publicity of being associated with these scammers.

I have searched all over the Dallas area and I can't find Givers anywhere. I bet there is no real circulation of that silly rag. I thought it had already flopped as the site was down for quite a while, but I have no doubt the magazine will be gone shortly as all the other "one ideas" of Tim's have been those business landmines he keeps warning us about.

Rhino Nation Publishing 1513 Home Park Dr. Allen, TX 75002, which is Timmy himself, is the publisher and distributor. Timmy, the buffoon is the editor in chief. With Tim's brilliant marketing, as we saw from the 13 recruits he got in his first eighteen months with Advantage Conferences, we can guess how little circulation Givers has.

ABOUT ALL-STAR ENTREPRENEUR, LLC

All-Star Entrepreneur, LLC (All-Star), is an Arizona based company formed in 2001, and born of the passion of the Founders to educate and assist entrepreneurs in their quest for personal independence through business ownership. All-Star is in the entrepreneurial education, conference vacation, and personal empowerment industries. The Founders combine over forty years of professional experience in business ownership, marketing, team leadership, training, and sales.

Entrepreneurial education is delivered to Associates and Customers via the very powerful Entrepreneurial Excellence Collection, The Millionaire Mindset Conference, The Personal Empowerment Conference, The Pinnacle Success Conference, and The Founder's Conference.

VISION

When you have the burning desire to become independent through personal business ownership, you will benefit greatly from the best in empowering information and knowledge from recognized experts. This information is designed to help you traverse the chasm from the corporate world to self-reliance as smoothly as possible, while realizing profits as quickly as possible. We want you to win. We want to see you enter the elite 3% club of Americans who are earning an impressive six-figure income from their own enterprise. Our company is dedicated to providing you the tools and training for complete entrepreneurial development, not available elsewhere.

MISSION STATEMENT

"To enhance Entrepreneurial Knowledge and Skills Leading To Increased Profits, Greater Independence, and Improved Lifestyles for Associates and Customers Throughout the Nation."

CHARITABLE ENDEAVORS

The founders of All-Star are passionate about returning a portion of company profits to charitable organizations that some of the Founders have been involved with for many years. One of those is the God's Child Project in Antigua, Guatemala. The other involves several mental illness organizations that are helping those who fall into categories not covered by health insurance or traditional health care organizations.

FOUNDERS' PROFILE

Eli Dafesh: (48) A distinguished seven digit income producer and national sales leader, Mr. Dafesh, and his wife, Jillina, are highly respected legends in the direct sales industry, with 12 years of direct sales experience, and 22 years as business owners. Their energy, warmth, love of people, and impeccable integrity are the ingredients that make this couple natural leaders and business mentors. Eli's interactive training on prospecting and his ability to beckon leadership skills from aspiring entrepreneurs is a powerful component in his personal business success, as well as a core philosophy of the entire company.

Tim Darnell: (47) A nationally known master trainer in sales and marketing, Mr. Darnell has taught thousands of Associates' skills in entrepreneurial mindset, language, and productivity. A business owner all of his adult life, Mr. Darnell has also been a consultant and top money earner for several direct sales companies, and possesses a vast array of marketing expertise, including compensation plan analysis. His tape, "The Amazing Reverse Margin ? - Business Model and Income Opportunity," is the definitive introduction and description of the breakthrough compensation phenomenon known in the direct sales industry as the "Reverse Margin." Mr. Darnell brings unblemished integrity, character, and work ethic to the company, as well as an entertaining, "from the heart" presentation style.

Claudia Cawley: (46) A top, multiple six-digit sales producer for several companies, Ms. Cawley originally comes from the accounting field, and is expert at helping entrepreneurs establish a personal business plan custom-designed to take them to their desired success goals. The consummate professional, Ms. Cawley brings an analytical, yet personable and constantly upbeat personality to this enterprise that is unique and dynamic. With ten years of personal business ownership experience, Ms. Cawley's expertise lies in teaching marketing plan development and personal organization skills, subjects that have helped thousands elevate their business effectiveness.

Elizabeth Knudson: (30) Also a multiple six-digit income business owner, Ms. Knudson brings a passion and vibrant enthusiasm for teaching marketing strategies, professional prospecting, and the "How To's" of the All-Star System. Many of the training modules that are in place on the live and pre-recorded calls are her brainchild. Ms. Knudson's background is the Mortgage Banking industry where she owned her own Mortgage Company.

The question is why the head guy Eli Dafesh left. Did he discover how dishonest and totally inept Timmy boy is? Did he see that Tim was going to run that venture into the ground at record speed? Once Eli was out of the picture we have Tim and the 2 ladies all as 1/3 owners of this Titanic. That may be why they incorporated again in Texas.

Timmy did trademark that silly "reverse margin". It was the only thing trademarked when he started Advantage Conferences and claimed numerous things were so protected.

MARKETING TOOLS & TRAINING SYSTEM

The All-Star team building strategy will allow you to leverage your time and effort with a simple, duplicable system. All the tools are in place for you to make sales and succeed simply by allowing our professional marketing team to do the telling and the selling for you.

Lead Generation: Leads may be generated through classified ads, magazine display ads, flyers, and Internet ad response. The latter are individuals who have responded to ads on the Internet, and stated their desire to be involved in a home-based business. These prospects have filled out a survey of questions stating their contact information, including email address, their weekly time availability they plan to devote to the enterprise, their monthly income goals, and even the best time to call them. They are expecting a call from someone just like you.

Qualification Interview: The next step is to conduct a simple scripted interview to determine if they are an entrepreneur who is seriously looking, and to see if there is a fit with their desires and the All-Star opportunity.

Information System: From here, you will lead the prospect through a simple information gathering process, where All-Star professionals do the presenting. This is designed to provide the prospect with enough information to make an educated business decision regarding the All-Star opportunity.

Components of the System include:

Pre-Recorded Business Overview Calls and Training Calls available 24/7.

Live Conference Calls available four days a week, including prospecting calls where you can listen to prospects being called on a live call by one of the All-Star Mentors.

A powerful, personalized, state-of-the-art Website, which will draw prospects into your business, allow them to check out the All-Star opportunity in detail, and purchase products from you online. Here you will have a full back-office capability with forms and recorded calls that can be downloaded and heard on your own computer.

Professional Mentors available to three-way with your prospects for support and information.

Millionaire Mindset Conference, held several times each year, where you will mingle with fellow aspiring and experienced entrepreneurs in an interactive and fast-moving curriculum. You will participate in powerful presentations and be shown in detail a specific, step-by-step, day-to-day game plan guiding you in how to create $250,000 in the next six to twelve months. You will be gratified to know that you have been given the strategic map to avoid many business landmines, in effect expediting your success.

A variety of Marketing Tools are currently on the drawing table and expected to be available within a short period.

COMPENSATION STRUCTURE

The All-Star Compensation Plan is simple, yet very powerful. All-Star has chosen the ingenious Reverse Margin? Compensation Model for several reasons:

One-Time Qualification: To become an Excellence Mentor, you must make 3 sales, one of which can be your own product purchase. During your training process, the profit from your first 3 sales will go directly to your mentor. Once completed, you will be in a substantial income earning position where your personal sales pay you; and the first three sales from all of the Associates in your register pay YOU the profit!

Immediate Profit to the Field: Customers pay Qualified Mentors the full retail purchase amount. Rather than having to wait days, weeks, or more for profits, the Reverse Margin? concept allows the selling Associate (the Mentor) to experience profits at the point of sale.

62% to 67% Profit Margins: The Reverse Margin? concept allocates 100% of the profit on a sale to one person only (the Mentor) as opposed to being split several ways as in traditional direct sales and multi-level marketing. The importance of this is that the Mentor realizes major, significant profits every time a sale in their Register is made.

Number of Associates: Multi-Level Marketing requires an individual to enroll and grow an organization to several hundred if not thousands of distributors in order to create significant incomes. The Reverse Margin? concept begins creating significant incomes with a mere handful of sales.

WHY ALL-STAR ENTREPRENEUR?

TODAY'S REALITY

We all face an uncertain future. Corporate downsizing, business restructuring, stock market volatility, and interest rate fluctuations - These factors have resulted in wrecked careers, depleted savings, lost retirement options, and diminished relationships.

In the last 10 years, Fortune 500 companies have laid-off over 7 million workers.

A survey of 65-year-old retirees has shown that one out of one hundred is independently wealthy, four have enough money to "get by", twenty have some savings or pension, and seventy-five are dead, or just "dead broke."

Debt to Income is at an all time high.

Tax Freedom Day is May 13th, which means that you are working almost half of the year for the government, before putting a dime in your pocket.

In the average household, both parents are working fulltime, depleting the quality of family life and relationships.

Over 600,000 layoffs have occurred in September and October 2001 alone.

This has created a surge of independent-thinking citizens, who are looking for the ultimate entrepreneurial opportunity.

"If you always do what you've always done, you will always have what you've always had." - Anonymous

THE SOLUTION

A Home-Based Business. Why?

Every 11 minutes a home-based business is started.

The average income of a small or home-based business owner is double the average American wage.

The tax advantages of having a home-based business significantly reduces income taxes, allowing you to keep significantly more of your own money.

The commute to work is 30-45 seconds.

Overhead is minimal.

Working hours are flexible.

All of these facts contribute to greater time and financial freedom, allowing you to reach your goals and live your dreams. What are your goals?

Dream Home?

Luxury Car?

College Education for your Children and/or Yourself?

Financial Security?

Health and Well Being?

World Travel?

Unfortunately, no matter how hard you work for someone else, it's not easy turning dreams into reality. Yet, everyday you see people living out their dreams, enjoying financial freedom, and spending time doing the things they enjoy with the people they love. You ask, "how?" The answer is not how they were raised, how much college education they have, their gender, or whether they are beautiful or not. Success has nothing to do with luck. These people are reaching their goals and living their dreams because they have capitalized on an opportunity and made the choice to succeed.

CONFERENCE / VACATION EXPERIENCES

All-Star continues to offer deeper empowerment and value to Customers and Associates through exciting conference vacation experiences. All-Star offers a series of exclusive conference products using carefully selected strategic business partners - top experts in their respective fields. The Conferences take place in exotic domestic and international resort locations. Student attendees will experience deeper life changing concepts presented by these top authors and trainers in the areas of personal development, business expertise, and success strategies. Attendees will interact with these speakers and capitalize on years of expertise that will, in effect, shorten the success learning curve.

The All-Star vision is to provide you with information and experiences that will transform and enhance your lifestyle. Not only is powerful business information provided, the conferences provide a unique and satisfying vacation experience as well. You will be encouraged to break through old paradigms and experience moments that may have only been a "wish" until now. As you step out of the box, both informationally and physically, you will create immediate and permanent positive changes in your life and your business.

The Personal Empowerment Conference (PEC)

Held annually in domestic resort locations, the two-day PEC event is designed to allow student attendees to experience deeper, life-changing concepts from top authors and trainers in the field of personal development. The PEC idea is simple. When clarity of purpose and wisdom converge, the educated entrepreneur maintains tremendous advantage over those who attempt to make it on their own. All-Star's Founders and staff review dozens of choices of the best in nationally and internationally known trainers and Authors for this event. Each Author's unique personality and educational contributions create totally unique events that positively impact many aspects of the participant's life. $2995.00 SRP

The Pinnacle Success Conference (PSC)

Held in luxurious international resort locations, the three-day PSC revolves around teaching leadership skills for entrepreneurs. Topics include: How to Build and Lead a Large Organization; How to Handle Antagonists Effectively; Decision-Making Guidelines; Leadership vs. Management; Traits and Habits of Top Leaders; Pro-Activity and Reactivity Do's and Don'ts; and the list goes on. Again, the very best in speakers and authors grace the conference stage. For anyone desiring to sharpen their skills as a leader in business, church, politics, or virtually any organization, the PSC will make an amazing difference in the participants' lives. $4995.00 SRP

Folks,

Greetings, friend, Ed!

We have an explanation for the Givers magazine site being down for the last week. Judy Sterling has been sanitized from the pages and is no longer listed on the Advantage Conferences site as part of the company.

Quote:

Director of Advertising, Giver's Magazine – Judy Sterling – With a Master's degree in Adult Education and a background in Professional Development, Ms. Sterling has served as an independent Representative for Advantage Conferences since November of 2005. She stepped up to a training role with The Fund Raising Advantage (TFA) in 2006. In March of 2007, she accepted a staff position promoting Giver's Magazine, an integral component of TFA.

Did Jack hit on her and send her running? Did Timmy boy stiff her and leave her with a bouncing paycheck? Did Timmy fire her as she only managed to get 6 advertisers that were not in AC? Did she read Scam and learn the truth about our scamming boys and refuse to be a part of that dishonest venture?

Tim is such a clueless businessman that the little buffoon has no contact information on the ad rates page of Givers magazine. Judy was the contact, but as she is no longer on board the Advantage Conferences Titanic anyone that might get the crazy notion to advertise in a magazine with no circulation couldn't do so. Timmy the brilliant businessman strikes again. LOL!

Ah, Interesting Info Soapboxmom,

Did you read the Dallas Morning news today?

Mannatech founder resigns as CEO but remains chairman

Caster still chairman of company facing attorney general suit

09:52 PM CDT on Tuesday, August 21, 2007

By JASON ROBERSON / The Dallas Morning News

jroberson@dallasnews.com

Mannatech Inc., the embattled supplier of nutritional products, said Tuesday that its founder, chairman and chief executive officer, Samuel L. Caster, has resigned as CEO effective immediately.

Mr. Caster will continue to serve as chairman of the board at the company he founded more than a decade ago.

The resignation came as a surprise. The company said in a separate statement to The Dallas Morning News that the decision had nothing to do with an ongoing lawsuit filed by the Texas attorney general's office over Mannatech's marketing practices.

The attorney general's office said Tuesday that Mr. Caster's resignation does not stop or alter its lawsuit against the Coppell-based company.

A company news release cited two reasons for the resignation: One, he had already "achieved significant milestones," and two, he wants to concentrate on his "passion for working with independent associate leaders" within the company.

Two weeks ago, the company posted an 82 percent drop in quarterly earnings. For the three months ended June 30, Mannatech reported a net income of $1.5 million, or 6 cents per share, down from $8.6 million, or 31 cents per share, for the same period a year ago.

Increased legal expenses were one reason for the profit drop, Mr. Caster said earlier this month.

On July 5, Attorney General Greg Abbott filed suit in Travis County District Court accusing Mannatech of exaggerating the therapeutic benefits of its products for people with cancer, Down syndrome, cystic fibrosis and other serious conditions as a way to increase sales.

Two weeks after being sued, Mannatech released new sales and marketing guidelines for associates, including an order to immediately stop using questionable marketing materials. Mannatech also announced a satisfaction-guaranteed refund policy after the suit was filed.

Mannatech's directors have appointed president and chief operating officer Terry L. Persinger as interim CEO while the company searches for a permanent successor. Mr. Persinger also wants to retire from Mannatech, the company said.

Re: Advantage Conferences BS (Merged)

Tim sure picks some winners for friends! When your scam gets busted, turn tail and run!

From an AC website:

Quote:

Internet Business FAQ:

Question: Do Reps pay for their own advertising?

Answer: Yes, you are not required to establish any particular size monthly budget, but we've found that our most successful Reps set aside anywhere from $200.00 or more monthly for advertising. Considering the powerful commissions, there is good reason to dedicate ample funds to ongoing advertising for your business success. Some Pro Reps successfully allocate thousands of dollars on a monthly basis for their business.

Question: How quickly can I expect to be qualified and see success at Advantage Conferences?

Answer: Although we cannot guarantee any particular time line for Reps in general, we do everything we can to help you understand how to optimize your business. Time of success is affected by a positive, decisive mindset, the size of your advertising budget, the intensity of your faith, and your willingness to be consistent over the long haul.

With all that being said, your success timeline is ultimately in God's hands. Given the rewards that the Millionaire Mindset Conference has in store, whether it takes two months or two years, the wait will be worth it. Where else can you realistically develop $7,000.00 Checks Over & Over Again?

Question: Do I need to buy the Personalized Marketing Website?

Answer: Yes, you realistically do. The PMW is complimentary with the MMC-IV purchase, but whether you buy it or it is yours as a result of an MMC-IV purchase, you will find this to be one of the most powerful tools you ever owned. Your ability to profit from this business is dramatically enhanced with the addition of this highly effective tool.

Question: Does anyone ever fail to be approved upon submission of their President's Interview?

Answer: All the time. Advantage Conferences is different in that we believe that there is more required to be a Rep here than just the ability to write a check. A truly Positive Attitude, the ability to Follow Instructions, Burning Desire, Commitment, Belief, and many other intangible qualities can and are discerned in the President's Interview. We don't need "projects" here. We require talent and enthusiasm, dedication and belief.

This sounds like one of Jack's junior goons. Thousands a month is what Wacko Jacko himself was spending in the early days. Remember the $18,000.00 including $8000.00 in advertising his first month in this scam on his Visa no less?

Jack also bragged of seven figures, you know 1 million, as a realistic earnings figure for 18 months in the business. That is a terribly dishonest sales tactic when Jack didn't make it there yet and 98%+ reps have lost thousands of $.

That sure is a neat trick to claim that one's success is in God's hands. Then the lying rep, dishonest Tim and slimeball Jack have any easy out when the poor soul that has been bilked out of thousands asks why. One is a failure because they didn't have enough faith and God has decided they should fail. God becomes the answer instead of the blame being put squarely on the scamming cons who are running this scheme.

Re: Advantage Conferences BS (Merged)

Remember all that nonsense Tim gave his reps about his business being Christ-centered and having God in the mix? Well, Timmy lad, just when did that happen? This from your 2003 AC website makes it clear you lied once again and that is not one of the reasons you left All-Star.

Conferences

Advantage sculpts Conferences based on genuine value of content that truly delivers life changing, empowering information. There are four KEY benefits to the Advantage product:

EDUCATION - Entrepreneurial education presented by highly qualified, carefully selected authors and trainers.

VACATION - Locations are chosen that are appealing and exciting. Many of our attendees will be experiencing these alluring locales for the first time and some will be delighted to return based on their previous visit(s). Care is taken that attendees have plenty of quality time above and beyond seminar hours to truly enjoy leisure, recreation, and/or shopping at the resort and surrounding areas.

TAX DEDUCTION - What better way to experience your vacation than to deduct virtually every dollar spent at the Conference from your tax liability? - a highly important benefit to the savvy entrepreneur / traveler! Translation, the costs associated with this business/educational event will cost approximately one third less than your dollars spent! Plus, the average attendee puts $6,000.00 to $12,000.00 EXTRA in their pocket as a result of the Conference information IN ADDITION TO the deductions of the Conference itself!

REFERRAL COMPENSATION - Advantage has provided the opportunity for the novice or professional marketer working out of their home to create generous profits by helping others discover the value and benefit of the Advantage Conferences?. Advantage has also created the single most powerful fund raising format available for organizations that are looking to bring in sizeable revenues into their projects. (For further details, please see Fundraising)

ADVANTAGE CONFERENCES

~ 2004 EVENT ~
Maui, Hawaii
June 7 - 13, 2004

"The Bridge to the Future Conference"

Choice of Two-Day, Four-Day, or Six-Day Conference

To review the agenda, subject matter, and slate of speakers, please ask your enroller to send you the The Bridge to the Future Conference Agenda - Form # 3200.

To enroll in the Conference, please see the Conference Order Form, #2000.

Conference Pricing

Two-Day "Phase I" $3,995.00

Four-Day "Phase II" $6,995.00

Seven-Day "Phase III" $9,995.00

Educators

After years of promoting and teaching entrepreneurial education, Advantage contracts with the top talent and leaders in the industry of business education. Examples of the authors that you can expect to interact with and see at upcoming Conferences may include, but are not limited to:

Michael Gerber - owner of E-Myth Worldwide and author of the hugely successful book, "E-Myth" and the "E-Myth Revisited - Why Most Small Businesses Don't Work and What to Do About It".

Sanford Botkin - owner of the Tax Reduction Institute and Best Selling author of, "Lower Your Taxes - Big Time".

Tony Jeary - Owner of High Performance Resources, Inc., and author of several best sellers including, "Inspire Any Audience".

Dr. John Maxwell - owner of Injoy, Inc., and author of dozens of best selling books, including, "Developing the Leader Within You".

Omar Periu - Coach, Master Sales Trainer, and author of the Best Selling book, "Investigative Selling".

Bob Proctor - One of the most sought after lecturers in the world and author of "You Were Born Rich".
And Many Others?

This conference never happened. Mr. brilliant businessman by June of 2004 only had 8 reps. He lists himself as a rep before he even left All-Star, though he always remained a 1/3 partner and registered agent. Tim is a pathetic loser with no business acumen who will lie, steal and cheat to defraud you out of your money. He obviously has never had any business success or shown any marketing know how. He only found God and Jesus Christ when his other lies and deceptions were not garnering him recruits!

Timmy is discussing his new joke of a division. I guess this one will be run out of his garage. Personal Wealth Mentoring and Personal Banking Explosion are his coined phrases for his version of financial suicide. I am saying unequivocally that Timmy and Jack have no business or financial acumen and their personal financial histories clearly demonstrate how foolish and downright catastrophic their advice has been.

Timmy, who pushed that egregious insurance product "Hidden Treasures" (insurance on unsuspecting seniors to third parties and could be characterized as a seedy proposition at best), is at it again. Now he is peddling some convoluted version of whole life policies. His new guru is Nelson Nash author of Becoming Your Own Banker or The Infinite Banking Concept.

There are way to many flaws in this program to begin to cover them here. Obviously each individual needs to consult their own certified financial planner, CPA or tax attorney etc. Let's be blunt though and point out the obvious----Tim is setting his recruits up once again with bogus advice and the potential for catastrophic losses.

Tim is telling people to take out interest only loans on their homes. He talks of a phenomenal investment vehicle that one can borrow from and that grows tax free with a death benefit.

<http://www.smartmoney.com/insurance/...story=lifeterm>

Allow me to share what Smart Money has to say.

Quote:

FOR MOST PEOPLE, the right type of life insurance can be summed up in a single word: term....

The basic difference between term and whole life insurance is this: A term policy is life coverage only. On the death of the insured it pays the face amount of the policy to the named beneficiary. You can buy term for periods of one year to 30 years. Whole life insurance, on the other hand, combines a term policy with an investment component. The investment could be in bonds and money-market instruments or stocks. The policy builds cash value that you can borrow against...With both whole life and term, you can lock in the same monthly payment over the life of the policy.

Forced Savings

Whole life insurance is expensive: You're paying not only for insurance but also for the investment portion. That extra cost might almost be worth it if these policies were a good investment vehicle. But usually they aren't. Insurance agents like to call these policies retirement plans, emphasizing the "forced savings" inherent in forking over the premiums each month "for retirement."

Leaving aside the fact that there are many better ways to save for retirement, these policies come with high fees and commissions, which sometimes lop off as much as three percentage points from the annual return. On top of that, there are up-front (but hidden) commissions that are typically 100% of your first year's premium. Worse, it's often impossible to tell what the return on the investment will be, and how much of what you pay in goes toward the insurance and how much toward the investment. [/b]

Premiums for term insurance are downright cheap for people in good health up to about age 50. After that age, premiums start to get progressively more expensive...

Term: Where the Value Is

To get a real sense of the value of term, let's compare a term policy and a universal life policy. Say a 40-year-old nonsmoking male has a choice between a $250,000 Met Life universal policy with a $3,000 annual premium and a same amount of renewable term coverage with a 20-year fixed premium of $350. At the end of one year, the universal policy, assuming it paid 5.7% per year, tax-deferred, would have a cash value of exactly zero (cash value is the amount you would get back if you canceled the policy). But say he had instead invested $2,650 (the difference between $3,000 and $350) in a no-load mutual fund that averaged a total return of 10% annually. At the end of the first year, he'd have $2,841, accounting for taxes on the earnings at a 28% rate. At the end of 10 years, he would have accumulated more than $46,000 in after-tax savings in the mutual fund. Over the same period, the cash value of the policy would have climbed only to $31,819.

That's not to say that whole life insurance is always a bad idea. Wealthy people can use whole life in their estate planning by setting up an insurance trust that will pay their estate taxes from the proceeds of the policy. ...

Sizing Up a Whole Life Policy

One of the great problems with whole life is only an expert can tell if a policy you own or are considering will ever become a decent investment. James Hunt, actuary for the Consumer Federation of America, who has analyzed thousands of policies, notes that whole life policies hardly ever yield a reasonable return unless held for 20 years or more. So if you buy one be prepared to pay into it for the very long haul.

The key to a whole life policy is its internal rate of return -- the yield on the policy after all fees and charges are subtracted. A competent analysis can determine at a minimum whether the weight of the fees and charges built into one of these policies will ever allow a worthwhile return. Such an analysis will also pinpoint the minimum amount of cash value that you can derive from a policy at any given time interval.

Some financial planners, actuaries and accountants can perform internal rate of return analysis on your policy...

Most policies don't start to build decent a cash value until their 12th or 15th year. So if you cash in after 10 years, you could be out of a lot of money. And you can be sure that if you surrender in the first five years or so, practically every dime you put in will be down the toilet.

How to Check an Insurer's Ratings

If you're looking for whole life coverage or a term policy that you'll want to keep 20 or 30 years, the financial soundness of the insurer is a critical concern. You want some assurance the company will be around in case you aren't. For insurance companies, the major credit agencies like Standard & Poor's rate claims-paying ability.

Fortunately, information on the credit worthiness of insurance companies is easy to obtain. Reports are cheap or free over the Internet...

Re: Advantage Conferences BS (Merged)

Scammer Jack says:

Quote:

One of the first things they'll do is purchase our President's Package because we've integrated the top commissions for the Personal Banking concept with MMC-IV status at AC. It only takes one or two contracts (one or both can be the ones that set your family up) with the Personal Banking concept to more than pay for our top product, The President's Package, making that purchase truly a no-brainer.

So, the rep buys the insurance and Jack and Tim pocket $5,000-$12,000 + $$$$$. Reps would be better served to spend a couple hundred dollars a year and get a hefty term policy and put the difference in their personal emergency fund, 401ks, IRAs, 529 college plans for kids. The folks that Tim is suckering in most likely need retirement money.

Insurance: What You Need and What You Don't

by Suze Orman

I'm not going to pretend the subject of insurance is sexy or exciting. But it sure is an important and, yes, potentially dangerous topic that deserves your full attention.

I say dangerous because if you screw up and don't have the right coverage-be it auto, home, or life insurance-you are risking financial disaster. All it takes is one mishap or setback that isn't covered by an insurance policy and you, or your loved ones, could easily end up bankrupt. (And starting this fall bankruptcy will be more painful than ever thanks to a new federal law that will increase the hoops consumers must jump through before they can file for personal bankruptcy protection.)

That's why it's well worth your time to make sure you have the right insurance coverage...

Life Insurance

This one doesn't need to be nearly as complicated, expensive, or daunting as you probably think.

First, the only reason you need life insurance is if anyone is dependent on your income. That can be kids, a spouse, a partner, an elderly parent. If no one is dependent on you, then you don't need it. That simple.... Remember, the point of life insurance is to replace income that would be lost if the policyholder dies...

Next, you should only look for one type of coverage: Term life insurance. Do not-I repeat, do not-buy any other type of life insurance. There's another kind, called "cash value," which is a colossal waste of money, if you ask me. These cash value policies come in a variety of flavors, including whole life, universal life, and variable life. Just say no to anyone who tries to talk you into one of these plans. They can be more than 10 times as expensive as a term policy, yet you don't need any of the "extras" they come with. In fact, the big added feature of a cash value policy is that it provides an investment component. I won't go into a ton of details here other than to tell you that a life insurance policy is a lousy way to save and invest. So stick to a policy that simply provides life insurance and leave off all the expensive bells and whistles.

If you have already bought a cash value policy, I recommend canceling it and getting term life...

A term policy provides your beneficiaries a death benefit (the payout on the policy) if you die while the policy is in effect. As its name implies, your policy is in force for a specific length of time, or "term." You want to make sure the term you choose matches your needs. For example, if you have a two-year-old child, a 20-year policy will provide coverage until your child is through (or close to through) with college. If you have a 13-year-old, a 10-year term policy will suffice.

Now for the size of the death benefit. No need for crazy calculations. We can keep this part simple too: Buy a policy where the death benefit is equal to 20 times the annual income your beneficiaries would need to support themselves without you. Why 20? Well, I believe you owe it to your family to be super-careful here. I want your beneficiaries to be able to live on that payout without having to touch the principal; the peace of mind this provides is priceless. So if your policy is 20x their annual needs, that means the payout could be invested in high-quality bonds earning 5 percent or so in annual interest. The interest income would produce enough for them to live on.

How about an example? Let's say your spouse and kids would need (before taxes) $50,000 a year to live on. Multiply by 20 and we come up with $1 million. Don't get all grouchy and think you can't afford a term insurance policy with a $1 million death benefit. A healthy 40-year-old male can get a 20-year policy for as little as $80 a month. For a 30-year-old the monthly premium can be as low as $50 a month. Come on, that's doable!

Now, if you were to die during that 20-year period, your beneficiary would receive a $1 million payout. If he or she then invested this lump sum in high-grade bonds earning 5 percent, the annual payout would be $50,000, without touching principal....

My point is pretty simple: Why not give those you love the utmost financial flexibility in the event you die prematurely? Given the low cost of term insurance, you can buy them a ton of flexibility without breaking your bank account.

And one final life insurance tip: If you or your partner is a stay-at-home parent, please make sure you also have a term policy on their life, too. In the event the stay-at-home parent were to die, the surviving partner would need extra income to be able to pay for childcare. So tie the death benefit amount to what you expect your childcare costs could be and how many years you anticipate your kids would need that care.

State Sen. Ernie Chambers Sues God
Chambers Aims To Make Point About Frivolous Lawsuits

POSTED: 1:52 pm CDT September 17, 2007

UPDATED: 12:04 pm CDT September 19, 2007

OMAHA, Neb -- State Sen. Ernie Chambers is suing God. He said on Monday that it is to prove a point about frivolous lawsuits.

Chambers said senators periodically have offered bills prohibiting the filing of certain types of suits. He said his main objection is that the constitution requires that the doors to the courthouse be open to all.

"Thus anybody can file a lawsuit against anybody -- even God," Chambers said.

Gee, boys that hotel is a real dump. I tried to book a room and the reservations clerk doesn't know anything about your little scamference. Timmy boy, you do realize that hotel is in the middle of an industrial area. There aren't restaurants and attractions within easy walking distance. The rooms are regularly $90 a night, so it is pretty cheap flop for Dallas. Timmy boy, go a few blocks and why don't you show your "suckers"-----oops, I mean recruits the best Dallas has to offer. Didn't you consider The Mansion on Turtle Creek? For 10 or 12 grand you should take them there and include accomodations and meals, boys.

SBM,

How did you find out where this next conference is going to be? When I went to their site, most of the pages regarding the conference (registration forms, etc.) still have the June conference dates. Pretty pathetic considering this supposed conference is occurring in about a month. And with the info you shared about the hotel not knowing anything about it, I would be very concerned if I had already signed up for this scamference. I have a feeling that in about a month, there's going to be a bankruptcy filing for AC, no conference, and A LOT of angry people hunting timmy and jacko down!!
