Tim says if you attend the conference and aren't satisfied that you can demand a refund and he will write you a check on the spot. He claims no one has requested one. Reps don't be afraid to go forth and demand your refunds.

Re: Advantages Conferences / Tim Darnell

I just found a printed/web version of Tim's new book. "Slay Your Giants"

<http://www.7koverNover.com/SlayYourGiant.pdf>

Tim, claims that by 2010. The Fundraising Advantage will raise $250,000,000.00 and then $1 billion dollars.

Man, thats a lofty goal. How close is he I wonder?

I skimmed his book and found that some of the preaching is good info.

Nothing I have not heard before from other books.

A lot of it is what I would call "Fluff" and he seems to repeat himself a bunch.

He also uses it as a way to Thank some of his Advantage Conferences reps as well as pump up his company Advantage Conferences.

A professional book editor could have edited this book to half the pages.

If you want to know Tim's whole life story then you can read it as well.

It also said in the book that before Tim was without a job for a year in a half and collected over $200,000.00 in credit card debt and now has none.
This does explain some things..

Tim also mentions at the end of this book that he is opening himself up for public speaking.

Too funny that you are calling Jack a wacko. He has his MBA, has been the president of two companies, has probably the most integrity of anyone I have ever worked with, and we are to believe SoapBoxMom who posts lie after lie and is totally unprofessional. Many are prospering in a company that only had a few hundred reps worldwide. Don't worry, your lies list is growing.

You keep posting our comp. plan highlights and we are for profit and your point is? Oh yeh, you do not believe in free markets, nor MLM. Good luck with that.

You foolish, foolish man. Your threats and innuendo are not only irresponsible, but ridiculous. I enjoyed spending time with over 40 reps today only about 15 minutes from Tim's home today. We heard many testimonials of lives being changed for the better, but unfortunately, you only dialed into a few calls in your tenure.

Why then did some reps have to file complaints with the BBB and AG in order to get Tim to answer the phone and e-mails about giving refunds.

I know for fact Tim has bribed a few to get them to try and withdraw their complaints to the BBB so it would not show up on his record. The reps have told me this.

Thats not fair that Tim, has given refunds to some, but, not others. Not a very Christian thing to do.

So many people have asked for refunds that Tim has had to tighten his stance on this..

I would love it if some of the former reps traveled to Allen,Tx and confronted Tim in person in front of his Christian Peers in his Sunday school class.

It's too bad that these people are too scared to speak out because of Tim's theats to sue them..

I am sure Tim will, he is a man of God.

It makes sense why Tim would only have one conference in this next year.. If you can't attend then, no refund.

Less money for him to spend.

I personally don't see how posting on scam.com would be relevant in court in regards to the legality of Advantage Conferences.. Scam.com will not be the issue as why Tim will be in court.

Save a failing business?

Help you put $100,000 and much more income dollars in your pocket this year?

Create a legacy of significance for your family and community that goes beyond money?
Help you truly find and experience financial, mental, and emotional wealth and freedom versus being a slave to your profession or business?

Dramatically improve your influence, persuasion, marketing, and sales abilities?

Help you lock your assets and estate into a virtual vault that litigation can't touch? And much, much more?

The Answer is a Guaranteed ?Yes?!

MMC Testimonials

"I was in the corporate work force for over 20 years. And I initially looked at the All-Star opportunity as a part time endeavor. However, after studying their product and applying it to my life, I became committed to the All-Star and took it on full-time. The personal and business development that I have applied to my life is tremendous. I did not understand the real power that we all have within us, until now. Many times in my real estate career I was sent to seminars that were geared around helping me achieve higher goals. However, in getting back to the work field, I would try to understand how to apply the information. To say the least, it was difficult. Here at All-Star we are able to apply this valuable information on a day-to-day basis in life as well as business, and the best part is, this information is the product - helping others discover-THERE IS LIFE OUT THERE!" I have been able to achieve an income as high as $36,000 in a week-end at one of our Millionaire Mindset Conferences, and as you can imagine, this was something that I had thought only the ultra wealthy could experience....So I just have to say.....Thanks so much for showing me...that there is life out there!"

- Rebecca Fischer, Arizona

"I come from 20 years in traditional business ownership. I attended my first Millionaire Mindset Conference after working my All-Star business part time. This conference changed my financial status immediately as I walked out of the conference with $32,000 profit; but it really helped me achieve success on a personal level. The associates that I have introduced to the All-Star opportunity have experienced the same results from attending these conferences as well. We have learned that we can really make a difference in other people's lives. I have now sold my traditional business and work my All-Star business full time. I know that the Millionaire Mindset Conferences are an effective tool in building a large associate base and in helping me to achieve a five figure monthly income."

- Esther White, Arizona

"I have been fortunate to have participated in several Millionaire Mindset Conferences. With each one, I have come away with an extraordinary amount of new information coupled with fundamental information, both of which are immediately applicable to my All Star business. The participants have the opportunity to meet the Leaders of All Star and experience on a first hand basis, not only the comprehensive training, but also the "culture" of All Star as well. It is certainly well worth the time and the minor cost to participate. In fact, I have generated thousand of dollars in profits as a direct result of attending."

- Richard Wilson, Georgia

"Experiencing the MMC on 5 different occasions has enabled me to change, grow, let go of old thinking patterns that were holding me back, and assisted me in developing my leadership skills..I now am able to earn more money in a month than it previously took me to earn in a year from my Corp. sales job.

It has been a joy to watch my personal team mates experience their own paradigm shifts and take their businesses to the next level after attending the MMC's. Thank you All-Star for the mentoring and coaching that has enabled me and my team to become successful home based entrepreneurs.

On a side note, my husband and I used Sandy Bodkins tax information in the F101, amended our last 3 years personal income taxes and received $7000 back.

- Karen Carlisle, Indiana

CONFERENCE / VACATION EXPERIENCES

All-Star continues to offer empowerment and value to Customers and Associates through exciting conference vacation experiences. WishYouKnew,

Since you were supposedly a rep, you would know all this wouldn't you. Orlando was just a couple months ago and the prior conference in Dallas was October. The next Dallas MMC is again in October this year. As for SoapBoxMom who would rather these conferences be located in exotic locations and was badmouthing Tim yet again because they were being held in Dallas, well we are not a vacation company. We are there to learn and grow and we surely do not want folks spending thousands just in travel costs as other companies do. Most folks recognize that differentiator, but she is a master at turning something good into bad for her motives.

You just cannot admit when you bend and stretch the truth. Also in terms of the recording, that is old as it was recorded a year ago and there have only been 2 refund requests from the prior conference. They attended with the mindset of simply quitting the business and asking for their money for the conference back. Great mindset and it reminds me of someone, Wish.

SoapBoxMom, your post is just plain ignorant. No, I did not call you ignorant (then I would stoop to your level) but your post does not even deserve a response. You are someone who has no experience with AC, has never been to an event, is anti-MLM and the industry, and you call Kiyosaki a fraud.

The fact that you would personally attack someone you do not know, someone you have not served alongside in a ministry and you are posting information from a previous company and you do not know what transpired where Tim resigned from building with the other owners, is just irresponsible at best.

As for posting your lies, they are coming. Once again, you just keep adding to them before I can finish. In addition, we had a great day yesterday and Sunday is a day of worship, at least for us. Wish, my only hope is that when you read Slay Your Giant again and truly have an open mind for change, that some seeds are planted that will take root in your mindset.

Reading your posts, I am reminded of the story of the two people who were moving across state with their UHauls. In fact, they were moving from the same town to the same town. The first person stops at the truck stop and asks the waitress, so how are the people up in Pleasant Town, as we are moving there today. The waitress asked, well how where the people back where you came from? The person moving stated, they were unfriendly, cold, uncaring, and downright mean. The waitress stated, unfortunately, I think you are going to find more of the same in Pleasant Town.

The next guy with a UHaul comes in and is moving to Pleasant Town also. He asked the waitress, how are the people up in Pleasant Town? The waitress replied, how were the people back from where you are moving from? The gentleman said, they were great, caring, loving, would give you the shirt off their back. The waitress stated, yes, you will find the same people in Pleasant Town.

Many will mock this story, but unfortunately WishYouKnew, SoapBoxMom and others on this board are like the first guy who was moving to the same town. You can go through life bitter, disgusted, thinking everyone has wronged you, or you can make a decision to change your mindset. You apparently, have not made that decision yet.

Re: Advantages Conferences / Tim Darnell

And I would not think any differently of your Baptist church in Allen because of one person either. God is not directing you and you know it. Your flesh is directing you in your effort here. How do I know this? Because hundreds have been directed to build AC and I have a clear calling on my life as well. I wish you well and in the end, you are still a brother in Christ.

I have been to Cottonwood Creek many times and have friends that attend there as well. We always go to their Halloween Carnival they have each year. Its a great Church. I don't think any differently about it because of one person.

Renloyx, I advise anyone trying to get real information to click on your username to see where you are on faith and your MO. Of course you are smarter than the 8-10 pastors on our team, lawyers, MBAs, doctors, and housewives building AC. Oh yeh, you have never attended a conference either. You could really benefit from Slay Your Giant.

Good luck to you.

The above statements are misguided at best.

Consider the case of the Setser family:

DALLAS — Jurors finished their first day of deliberations Wednesday in the case of a chief executive and other officers of an import-export company accused of swindling pastors and churchgoers out of about $65 million in investments.

Former IPIC International Inc. chief executive Greg Setser, his daughter-in-law Charnelle Setser, his sister Deborah Setser and his business associate Thomas Henschke are accused of duping 1,700 or so investors. The government alleges they promised big profits doing God's work but spent investors' money on extravagant purchases such as yachts and planes.

The trial lasted 3 1/2 months and included about 100 witnesses, including televangelist Benny Hinn.

"All of these defendants committed fraud, all of them benefited from it," federal prosecutor Jeff Aynsley said Wednesday while wrapping up closing arguments. "Don't feel sorry for them."

Greg Setser, 49, faces 22 counts including fraud and conspiracy and could also faces up to life in prison if convicted. Charnelle Setser, 23, faces 20 counts of fraud, money laundering and conspiracy and could face life. Henschke and Deborah Setser, who both ran side companies, face fewer counts.

In closing arguments Tuesday, defense attorneys focused on who knew what and when, each saying their client was misled by others in the company.

"Greg was embraced as a man of God. That meant a great deal to her," attorney Cheryl Wattley said of her client Charnelle Setser. "She doesn't know what to believe anymore."

This is only one among thousands of cases that illustrate why mixing God with business is never a good idea. Charnelle Setser may have sincerely believed she was answering the call of God, but that fact alone will not exonerate her.

I feel sorry for the people at the bottom who have lost thousands by now, but I truly pity the guys at the top who are going to have to answer for all of this some day.

The fact that you would personally attack someone you do not know, someone you have not served alongside in a ministry and you are posting information from a previous company and you do not know what transpired where Tim resigned from building with the other owners, is just irresponsible at best.

Tim is only minisitering to his own pocket book. The Better Business Bureau only list Timmy boy or his brother as the owner, management and contact people. So, what really happened to that pyramid scheme? It is interesting that Tim sanitized the All Star Entrepenuer website and he as the president and owner does not appear there at all. Was that necessary to distance himself from that scam and morph into this new one with his "Treasures or Timmy's Kingdom Conferences"? What happened to those poor reps for All Star that went with that conference scam full time? How are they doing now with no job and a serial scammer, Timmy boy, who left them high and dry?

Letyourlightshine,

I see we have another AC rep here. Welcome, I am glad there are others besides Soapboxdad that are willing to debate with us.

I too have my MBA.. (although you can not tell it from my spelling, :))

Have you read the complete thread from start to finish?

Timmy boy said long ago on the All Star Entrepenuer website:

Quote:

5. Millionaire Mindset Conference, held several times each year, where you will mingle with fellow aspiring and experienced entrepreneurs in an interactive and fast-moving curriculum. You will participate in powerful presentations and be shown in detail a specific, step-by-step, day-to-day game plan guiding you in how to create $250,000 in the next six to twelve months. You will be gratified to know that you have been given the strategic map to avoid many business landmines, expediting your success.

We would like to see definitive proof that the MMC attendees achieved those kind of results. I think all folks got from Timmy's conferences is an empty wallet!

Re: Advantages Conferences / Tim Darnell

Wishyouknew, actually, I have been disgusted by the personal attacks here. I am sorry that AC was not for you, but I have witnessed first hand the lives being changed for the better. It is obvious as I have read through the entire thread that you will not agree with someone pro AC, so I won't try.

Advantage Conferences has changed my life in so many ways and I am also proud to be associated with a company that is boldly sharing the Gospel. We will of course come under attack from the folks like Renloyx and it is not a good fit for everyone--as it was not for you, but it appears that you were not really involved as I read your posts.

For folks to post things about unrelated scams that abused their faith is simply ridiculous. It is like me stating that look at Enron since they had no faith in their business. Just a crazy argument. There are folks that abuse power and their faith in many businesses, AC is not one of them.

In terms of value, there is no question in my mind there and I have been active for over a year now. This will probably be my last post as almost everyone here has no personal experience with AC and most are anti networking.

Here is just some of what a rep who decides to purchase the MMC-IV receives. It is important as a legal test that there is NO purchase ever required. Your questions or legality are not correct and do not serve your opinion well. I would have paid several times the cost of the conference for what I have already received value wise.

- MMC-IV conference ticket that includes a spouse at no additional charge
- MMC Advantage Program where they can attend all subsequent MMC's for 90% off
- Over 100 Hours of training calls annually
- 52 Millionaire Mindset Conference Calls annually
- A turnkey website and 3 Step System
- A Rep Resource Center for training and access to archived calls
- Full Distribution Rights to Slay Your Giant
- Ongoing mentoring and training

My best to you.

My best to you.

This still has no "Market Value" The product is not of real substance.
The Conference does not include plane tickets, food, hotel stay or advice from any licensed professional.

The 100 hours of training calls do not include the cost spent of phone bills

Website, not worth much..

Full Distribution Rights to a book that nobody will want.. --Again, not worth much...

Ongoing mentoring by people that are not doctors, licensed professionals or anything..

To say that this has changed your life is a little pathetic.. A book at Barnes and Noble can change lives.

There is nothing new that is spewed at these conferences, training calls or mentoring. To the un-educated I guess its new stuff..

So you mean to tell me that you have read the BBB report. Read the warnings given from the Attorney General and FTC and you still feel good about this?

Good Luck, I hope you don't end up in prison. You sound like a nice person..
