Big Daddy,

I never suggested Wish was lying. I am telling you that the AGs office may very well be looking at AC and they will not tell the company they are investigating until they choose to.

The seven day waiting period is ideal for the prospect. It gives them time to investigate and think things through away from the high pressure sales environment. You don't want to sell twice because you know full well that anyone who really has some time to consider 10 grand investment will get the facts and no longer be willing to be scammed.

Those two statements are diametrically opposed. What is minimal about 10 grand? We all can see that every recruit will desperately push all their downline to purchase the conference to get their qualifying sales and get in the "$7000 over and over" mode. Of course you know almost none of the recruits will ever get into profit and that the earnings statement would reflect that. Thus, very few would sign up for a losing, mathematically doomed opportunity. I see a very simple solution to your dilemma. All the information should be posted on the company website so potential recruits can view it at their liesure and it won't cost the reps anything to provide it to potential business associates. Do you really think as a devout christian that honest full disclosure should not be required? Do you think signing up recruits to make 100 grand, 250 grand, 500 grand, 1 million, expecting to make $100,000 or the ridiculous figures Jacko brags about such as $540,000 in 13 months falls under "good business practices to establish realistic expectations?"

Of course, SoapBoxMom, you are smarter than Wall Street, Warren Buffett, The US Chamber of Commerce, and all the rest.

Oh yeh, you consistently take the focus off our our life-changing product and mentoring. I have been disgusted by the personal attacks here. I have witnessed first hand the lives being changed for the better. It is obvious as I have read through the entire thread that you will not agree with someone pro AC, so I won't try.

Advantage Conferences has changed my life in so many ways and I am also proud to be associated with a company that is boldly sharing the Gospel. We will of course come under attack from the folks like SoapBoxMom, Phinnly and it is not a good fit for everyone.

As for value, there is no question in my mind there and I have been active for over a year now. This will probably be my last post as almost everyone here has no personal experience with AC and most are anti networking.

Here is just some of what a rep who decides to purchase the MMC-IV receives. It is important as a legal test that there is NO purchase ever required. Your questions or legality are not correct and do not serve your opinion well. I would have paid several times the cost of the conference for what I have already received value wise.

- MMC-IV conference ticket that includes a spouse at no additional charge
- MMC Advantage Program where they can attend all subsequent MMC's for 90% off
- Over 100 Hours of training calls annually
- 52 Millionaire Mindset Conference Calls annually
- A turnkey website and 3 Step System
- A Rep Resource Center for training and access to archived calls
- Full Distribution Rights to Slay Your Giant
- Ongoing mentoring and training

My best to you.

If the focus is the product then stop selling the "christ centered $7000 over and over again

The point is 99.8% of people who get involved in this scam will never see their $10000 again.

$10,000 is way to high a price for mentoring. That will buy many hours of business consultation, CPA consultation, legal advice, financial consultation and the like.

The only draw to the conference is the money making scheme attached to it. That is why you have all reps and no customers and a 0.6 customer to 1 rep ratio. Those training calls are worthless as far as helping one set up a legitimate business. That would require some real business experts, such as experienced MBAs, tax attorneys, CPAs, financial planners, other licensed attorneys and folks with proven track records. You haven't shown us the names and credentials of anyone associated with this joke of a company to prove you have that caliber of speaker available. The legality is for the authorities to determine, but Timmy should be aware that pyramid laws aren't his only hurdle. I have archived numerous webpages and with those 100 grand to 1 million earnings promised at signup he could be facing fraud and misrepresentation charges. The plot thickens, my boy!

SoapBoxMom, the only plot is in your little, conspiracy minded head. And to Wishyouknew, you have no integrity here. You have all but admitted that were never attended an MMC, supposedly you were on 4 calls out of 100 over the course of a year, so you gave it the ole college try, huh?

$10,000 is to much to pay for mentoring? What an ignorant statement SBM. I guess that you have not built multiple million dollar businesses as I have as you would recognize the importance of ongoing coaching and mentoring. 220 people who have attended the MMC, recognize the value.

No you are somehow smarter than this MBA who has built several businesses, who has also been involved with Advantage Conferences for the past year, who has attended 3 MMCs and has first hand experience. There is no other business I would rather build and your blanket approach to all network marketing is laughable. I am laughing at, and not with you, right now in fact.

Oh, but I can't prove that I am laughing right now, so how could you know it was a fact. Wow, I sound like SoapBoxMom. Scary.

Let's see now.... Someone [AC chump] is going to pay you $10,000.00 in hard earned cash to hear a crew of inconsequential no name Millionaire wannabes [Mentors] with no credentials, documented track record of success, or even a resume babble for hours....about what exactly?

"If you want to be a millionaire, you must "think" like a millionaire." my my how profound!!!

The primary objective, it seems is. that if enough folks gather and yap about how they want to be millionaires sooner later everyone will magically transcend to Millionaire status.

Some people still believe this, many of them presently reside here:

Creedmoor Psychiatric Center

Let's keep in mind also that AC [THE COMPANY] does not even have a business address, they apparently can't AFFORD ONE. Instead they are doing business from Tim Darnell's home. Tim has elevated his digs one notch above trailer park status and resides in a very nice house I'm sure but Millionaires don't normally live in $170,000.00 suburban start ups unless they are desperately on the downside.

Actually, from a previous post of yours, you mentioned that you were on a few calls. So was that a lie or was your post today another inaccuracy? You were also caught lying about your attendance at an MMC when you could not even produce one speaker or answer how many men and women presented---hint there are 6 total speakers, but you know that right?

What do Fortune Magazine, a former president, a current prime minister, a billionaire investor, Wall Street analysts, world-famous economists and best selling authors all have in common?

They all predict the direct selling industry (of which Network Marketing is a part) will be a dominant force in the global economy of the future. And they have good reason to think this way.

Just Look At The Facts

Direct selling has grown every single year for the past 20 years ... nearly doubling in the past 10 years alone.

Annual sales have hit $30 billion in the US and $100 billion worldwide.

Every week 175,000 Americans join the ranks of direct sellers; 300,000 worldwide.

There are 13 million direct sellers in the US and 40 million worldwide.

Massive Changes Are Taking Place In The World Economy

--Inflation robs people of their buying power.

--Jobs are guaranteed to no one.

--The ranks of the unemployed grow with each new day.

Personal financial security hangs in the balance.

Re: Advantages Conferences / Tim Darnell

Direct selling means a product gets sold to an end user. Network marketing is the selling of a downline or opportunity. Those two things may be sold as the same thing by the DSA/Direct Selling Association, but it is pure bunk! In most MLMs the vast majority of the sales occur inside the pyramid to the poor reps. There is little true retail activity as we can see in AC with 500 reps and 300 sales. So, MLM/NWM are headed straight down the toilet, pal. I am not seeing credible sources say otherwise. The mathematics and history of these MLMs bear out the staggering loss rates for deals like AC. MLM is the last place for folks to go that need financial security!

Quit lying about the unemployment rate. The ranks of the unemployed are rapidly shrinking. The unemployment rate has been steadily improving and now sits at 4.6% for May according to the U.S. Department of Labor. We are approaching the record low of 3.9 for the past decade and the current figure is a five year low. The last place desperate folks should go is to MLM. Folks should also note that inflation is well under control. Your scare tactics won't work on the savvy folks who come on here to research your bum deal!

Wishyouknew, I brush my brain every day and I would recommend that your brain needs some washing.

SBM cannot refute the size and growth of this industry. She cannot stop that growth or the fact that more people around the world are gaining independence in this industry. As for the unemployment rate, I assume you are not going to school for economics as you would realize that the stated unemployment rate does not count the millions off the roles who have simply given up, or those that were downsized, rightsized, whatever you call it in your safe haven called corporate America (now that's a joke to seek safety there) who take jobs out of desperation, as they cannot replace the level they had attained.

I will take self-employment any day of the week. Someday, you may get it too. You are very good at bashing and name calling so you will want to look for ways to monetize that, as it is something you are obviously passionate about. Look for something where you get paid by your inaccuracies. Maybe one of the tabloids would be a good fit for you SBM?

WishYouKnewHowtoSpell,

Now that was the most ignorant post that I have ever seen. We have several attorneys that vetted out everything we are doing and in fact, we have more than 3 that I know that are building Advantage Conferences. You are a very sad man and I will continue to lift your heart and mind up in prayer.

#1, you have no idea of the retailed MMCs in that number so don't pretend that you do.

#2, learn how to spell illegal

#3, there is no product purchase required to be a representative of AC which is the legal test (or legal test) Folks can choose the 1/2 day, full day, 1 1/2 day or full MMC as you already know IF they decide to purchase a conference.

For a person supposedly with their MBA, you would think you could spell the word that you spew about so much. It must really grind you when folks are successful with a business that you decided to quit. I guess that posting here is making you feel better, almost like therapy, huh? Phinnly and Reloyx would know a lot about that subject.

Advantage Conferences has changed my life in so many ways and I am also proud to be associated with a company that is boldly sharing the Gospel. We will of course come under attack from the folks like Phinnly and it is not a good fit for everyone.

For folks to post things about unrelated scams that abused their faith is simply ridiculous. It is like me stating that look at Enron since they had no faith in their business. Just a crazy argument. There are folks that abuse power and their faith in many businesses, AC is not one of them.

As for value, there is no question in my mind there and I have been active for over a year now. This will probably be my last post as almost everyone here has no personal experience with AC and most are anti networking.

Here is just some of what a rep who decides to purchase the MMC-IV receives. It is important as a legal test that there is NO purchase ever required. Your questions or legality are not correct and do not serve your opinion well. I would have paid several times the cost of the conference for what I have already received value wise.

- MMC-IV conference ticket that includes a spouse at no additional charge
- MMC Advantage Program where they can attend all subsequent MMC's for 90% off
- Over 100 Hours of training calls annually
- 52 Millionaire Mindset Conference Calls annually
- A turnkey website and 3 Step System

--A Rep Resource Center for training and access to archived calls
--Full Distribution Rights to Slay Your Giant
--Ongoing mentoring and training

My best to you.

1) Learn to think for yourself instead of being brainwashed by Mr. Darnell

#2) Learn how to be a christian who does not scam others and spin the bible to benifit yourself.

#3) Learn that the fact that their is no product purchase required does nothing to speak of the legality of AC.

If you have a problem with my spelling then you have a pretty sad life that you give a crap. Because I don't! If I was typing a proffesioanal letter or communicating with a proffesional I would care. But, for you. I don't care one bit, what you think. Because anyone who needs mentoring and business coaching has many more problems in their life then me.

The fact that you are bringing up my spelling is a testimony of how you can't respond with any facts of any substance to refute our facts and evidence.
You have failed to respond to the new information about Tim's old company Liberty League International.

I am not sure if there is an ignorant post of the day, but Wish, I think you get it with this above. Every top performer that I know including Tiger, Michael Jordan, Jack Welch, and Presidents have coaches and mentors. I use to bill out at $2,200 a day for providing my consulting services as well.

You, my misguided Mav fan, should be looking for a coach and mentor asap. I choose those I mentor, so I cannot be of service to you. I wouldn't take you on as a project for $100,000.

#1 Unlike you, I have built three million dollar businesses, have my MBA, have been to 3 MMC's and have more experience than you could hope to have. I am actively involved in my ministry and sent 2 men to Bogota this morning for a mission's trip. I have done very well over two decades thinking for myself and surrounding myself with entrepreneurs with courage, and you obviously have not.

#2 If you are a Christian you would capitalize "Bible." Show some respect as you would with any secular book. The Bible needs no spin, it is our Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth. We incorporate the Living Word in our businesses and daily walk as we are all called to do.

#3 Actually that is one of the most important legal tests, as well as "use value" which AC can demonstrate to anyone who earnestly is involved and who actually attends and MMC.

Once again, out of the 6 millionaires, how many were women and how many were men? You refuse to even answer a basic question like that and you have no integrity here.

No, I have a problem with someone who states they attended the MMC, who knocks fellow Believers, who states that they are highly educated, and appears not to be able to spell the words he is spewing forth like "legal." It makes one wonder :confused:

Your inaccuracies tell the story here. I simply pray that those "innocent people" as Spanky calls them have discernment to make their own decisions and not rely on folks who are anti-network marketing, pile on and bash Christians and if you look through your own posts, that describes you as well.

By the way, I have an awesome and victorious life. Much peace and joy that passes all understanding. I pray that you find the same.

Dude, there is no need to post this crap on two threads. If you were smart you would keep it to one thread. The more you post the more this pops up on google and all the other search engines for all to see.

As a athlete, there is a need for a coach. As while you are playing a sport it is often hard to realize some of the things that your body is doing in the "heat of the moment" of a competition. This is completely different then what Advantage Conferences is offering. As a business professional this is hopefully what you have co-workers, friends and family for.

The fact that you are trying to compare this is total stupidity.

For the coaches of Tiger Woods and Micheal Jordan, there is a market value for that. Advantage Conferences has zero market value. Their coach's are not trying to sell something into their downline.

I don't see Avery Johnson trying to recruit others for the cost of $10,000 for him to mentor anyone else and participate in a Pyramid scam. Avery speaks at Churches here in Dallas for FREE!

If Advantage Conference could get Mark Cuban to speak then maybe you would have something to brag about. But, I don't see Mark coming to speak with you.

Go Mavs!

You can doubt all you want, but the great thing about the truth is it is the truth whether you want to believe it or not. And the only reason I am here is I am outraged by the ignorance and hate posted by SoapBoxMom, Renloyx, Phinnly and WishYouKnew.

Over my two decades, much of it being an entrepreneur after getting my MBA, I have NEVER built a business with a man of uncompromising integrity like Tim Darnell. I vetted the legality and business model out before ever aligning with Advantage Conferences. I have attended the last 3 Millionaire Mindset Conferences, in fact meeting with one of the speakers this afternoon; I have been on over 100 training and corporate calls now; and I have never seen a leader or corporate so committed to the field.

Those who have shared to date have no personal real experience with Advantage Conferences. Christians are not called to be punching bags to simply take the lies, libel, inaccuracies, etc.

I have repeatedly shared that if someone is looking for a get rich quick scheme or if they have a problem with a business that is Christ-centered to go somewhere else. I am not here to sell our business and in fact, we don't even talk with a candidate until they have gone through 3 steps takes 90 minutes. I am here to give some balance to the absolute inaccuracies posted here.

The inaccuracies posted by the likes of SoapBoxMom and WishYouCouldSpell are unbelievable. Yet another inaccuracy is the claim that the BBB is never sued.

The fact is they are in constant, multiple suits all the time. Whoever thinks otherwise is simply wrong. Call your local chapter and simply ask them IF you care about the truth--which most on this thread do not.
