To all the former reps who have PMed me (there are 4 or 5 of you, You know who you are)..
Please change your screen name to a name that no one will be able to tell its you. And come on here and post your expereinces and inside info about Advantage Conference.

Not that there is not enough evidence on here already. But, I am interested in hearing your story.

I know there are a few who have PMed me whom have been wronged and lied to by Tim Darnell and they have not gone to the AG or BBB to report their stories..

The more you remain silent, the more Tim Darnell gets away with what he is doing..

Liars and thieves are what Tim has for speakers. He knew of her deceit and had her back anyway. That speaks to the kind of character Mr. Darnell has. Think of the pain this family has gone through and this charlatan used it for her own evil purposes. She took the money and ran!

BF,

Point well made. So true, and a LOT of reps left when they saw the writing on the wall and what was REALLY going on under the table. Critics will say, "You quit." Yet, that is not the case with most former reps. An honest person would do the correct thing and LEAVE rather than CON. Some reps that left and had the financial wherewithall to "make right" with their downline did that. Sadly, most reps who left did not end up with enough money to "make right" with their downline, even though they had a sincere desire to do so.

SBM,

Agreed. Why didn't TD refund people when he blatantly knew they didn't have the money and that he was lying to them to get the sale??? A true Christian would step up to the plate and do the correct and moral thing. Yet TD, Jim W., and JW continue to CON innocent people out of money. Funny how TD cries to everybody that he, himself, was conned by both Liberty League and All-Star. If the truth were known, he probably saw how much Krider and Payne were making in LL and decided to bail out so he could start AC and keep ALL of the money! I think people need to avoid ANY aussie 2-ups. JMHO.

Absolutely! As there are zero retail sales of the conference or apparently anything else, the only money really comes from recruitment which equals, as the Better Business Bureau said, an illegal pyramid. Timmy tries to fudge and claim he was just building his sales force, but we still have no evidence of even one retail sale a year later. The conference is not a product, but just the cover or fig leaf to disguise the pyramid scheme with Jacko and Timmy happily positioned at the top of the heap!

More MMC Testimonials

Tuesday, June 26, 2007 at 01:31PM

It is amazing that the critics out there will still attack something that had such powerful testimonials. I guess that Elizabeth Templin, aka SoapBoxMom, who has never experienced our product and has never been involved with our company, will continue her attacks, hate-speech, and stalking, regardless of truth. I will continue to walk in love. We continue to pray for Elizabeth and that the Holy Spirit convicts her and that she repents. Here are a couple more testimonials that I just received. And yes, Elizabeth, dozens of pictures will be posted when my transfer cable is found at unpacked at our new home. Light always drowns out darkness.

This was our third Mindset Mentoring Conference and without pause” the best yet!” It was an incredibly powerful event where our mindset that has been reshaped by God through the Holy Spirit. What the Mindset Mentoring Conference offers through Advantage Conferences is a completely unique niche in the marketplace. No one in attendance could deny the indwelling of the Holy Spirit among attendees and speakers alike. There were simply no Luke warm attendees in attendance. It was intense because Laura and I spoke with and heard from dozens of passionate individuals who are sold out to the cause of Christ in all areas of their lives none of whom possessed even a hint of arrogance but rather demonstrated strength in humility! To hear God speak to us through all of the mentors, Advantage Conferences reps and attendees has had the most impact on us to date! The verse that came alive for Laura and I was Matthew 6:33, Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added to you. All of the mentors had this core thread running through their business endeavors and personal testimonies despite their seemingly diverse backgrounds and difficult situations.

The Lord has brought us into this place where we have relied on Him alone and He is building up a testimony for His glory through our lives. We have no D.O.U.B.T that the ongoing mentoring available through Advantage Conferences has been a shortcut to this realization. Two pivotal points for Laura and I that we have gleaned from the MMC have been: You need to hand your business, not just your personal life over to God and that walking in faith means believing in then walking through the doors Jesus has opened before us. Coming to this understanding becomes so clear when you surround yourself with such an integrity filled venue of highly successful Christ Centered Entrepreneurs

A highlight for us was when we actually hand wrote a commitment where we gave our business to Lord and placed it at His Altar. We have already seen the blessings of doing just that and know that God has been calling us to do that for some time now. I encourage you to step forward and be in attendance at an upcoming event for it is truly a profound and invaluable experience.

Be Encouraged,

Mike & Laura

Praise the Lord! The effects of the conference are still touching me daily. It was a true blessing to be in that type of setting. It is very unique to have Christ at the center of a business event or is that business at a Christ event? Some people say it's hard for them to put it into words and I now know what they mean! The conference meant so much to me. The Christian fellowship combined with Godly business principles equaled an event that will continue to effect me and my business in a remarkable way. I thank God, Tim Darnell, the speakers, and each of you for making the conference a great success! I look forward to seeing you all again real soon. Numbers 6:24-26, the priestly blessing for you!

In service,

Greg Wilson

Good Morning Saints. The conference was a turning point in my mindset and heartset. As well as finally understanding our awesome compensation plan, I came to realize that if I kkeep a singular focus on the Love of Christ, and my love for others the rest will be provided. Since the conference my worship has deepened, and I have become much more prolific in my praise song writing. I also have gained a deeper understanding of how excelent our products are. I would encourage everyone on the team to get very familiar with the products. It is much easier to get excited about a product you have experienced than one you have only heard of. My confidence and self worth was increased by seeing our mentors, strength and deep faith. Thank you Tim Darnell and Jack Weinzierl for being such strong men of God. I have been in many businesses and no where have I found the quality of people, products, or encouragment to just do what is right. To the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ be all the Glory.

Three more inspired testimonials magically appeared. That brings our total to 13 if we include scammer Jack.

Remember all the threats of lawsuits and consequences. Well, Jack and Tim know they can't sue me because I can easily afford to fight them in court. I am quite anxious for them to file so I can access all the company records for the last 12 months since Timmy filed against the Better Business Bureau and had to turn over all his company records. The boys know I will put up every last document for the public to see. If they choose to lie and defraud people, then I will fight that with facts right off the public record. I have more documents and as soon as the 4th "fat file" is back in the dungeon from its present home, the judges chambers, I will get additional documents. I suspect Timmy can't pay as the judge ordered and that is why Judge Murphy has the file. I will soon find out.

Jack kept bragging he has our IP addresses and knows who we are and that Big Bad Jack was going to get us. There would be accountability, he said. Well, boys, I have always loved the name Elizabeth since I was a little girl. English history is one of my passions. It is not my name. I have told you exactly what to do to file suit, but you can't and you won't. You have to do a 180 and play nice with me as my truth telling is destroying your egregious scam. I also know from the company ledgers that Timmy can't afford much more than bubble gum at this point. Timmy having lost to the BBB and Jon Taylor after filing a suit no sane scammer would have filed is paying the price for the truth being made public. His own stupidity is accelerating the demise of his scam.

God sent me to do this fact and truth finding and I have just begun. Threats didn't work boys and bobo kissing isn't going to either. Tell your reps to read the court documents and then tell me all about your integrity! And, I suggest you start refunding the dozens who have asked. Why don't you also help the dear souls you conned with All-Star. We are waiting and God is watching!

SBM,

Have you thought about compiling a compressed message outlining the overall picture of AC, for people who want to get an idea of exactly why we believe it is operating a pyramid scheme, as well as a broad overview of Tim's and Jack's unscrupulous dealings in one place that's a little easier to navigate? (Maybe a thread that can be stickied, then locked so that it doesn't get cluttered with a ton of posts.)

It's just that this thread is 63 pages now, and might be daunting to someone who just wants to read the important points.

You may have already done this, but I thought I'd suggest it just in case.

Tim,

I see on your personal blog (<http://timdarnell.blogspot.com/>), that you dont allow anonymous posters....??? i find that curious... you need to approve all posts on your blog?? why is that?

i think that we all know why that is.... the point that i am trying to make here is that anyone who runs a stand-up business that is ethically run does not have to be afraid of what people will say about them or their business... unless, that is, there is some truth to what is being said.

Tim, if you have no fear of what people will say concerning your professional integrity or the soon to be defunct AC business, i implore you to remove the restriction on your blog and let people freely participate with their comments without you approving every comment that is actually posted.

This is from Tim's Blog Spot:

"Big news: I found out through supposed "reputable sources" that I denounced my citizenship and I'm famous at scam sites. Alright!!! Anybody (almost always anonymously) can say anything they want to discredit me, and apparently they will. I don't go to those sites at all due to the filth and lies that I get forwarded to me from time to time - amazing stuff."

Tim, you have known about scam.com for a long time as I know your old sidekick Chris Reed was on here a year ago defending your name from the comfort of your home and he finally came clean about his identity after he was let go from Advantage Conference.

It is interesting that Mr. Reed has some interesting things to tell about after he has left Advantage Conferences.

Speaking of Mr. Reed,

Funny thing Mr. Reed told me a while back. That I had forgot about.. If you would not have tried to "big time" the BBB rep who came out to your house to sign you up for membership, you probably would have Not attempted to join. Because had you met with him in person you would have realized that the BBB actually does to a background check on the business owners who apply for membersihp. Instead you had Mr. Reed meet with him and you just signed the paperwork and cut the check. You thought that if you just paid the money and signed the application that you would slide right in.

God, has a funny way of working huh? :eek:

The truth of the matter is, Tim, that the court papers exposed your LIES and FILTH and you got caught in you lies.

You are right about one thing, You have done lots of sinning!

"It is amazing that the critics out there will still attack something that had such powerful testimonials. I guess that Elizabeth Templin, aka SoapBoxMom, who has never experienced our product and has never been involved with our company, will continue her attacks, hate-speech, and stalking, regardless of truth. I will continue to walk in love. We continue to pray for Elizabeth and that the Holy Spirit convicts her and that she repents. Here are a couple more testimonials that I just received. And yes, Elizabeth, dozens of pictures will be posted when my transfer cable is found at unpacked at our new home. Light always drowns out darkness."

Amazingly arrogant and UN-CHRISTIAN attitude! First, they don't even know SBM's real name (yet, another lie). Secondly, they are praying for SBM to be convicted and repent??? Another person "hiding behind the gospel" to promote a con. Amazing...absolutely and utterly amazing to me. Perhaps you should pray for AC and all the crooks involved in it first.

Why don't you share with us how much money you've made thus far from conning people? Maybe these people are just ignorant and haven't figured it out yet...so sad.

SBM,

I know you are very busy, however, have you ever given any consideration to talking with Brent Payne or Shane Krider from Liberty League about Tim? They might have some interesting things to share. Just an idea and a suggestion. Also, what about his former colleagues at All-Star? The truth will come out sooner or later.

Re: Advantage Conferences BS (Merged)

Wish,

I have been emailing reps, churches and advertisers from Givers magazine using the pseudonym Elizabeth. I want to warn everyone I can about this scam. I linked certain posts and then the threads here. Tim and Jack would love to see me get run over by the bus. That is as far as the love really goes, isn't it?

Now, we know ol' lunkhead Jack has no idea who we are. And, as I suspected they are afraid to sue me. I told them exactly what to do if they wished to file against me. I want them to sue me so I can put up the last years financials, sales, matrices and correspondence for the public to see. Jack and Tim are desperately trying to silence me without giving me any more ammo.

Tim and Jack are at the head of "an awesome Christian movement" that frankly resembles the family led by Charles Manson. Sadly, the only folks left after all the facts behind this venture have been revealed are those desperate to fill huge emotional and spiritual voids. Folks that can be conned endlessly. These reps have been convinced that their family and friends who have tried to get them out are "dream stealers" living in "scared city." Of course the rational folks outside this venture enjoy our spiritual life at a local parrish and are no longer throwing thousands of dollars and and wasted hours into this scam. Rational folks would also be unwilling to see anyone else scammed out of thousands of dollars and would never consider selling this after learning the real story behind AC. One would have to be "morally bankrupt" as was said before to keep pushing this scam. Remember how charismatic Manson was? Tim and Jack are apparently that manipulative as well.

Tim's All-Star partner Elizabeth Knudson as Majestic Quest Corp. resigned in 3/31/03---3 months before Tim. She sold or gave her 33.3% to Claudia Cawley and unlike Tim, who was a current partner, she was listed as a former shareholder. Claudia Cawley as Dynamic marketing group held a 66.67% share of the All-Star Titanic. I think these ladies should definitely be contacted and questioned as Tim is a proven liar and con.

If the boys removed the testimonials of all the reps that were gone or no longer pursuing this bum deal they would lose most of the testimonials. Notice Jack got a whopping 12 at this current 5th conference. Remember, Tim had around 51 grand around this time last year in the company coffers. AC has to be on the brink of bankruptcy as well.

The hundreds that have been hurt by this deal should come forward and see these scammers are stopped in their tracks.

Thank you Tim Darnell for providing the keys for success.

Anyone notice around the 7.50 mark that the video jumps and seems to have been edited. Its the part that he tells us about how his lost $400,000.

Did anyone listen to his other videos?

His stories are soo good!! :confused: NOT!!!

His speaking is so much fluff that its hard to fight through it.

It's Ironic to hear Tim talk about "Old Home" Vs. "New Home"

He is still living in his old home in Allen.

It's also ironic to hear Tim preaching about how people NEED to get upset and outraged in order to transition into "New Home"

But, when people get upset/outraged at him, he weasles his way out of the situation, he won't refund money and turns on people.

Its also funny how Tim preaches about "Not Worshiping Money" and not letting it control your life.

Funny, I guess someone who is not concern about money does not attempt to sue the BBB for money, or would refund the money back to people..

The more I listen to his speaking the more I can turn around what he is preaching and say, Tim, it would be great if you followed your own advice.

But, you don't. You only follow it when its beneficial to you..

Tim Darnell is the biggest hypocrite of them all!

Re: Advantage Conferences BS (Merged)

Now, that we have had a laugh, we should evaluate what our scamming boy said. His story on other occasions, such as the interview with Josh Peak, has been that his partners fraud and collusion resulted in $400,000 being embezzled from the All-Star coffers over a 2 and a half year period. He whines about others having access to the company bank accounts and the two ladies outvoting him. The owners/partners were Tim Darnell, Claudia Cawley and Elizabeth Knudson who were all 33.3% owners with Tim listing himself as Founder and President. The lesson he learned was to be independent, so he went right out and defrauded hundreds more people with Advantage Conferences.

In the video clip Tim talks about how 2002 and 2003 were terrible years for him. He mentions a partner that is a him. He must be referring to Glenn Green who he described as "too fantastical, knows everybody and everybody loved him." Glenn Green was brought in, but he was not in any way an owner or partner and I suspect had no access to the money that was coming in to Tim's home address. Tim leads us to believe that Glenn is the one who embezzled the money. He said he had a choice of paying $250 or $2500 for a background check on this guy. He chose the cheaper one and claims he was as "clean as a whistle" Previously he had claimed it was his 2 partners that were the embezzlers. Tim simply can't keep his lies straight. Was it Glenn Green or one of the ladies that ran off with the money?

Glenn Green has quite a record in Texas, so Tim's story he checked out clean isn't believable either. I guess he should have had Craig Malisow of the Houston Press check him out in the first place.

From the Houston Press:
Quote:

And just to accent how decent a businessman he is, he advised, "If you're investigating me, then you need to be talking to my attorneys, 'cause I'm going to sue your ass, okay? 'Cause you don't have anything to investigate me about, I will assure you."

....the ten-year sentence for theft in 1990, according to Harris County Court records. Green was released after one year. According to an affidavit by a Texas Department of Public Safety officer, the theft worked like this: Green gave an accomplice an American Express card in Green's ex-wife's name. The accomplice charged multiple purchases of $49.99 at a Chevron station, when "in fact, no merchandise had been bought." The accomplice then gave the cash to Green. During April and May 1990, the charges exceeded $20,000.

At the time Green was popped for that crime, he was on probation for forgery for two earlier charges out of Brazos County, according to Texas Department of Criminal Justice spokeswoman Michelle Lyons. He was sentenced to ten years for those, which he served concurrently with the Harris County sentencing.

Also falling short of the Glenn Green Investigative Worthiness Standard was the ten years deferred adjudication in 1993 for fraudulent transfer of a motor vehicle. According to the investigating officer's notes, part of the case record in Harris County Court, Green bought and sold over a dozen cars, promising to pay off the leases, when he had no authorization from the lenders.

All but one of the 20 associated charges were dropped. He was also ordered to pay $31,233 in restitution

Harris County court records also show that the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo sued Green and his wife, Starla, in 2002. The suit was for nonpayment of $107,000 Glenn and Starla bid on a champion steer and a grand champion barrow pig named Cowboy in the 1999 Rodeo auction.

"I know that the money spent here goes for a great cause," Green is quoted as saying in the Rodeo's press release.

Then Starla chimes in about the 17-year-old Brownfield Future Farmer of America who spent four hours a day after school tending to Cowboy: "[He's] very deserving. We were prepared to do what it took."

Everything, that is, except actually pay what they bid. A Harris County judge ordered the Greens to pay the full amount, plus legal fees.

Rodeo Vice President Leroy Shafer says the Greens never paid the money -- the largest debt of any one entity in the show's history. He says it was the first time in the Rodeo's history that a grand champion was involved in a bad purchase, and the first bad purchase of two champions in one year. (The highest bidder's money goes to whoever shows the animal, any charities the bidder earmarked money for, and the Rodeo's scholarship fund. Shafer says the Rodeo was able to pay the $25,000 promised to Cowboy's exhibitor, as well as the approximately $1,000 Green had earmarked for the Houston Women's Shelter.)

Taking $400,000 out of the company coffers would be criminal. That would have resulted in felony charges for that high amount. None of these people have been charged for this, so we must assume this theft is a figment of Tim's imagination. It is also not mentioned in the bankruptcy filing. We are also painfully aware that Tim sues or threatens to sue people constantly. So, why is it he hasn't addressed this $400,000 theft in court?

From the All-Star Bankruptcy filing:
Quote:

8. Losses
None

List all losses from fire, theft, other casualty....

As we can see no theft is mentioned, so the $400,000 grand embezzlement is a figment of Tim's active imagination--just another lie!

Tim rambles on about how hard he had been working and the one day he gets to play golf Laura Porter calls him at the 4th hole to tell him they are being sued. There were several lawsuits in the works. Marriott River Center San Antonio (Business conference 11/2002 -$62,617.97) had filed suit. I will post more on that when I have time. The next hotel was out around 30 grand.

Several years back I entered into and ‘endured’ a business partnership that fairly quickly included fraud, collusion, and embezzlement by two partners.....

What a challenging time for my family, my employees, my Representatives (mostly very good friends), and many others who were distressed to see the business and me go through such an arduous ordeal.

Losing a business takes no small toll on a person. I wouldn’t wish what I and my family went through on anyone. A failed business affects a person mentally, emotionally, and even physically. Non-stop, intense stress will actually make you look different, and not for the better....

After realizing that my status in the company where I was the President, CEO, and Founder had been negated by the nefarious collusion of my “partners,” I determined that my best solution was to resign my position and immediately start a new company with a much improved business model....

I had bill collectors calling non-stop, Sunday through Saturday for well over a year, but we finally erased more than $200,000.00 in credit card debt! How nice to be able to answer your phone and it’s not a bill collector!!!

We came out of the torment intact. We survived....

Collusion can even take the form of pirating money out of a company and putting that money anywhere the majority conspirators decided it should go. For instance, operating capital, with no more than a phone call between the two colluders could by vote be designated as salaries for the conspiring parties. That is exactly what happened in my situation. English translation? “They stole hundreds of thousands of dollars in operating capital” simply because they could out-vote me....

When you choose to live in an Abundance Model, rather than a Scarcity Model (Scared City), you will find incredible new options are available. There is more than enough abundance, supplies, and business for everyone to thrive.

New Home blah, blah, blah.....

Most People-MPs

Scared City.....

For instance, I have recently had to file a law suit against an agency that falsely and erroneously made statements about my company. The statements were ridiculously false, yet they somewhat tarnished my company and me personally to those who don’t really know who I am and what we do. The statements were verifiably false and the defendant admitted under oath that his statement was made based on no experience of my industry. He stated that he was ignorant of my industry and had no knowledge of the very laws he thought I was breaking. Amazing! And yet they stood by their statement, refusing to retract their posting. What has been a sterling reputation was made questionable by their statements.

Without going into great detail, I find it truly predictable that I would face a formidable Giant the moment I began writing a book called, “Slay Your Giant”. That had to happen, would you not agree?

But look at the positive aspect of this seemingly negative circumstance. How perfect the timing – a gift of first-hand, experiential data that would do nothing but give me greater insight into this important subject matter of Slaying Your Giant! I must tell you that I’m actually thankful and excited about this challenge. What better way to put Godly insight and advice into action! What I am sharing with you is actually serving to coach me through this battle.

Frankly, I have never had more confidence in all my life. I am calm in Christ! I know that, by the time this book goes to press or shortly thereafter, I will have conquered this particular Giant, and I will begin gearing up for the next one who will inevitably appear.

And so for me, I say, “Let no one lose heart on account of this ‘agency’, your servant will go and fight them.” I have decisively entered the battlefield. I have calmly and resolutely committed to the fight. And I am completely confident of the victory, with God as my guide, companion and fellow warrior. Insert Your Giant’s name in this phrase and let it be your firm conviction to prevail, as well....

Certainly my attorneys are trusted and capable allies as I fight business issues.

Exercise....

Jack Weinzierl, a business partner of mine I think of every time I say or write the word, Champion, genuinely puts God first in his life in all aspects of his life. He is also currently the top income earner at Advantage Conferences. Jack embodies all of the positive attributes that you’ve been reading about in this book. Jack is a runner and uses running to keep his mind clear and his energy level high.

Jack likes to use running as a metaphor for business. In his trainings, he teaches that life is a marathon....

Among many, one of the wonderful character traits of Jack and so many millionaires I know is their genuine humility.

Jack recognizes that he is no more than just a regular guy, but he also knows that through Christ he can do anything – he believes in being “more than a conqueror.” I know in my heart of hearts that Christ is proud of productive, men and women of excellence, the Jack Weinzierl’s of the world.

Diet.....

Landmines.....

Unsolicited Advice and Nay-sayers....

You can't put stock in unqualified peoples' opinions, even if they are a beloved family member or someone you have respected in the past.

Champions are more open to money flowing out and flowing in....The reason that people differ in monthly and annual income amounts is because each person "thinks their way" to different dollar amounts.

I don't like the fact that two people embezzled a very substantial amount of money from under my nose....

Small income is a "settle for" mindset that correlates to a poorly developed self-image. It's time to see yourself creating more money. See yourself as deserving and able to create double or triple what you are now making. The money is there – billions of dollars are floating all around you every day. The right business or the right job is there,....

For instance, imagine your monthly income with an extra zero at the end of your current monthly amount. Would that make an impact on your life? You bet it will....

We will be raising $250,000,000.00 for qualified ministries thru 2010. I project substantially more - 1 Billion dollars from 2011 – 2015, all for ministries that are truly doing God's work. How, you might ask? God has given us powerful techniques that raise huge amounts of money without our having to ask a single person to donate a dime. Yes, you heard me right. God gave me the job of raising millions of dollars for His glory and for the help of His children.

When I was given this mandate and vision called The Fundraising Advantage, I was on board without having a clue as to how this was going to be accomplished. When God tells me to do something (I hear the skeptics right now – Darnell you're a nut), I don't ask questions and I simply trust God that He will show me the path. I know that in His time, his mission for me will be fully explained. And that He has done. I have been patient and calm, knowing that the whole project was God's. It was and is totally in His hands.

The techniques are beyond anything I could ever have imagined, and most people can hardly believe it when I explain the power and rapidity with which we can put hundreds of thousands and millions of dollars into the ministry's coffers. Again, we call the program, The Fundraising Advantage.

Why would I tell you about this? Because the ministries you know that are truly doing God's work need funding. Money is a very good thing when it is used for Godly purposes and not for greed. I am humbled that God would choose me to serve in this way, and I am also very, very excited to share this with those of you who aren't too skeptical to understand it.

One must first GIVE in order to GET. I call this the Law of Circulation. You have to put money into circulation, rather than keeping it clinched to yourself.

If you are fighting a battle on an uneven playing field, then you've been trying to create wealth via a mechanism that will never pay you appropriately. Many are actually purposely designed to "not" pay you well. Few compensation plans pay fairly and in large enough amounts.

I am now conferring on you a gift that I absolutely KNOW is one of the single most important qualities you can ever possess in Giant Slaying. It is the gift of SUB, Sustained Unwavering Belief...SUB is what separates Champions from MPs.

Bill Bates did not come because God sent him to Tim. Tim paid through the nose to get him.

Tim had 24 rooms for Thursday and Saturday night. He booked 34 for Friday night. A good number of those rooms were for the many speakers on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The question is did Tim stiff the hotel like he has done to so many others?

Ahh, yes Soapboxmom, I see what you were talking about. Sorry, I have been on vacation this last week and did not have time to read the last few post in detail.

I wonder if the BBB knows they were mentioned (not by name of course but by referencing the situation) in his book. Thats too funny.

Samuel, is this a lame attempt to spam the scam.com boards? Do you have anything useful to say regarding Advantage Conferences?

At first glance your link/company looks to be the same type of scam that Advantage Conferences.
