

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT,
IN AND FOR LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA

TREND SOUND PROMOTER

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 2014-CA-000481

vs.

ANONYMOUS JOHN DOE 1

Defendant.

FILED
14 JUN 12 PM 2:10
CLERK OF COURT
LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA

FINAL DEFAULT JUDGMENT

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on a Motion for Entry of a Final Default Judgment requesting a declaration that is certain written defamation published in a digital format (Digital Defamation) within the State of Florida be declared defamatory. This Judgment is entered on the sole issue as to whether such Digital Defamation is defamatory.

The Court being duly advised in the premises, it is hereby declared that:

1. On February 21, 2014, Plaintiff filed its Complaint against John Doe 1. The Plaintiff verified the Complaint and stated that all of the factual recitations contained therein were true and accurate.
2. On March 6, 2014, the Plaintiff gave notice in the Tallahassee Advertiser of this Action. The notice ran for thirty (30) days.
3. The Defendant has received constructive notice and has been constructively served pursuant to Florida Statutes 49.011(5) and 49.21 and has not defended this action. Constructive service is proper under Florida Statutes 49.011(5) and 49.21.

4. The Court finds that the Plaintiff has been unable to effectuate in personam service based upon the Defendant John Doe 1 concealing his name and address as reflected in the Affidavit of Diligent Search.

5. Although this is not a case wherein the Plaintiff relies upon the Florida long-arm statute (Florida Statute 48.193(1) and merely seeks in rem or quasi in rem jurisdiction over Digital Defamation published in Florida, the Court finds that Defendant John Doe 1 has satisfied the minimum contact requirements with the State of Florida as set forth in Shaffer v. Heitner, 433 U.S. 186 (1977) (wherein the United States Supreme Court found that in rem jurisdiction, quasi and in rem jurisdiction and in personam jurisdiction require an analysis of the minimum contact standards elucidated in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310, 316 (1945). See also Caiazzo dba The Beatles Autographs v. American Royal Arts Corp., 70 So. 3d 245 (Fla. 4th DCA 2011) and Internet Solutions v Marshall, 39 So. 3d 1201 (Fla. 2010) (posting of defamatory material continually accessible on Google.com in Florida constitutes a tortuous act in Florida sufficient to satisfy the minimum contact standards of International Shoe Co., supra). See also Wendt v. Horowitz, 822 So. 2d 1252 (Fla. 2002); Bedford Computer Corp. v. Graphic Press, Inc., 484 So. 2d 225 (Fla. 1986); Zeiman v. Costa, 578 So. 2d 332 (Fla. 3d DCA 1991) and Meiliunas v. O'Leary, 483 So. 2d 509, 510 (Fla. 4th DCA 1986) (in rem or quasi in rem jurisdiction pursuant to constructive service is only allowable when a Plaintiff does not seek money damages, thus no Fourteenth Amendment substantive due process rights arising from a money judgment are implicated). See also Hugenor v. Hugenor, 420 So. 2d 344 (Fla. 5th DCA 1982).

6. The Court finds that applying the cases set forth in paragraph five above, the Defendant John Doe 1's conduct in connection with the State of Florida are such that the Defendant could reasonably anticipate being "hailed into Court" in Florida and "do not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice". See Execu-Tech Bus. Sys., Inc. v. New Oji Paper Co., 752 So. 2d 582, 584 (Fla. 2000) (quoting International Shoe Co. v. supra at 316 and World-Wide Volkswagen Corp. v. Woodsen, 444 U.S. 286, 297 (Fla. 1980).

7. The Plaintiff is requesting that the Court enter an Order construing the Digital Defamation as defamatory in its format as a written instrument. The Court finds that this is an in rem or quasi in rem request for jurisdiction. As a result of the Defendant's choice to not defend this lawsuit and to conceal his true identity and whereabouts thus avoiding in personam jurisdiction, the Clerk of Court entered a Clerk's default on April 3, 2014.

8. The Court finds that the Plaintiff could not obtain in personam jurisdiction by service of process over Defendant John Doe 1, through no fault of the Plaintiff.

9. The Court finds that the Plaintiff's Affidavit of Diligent Search contained in the Court file is sufficient to establish the Plaintiff's inability to perfect service of process and in personam jurisdiction.

10. The Court finds that the Plaintiff properly published constructive notice pursuant to Florida Statute 49 as evidenced by the Proof of Publication contained in the Court file.

11. The Court finds that the Plaintiff has set forth a prima facie case that the Digital Defamation is, in fact, defamatory and false.

12. The Court finds that the Defendant John Doe 1's speech is not otherwise protected by the First Amendment.

13. The Court finds that the Defendant's Fourteenth Amendment, substantive due process rights, are not implicated and that the Plaintiff seeks only Declaratory Judgment and no award of costs and no request for supplemental relief.

14. The Court also rules that this Declaratory Judgment shall not be deemed res judicata or have any preclusive effect in the event that the identity of Defendant John Doe 1 is later determined and the Plaintiff brings a claim for damages, i.e., this Judgment will not preclude Defendant John Doe 1 from defending a damage claim on the merits at a later date in the future.

15. The Court finds that the venue is proper in Leon County in that the Digital Defamation was published in Leon County and therefore under Florida Statute 770.05 had this claim be brought in defamation as opposed to a request for a Declaratory Judgment, venue would be proper in Leon County.

16. The Court orders that the Defendant shall remove the Digital Defamation contained at <http://www.realscam.com/f8/trend-sound-promoter-2852/>, a written copy which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

17. That if the Defendant cannot in fact be located and cannot request that the Digital Defamation be removed or cannot remove the Digital Defamation from the Internet, the Plaintiff can submit this Order to Google, Yahoo, Bing, or any other Internet search engine so that the link can be removed from their search results pursuant to their existing policies concerning de-indexing of defamatory material;

18. That the Plaintiff has sought no monetary damages, costs, or supplemental relief against the Defendant in this Declaratory Action and this Judgment merely a declaration that the Digital Defamation is defamatory pursuant to Florida Statute 86.

19. The Court orders that if the name and address of the Defendant is in fact determined at a later date, the Plaintiff shall serve by service of process upon the Defendant.

20. That the Defendant or the Plaintiff may submit this Order to Google, Yahoo, Bing or any other Internet search engine to have the Digital Defamation removed from that search engine's search results. The Plaintiff is free to submit this Order to any Internet Service Provider to cause such defamation to be removed or otherwise de-indexed at any time now or in the future.

DONE AND ORDERED in Tallahassee, Leon County, Florida, this 12th day of June 2014.

Honorable Charles Francis

Copies furnished to:

Steven R. Andrews, Esq.

Signed JUN 12 2014

Trend Sound Promoter

This looks awfully iffy to me - kind of like a hybrid ponzi/pyramid scheme

<https://trendsoundpromoter.com/>

"Trend Sound Promoter AMG Corp, sponsored by Alliance Media Group, presents TSP ad-promoting platform designed to promote artists, performers, and different types of businesses online. Our online marketing tools enable our customers to reach millions of Internet users on a daily basis. The goal is to continuously expand our large distribution network, to constantly generate new clients, increase daily website traffic, and help any business grow."

lol: <https://trendsoundpromoter.com/advertising-partners>

"You can achieve massive success by promoting your business with TSP for the following reasons:

1. Thousands of Independent promoter - distributors who promote your business through TSP as well as their friends and family are your potential customers.
2. Our promoters utilizing approved email databases and share information with thousands of people from all parts of the world about your products and/or services.
3. As an advertising partner of TSP, you can purchase guaranteed traffic packages. Each package has a preset number of visits (impressions) that you can receive to your website. This traffic comes from actual people who can become your customers. We use these and other effective online marketing techniques to help your company gain massive exposure."

Not sure why they think that being registered proves anything - which it doesn't - but here is that page they list anyhow:

Corporations: Registration Detail

Registered Agent Name: VOLODIMYR PIGIDA

This page claims Pigida has a long history of spamming, but doesn't provide any supporting documentation.

So they were able to track the IP and "the people involved"? So multiple people were attacking from the same IP? I guess they were all sharing the same proxy. lol. How clever of them. 🤖

Re: Trend Sound Promoter

What is Trend Sound Promoter?

Reasons why Trend Sound Promoter is a Scam

Not long ago, my sister Anetta came over with her husband and bragged about their new business which has been the answer for all of their issues. A friend of theirs, in church, has introduced them to a new company, called Trend Sound Promoter (AMG). It is supposedly an ads platform, which allows anyone to make easy money by sending out email. You simply create an account on trendsoundpromoter.com and send them out, one by one. The company guaranteed to pay an unbelievable $0.40 per email that you send out, because they have so many companies who are paying them money for that.

I started research into the company and within hours, came to see that we are dealing with one of the biggest scam companies. Just to make sure I am not mistaken, I've shown the website to two of my friends, who manage the marketing department for Amazon Local and Amazon Fresh. It took them minutes to point out the many inconsistencies and sickening lies of Trend Sound Promoter. Both of them have affirmed that it without a doubt a nasty scamming company.

Here are the reasons, for which Trend Sound Promoter is a full blown SCAM:

- They require you to buy before you make money.
No major ad marketing company requires money upfront. Not even Google AdSense.
- Impossible to earn $0.40 for each email.
 An average price for a single impression (to have your ad viewed) is $0.013. An average price for an email impression (to send out your email, but not guarantee a click) is $0.0035. That is because many emails are automatically sent to Spam box, many are blocked and the probability of people clicking is much less today than it was. So, to say that some company will pay $0.40 an email + another about $0.40 to Trend Sound Promoter, for their commissions is unreasonable and stupid, when the average price is $0.0035. The most you can get paid for manually sending out the email is $0.0014 (50% goes for company earnings, more goes for email server hosting, more goes for expensive and unblocked ip addresses).
- "Live Clicks" are fake.
 I went to one of the hosted meetings and had a chance to meet the sales employees of the company. What surprised me, is that none of them understand how ads work in real life. They said that by sending out email addresses "one by one", you are sending "Live Clicks" to the company. First of all, there is no such thing as "Live Clicks", just Google for it. Second, if there was such a thing, then you would be "faking" the clicking on ads, therefore fraudulently making money. Third. It's not digitally possible to send any "Live Clicks" over. It's the same computer, who is sending out email addresses. It doesn't matter who clicks the "Send" button, because at the end of the day, it's the same computer that sends out the email.

Trend Sound Promoter

- They do not actually send out any email.

This one you can try testing yourself. It took us 13 tries, before it worked for us. This method you can check if you have an actual account with Trend Sound Promoter. Before sending out the email, open the source of the page (Ctrl + U). Look for the email address that you are sending out to, it will look something like somename35@hotmail.com. Go to the email provider and see if you can register that email address. Because many of these email address are old and many do not exist, you can register the email address, before sending out the email through Trend Sound Promoter. Register that email address, and go ahead and send the email from Trend Sound Promoter. You will see that Trend Sound Promoter does not output any emails, whatsoever.

- They have no actual customers.

Their only clients are fake companies, created by themselves. If you still go ahead and add all of those clients, they still don't account for 95% of work they claim to be doing. Most ad marketplaces have a section to their website with a list of actual clients. On the bottom of trendsoundpromoter.com's website, they have a list of their clients, including Lowes, Hilton, Sears, LG, Delta, Costco, Rolex, etc, are fake. None of those companies are the actual clients of Trend Sound Promoter.

- They started less than a year ago.

Their domain and business name were registered less than a year ago.

- They have no clue how ads work.

Trend Sound Promoter, in its descriptions, uses incorrect terminology, when referencing to the ad market. Terms like "ad platform" instead of "ad marketplace" or "live clicks" (what the heck is "live clicks", theoretically all clicks are live!), they use the words "per click" instead of "per view" and use the words "per view" instead of "per impression". Shows how illiterate they are in this business. Do you ever see real Ad marketplaces do this?

- They fake their online presence.

Their Facebook currently has 8,000 likes, while it's the same 5-10 people who are liking and commenting on the posts. Go ahead and pull up a Facebook page which has that many views, and see how active it is compared to Trend Sound Promoter. Honesty be told - Trend Sound Promoter purchases fake Facebook likes

- Company owner (Volodymyr Pigida) has a long history of spamming.

If you know his personal phone number, beginning with (509) 342-*, just Google

Trend Sound Promoter

it. Volodymyr Pigida has been an online spammer for 6 years. You will see him trying to sell stuff to people and him being banned from many public forums. He tried hiring people without paying them and encouraged people to invest their money with him.

- They make you click buttons so you feel like you are working.

Did you know that you can have these emails sent out without doing anything? Just Google for Record Mouse Clicks. You can set your mouse to click on it's own. But they don't want to tell you this, because they actually want you to move that mouse physically, as if that actually makes money.

- They use old, abandoned email addresses.

This step is harder to check. If you have an account, check the source of the website page where you are sending out the email (Ctrl + U). You should be able to see the full email addresses you are sending out to. Now Google it. When I Googled, I found that these email addresses come from a 10-15 year old, list of "harvested" email addresses, which anyone can buy. Harvested, meaning that they were crawled and picked up by bots.

Help us fight Scam!

I have called FBI and many news agencies to report Trend Sound Promoter. What shocks me the most, is that regardless of so many attempts to tip off the authorities, FBI does not go about doing anything about such a crime.

Please help put an end to it! Report Trend Sound Promoter to FBI, by going to <https://tips.fbi.gov/>

Thank you and stay safe!

I checked, the Belorussian TVI Express leader with the same name is not him.

A Belorussian is paranoiac now, you would be if if you are wanted and your name was mentioned in news.
