First, let's not pretend that this thread has not been heavily censored and all proof of Gi2c's wrongdoing has been removed including the arrest of their senior employee Tommy in 2013 for visa fraud, the comments of Gi2c victim/client Winnie Maliko, who by the way confirmed at many forums that she was instructed by Gi2c to lie to visa officials and on her visa application. Admin deleted more than 66 posts that caught Gi2C lying through their teeth about their fake offices and employees. Admin also removed his own comments admitting that 1) Gi2c busy advertising from TBJ, 2) Winnie Maliko is a real person/customer/victim of Gi2c, and 3) "Stefano is Gi2c". Also deleted were copies of five emails proving there is no "blackmail" and about twenty links that prove all of the above and below. What is left is a character assassination. Veterans of this forum know exactly what I am talking about and remember reading the below resignation letter. A copy can also be read here: <http://scam-detector.com/forums/forum/employment-scams/428-gi2c-china-internship-scammers-hired-hackers-to-delete-negative-comments-on-internet?p=636#post636> Here is one of 5 emails conveniently deleted from this thread. If you want copies of them all and you are a friend of Bruce Anthony just send him an email.

The only "confession" made here in this thread is one that is conveniently fabricated gents. You five are all sing in the same choir and you will not let the truth get in your way. The below was posted and deleted five times, and Winnie Maliko was blocked for two weeks after she posted her complaints, her invitation letter and her emails from Gi2c telling her to lie to the visa officials about why she was coming to China. All the references to Gi2c's use of Pakistani Boiler rooms has also been erased but you can read about all of the above here at these links that are almost 2 months old:

Please note that a wordpress site is now being set up to show you all the 66 threads TBJ decided were not convenient for defending their advertiser Gi2c, just as they previously used censorship to defend China ESL a few months ago when teacher Katherine Cox complained that 66% of her salary was stolen by that agency.

Hey all... It is not slander nor libel if you tell the truth about a company that is swindling or misleading people ...

- If you are told that a deposit or "processing fee is 100% refundable" and then you cannot get it back – that is fraud.

- If you are told that a deposit or "processing fee is 100% refundable" and then you cannot get it back – that is fraud.
- If you are called by someone in Pakistan who claims to be calling you from "the London office of Gi2c" that is also fraud (Gi2c does not have a London office but pretended they did for almost two years)
- If someone tells you that they have "a vast network of MNC corporate sponsors" and they do not even have one – it is fraud.
- When a company tells you that they have "51-200" employees and they only have 25, that is also fraud.
- When a company tells you that "38% of their interns get job offers in China" and really only 5% get job offers, that is also fraud.
- When a company tells you that they have "partnerships" with 50 top universities but cannot name any of them, that is also a fraud.
- Is it not also a fraud when people are paid $500 to make false video testimonials or to play the role of a happy customer who got a $60,000 job with HP through a Gi2C internship when not a single Gi2C customer ever interned at HP?
- When you are sent links to fake reviews or to a review site where all the positive reviews are on page one and all the nasty ones are buried on page 12, that is hardly honest is it?
- When a company tells you to commit a felony crime and lie on your visa application and "don't show your Gi2C internship contract to any government official" it may be something more than fraud – it might even be a crime to induce innocent people to commit a felony crime.

You may not like a guy for snitching out what you may think "is just another average company in China" but if this was a Chinese company ripping off foreigners you'd all be bitching and moaning. But because this is a fellow-expat doing the cheating, are we all supposed to turn a blind eye and stay silent.

People who pay $3,700 to work for free in China have a legitimate right to ask questions from people who collected that money. Do YOU disagree? Yet the below questions were asked 6 weeks ago to Gi2c's president, and he simply ignores them and claims to be a victim. The 16 employees who were hired and then resigned from Gi2c and are the real victims. They went to work for what they thought was a legitimate company only to realize months later they were used in a dishonest scheme to cheat people with one deception after another. I work at gi2c more than year ago and I think legally they are not scam - just shady operashun. Yeah, they cheat people out of deposits money, but they do it legally. Read gi2c "Terms And Conditions" and you be to see that the "Refundable Deposit" and "100% Guaranteed Satisfaction" have condishuns. yuni many times joked "people are to lazy to read all that shit".

I was asked many times to make fake invitation letters with photoshop. If I refuse I will be to be fired if I refuse. So I make like I do not know to use PS software. He do himself sometime or make others to do. I was there when employee abby go crazy about money they do not pay her and when police people come to get Tommy the gi2c visa guy. Many people be there that day. I also work same time be julete, mary, zack, via, abby, rita, andrew, isis, johnathan, and paul. So many people come and to go at gi2c. Only vivi, mary, rita, and isis stay more than 1 year.

I leave becuz of argument with yuni over this illegal invitation letter I make attach here. The law of China say internship must not be more than 90 day. But since he trick the intern to pay double he must have a invitation letter to say 180 day. I refuse to make company and the intern to break law of China. So he do it by himself and tell me to look for a new job. Before September 1, 2013 it be okay to have 6 month internship but not after this day. Many employee who leave do not get paid what is owed by company and I know 2 other employee who make guverment complain about money not paid.

Instead of doing the right thing, Gi2c concocts a scheme to use third parties that both sign up at tbj on the same day to blame a former employee 16 MONTHS AFTER HE RESIGNED, while the President officially blames "one of our competitors" for their bad reputation. So if Gi2c really is a victim, if they really are an honest company with nothing to hide, then let their president step up, and answer the below questions straight away and tell us about Pakistani women who assumed the fake names of "Barbara Wilson" and "Haley Gilbert" are calling university students from his non-existent "London Office", the day the PSB suddenly appeared at their office to arrest the most senior employee in the office for visa fraud. Answer these questions down below truthfully will prove there has been no slander nor libel involved here:

Whoever leaked that first edited email claiming there was an attempt at blackmail is probably the same malicious asshole who lied that the messenger was also a "wanted pedophile". Red herring diversions are great when they are true. But knowingly making unsupported false assertions is just evil. Anyone with a brain between their ears is invited to read all of page 5 of this thread and the below emails that were deliberately blocked and/or deleted so the public could only see one side of this story. It took the moderator 13 days to finally admit that Gi2C is a paid advertiser here at TBJ and also admit that "Stefano" is a Gi2C sock puppet (yet he is still allowed to post).

Now Google "Gi2C Pakistan scam" and the read what yuo find along with this here <https://www.callercenter.com/#01143600872.html>

Those of you who know any former Gi2C employees, go ahead and call them and ask them why Gi2c employee Tracy went to the Labor Board and how many other employees got cheated on their pay, and how many were asked to forge invitation letters of other companies using photoshop. Ask them what percentage of the clients are angry and want refunds within two weeks of arriving to China. Here are some of the eleven emails you were not supposed to see. The lawyer and police said that the others should not be posted on line. Where is the blackmail? Anthony tried to help Yuri solve his "internet problem" at least three times and Yuri in his typical Jewish/Chinese way kept complaining about the price, so in the last email it is clear that Anthony stopped trying to help him. If anyone says these emails are fake, I would make the same argument for the first email presented on page 1 of this thread.

Steve Down is the UK webmaster who resigned from Gi2C over ethical issues. He is very easy to find on the internet at shaolin.steve@.... Contact him directly and ask him what he thinks about Gi2C and this thread.

About the photo at the cop shop... one of the sock puppets here (Stafano or the Jap guy) just printed out this thread and took it to a local cop shop. Maybe they said "This guy Anthony ate my dog, or is flirting with my wife, or exposed himself to my kid" Who knows what they said. They are the ones who created this photo opp. If and when the lawyers get involved the truth will all come out. There is a lot of malice and moderator bias in this thread as evidenced by inserting the head of Anthony in every post that disagrees with the sock puppets.

Supposedly the rules of this forum prohibit "attacking the messenger" and users are advised to attack the message, but in the interest of protecting yet another dishonest TBJ advertiser, even the moderator ignores the message and trashes the messenger. Does any past or present Gi2C employee out there deny the Pakistani boiler room, or deny the arrest of Tommy, or deny that clients are told to submit fraudulent visa applications????? So far the president of Gi2C has not denied any of this, and his silence on the above questions speaks volumes IMO.

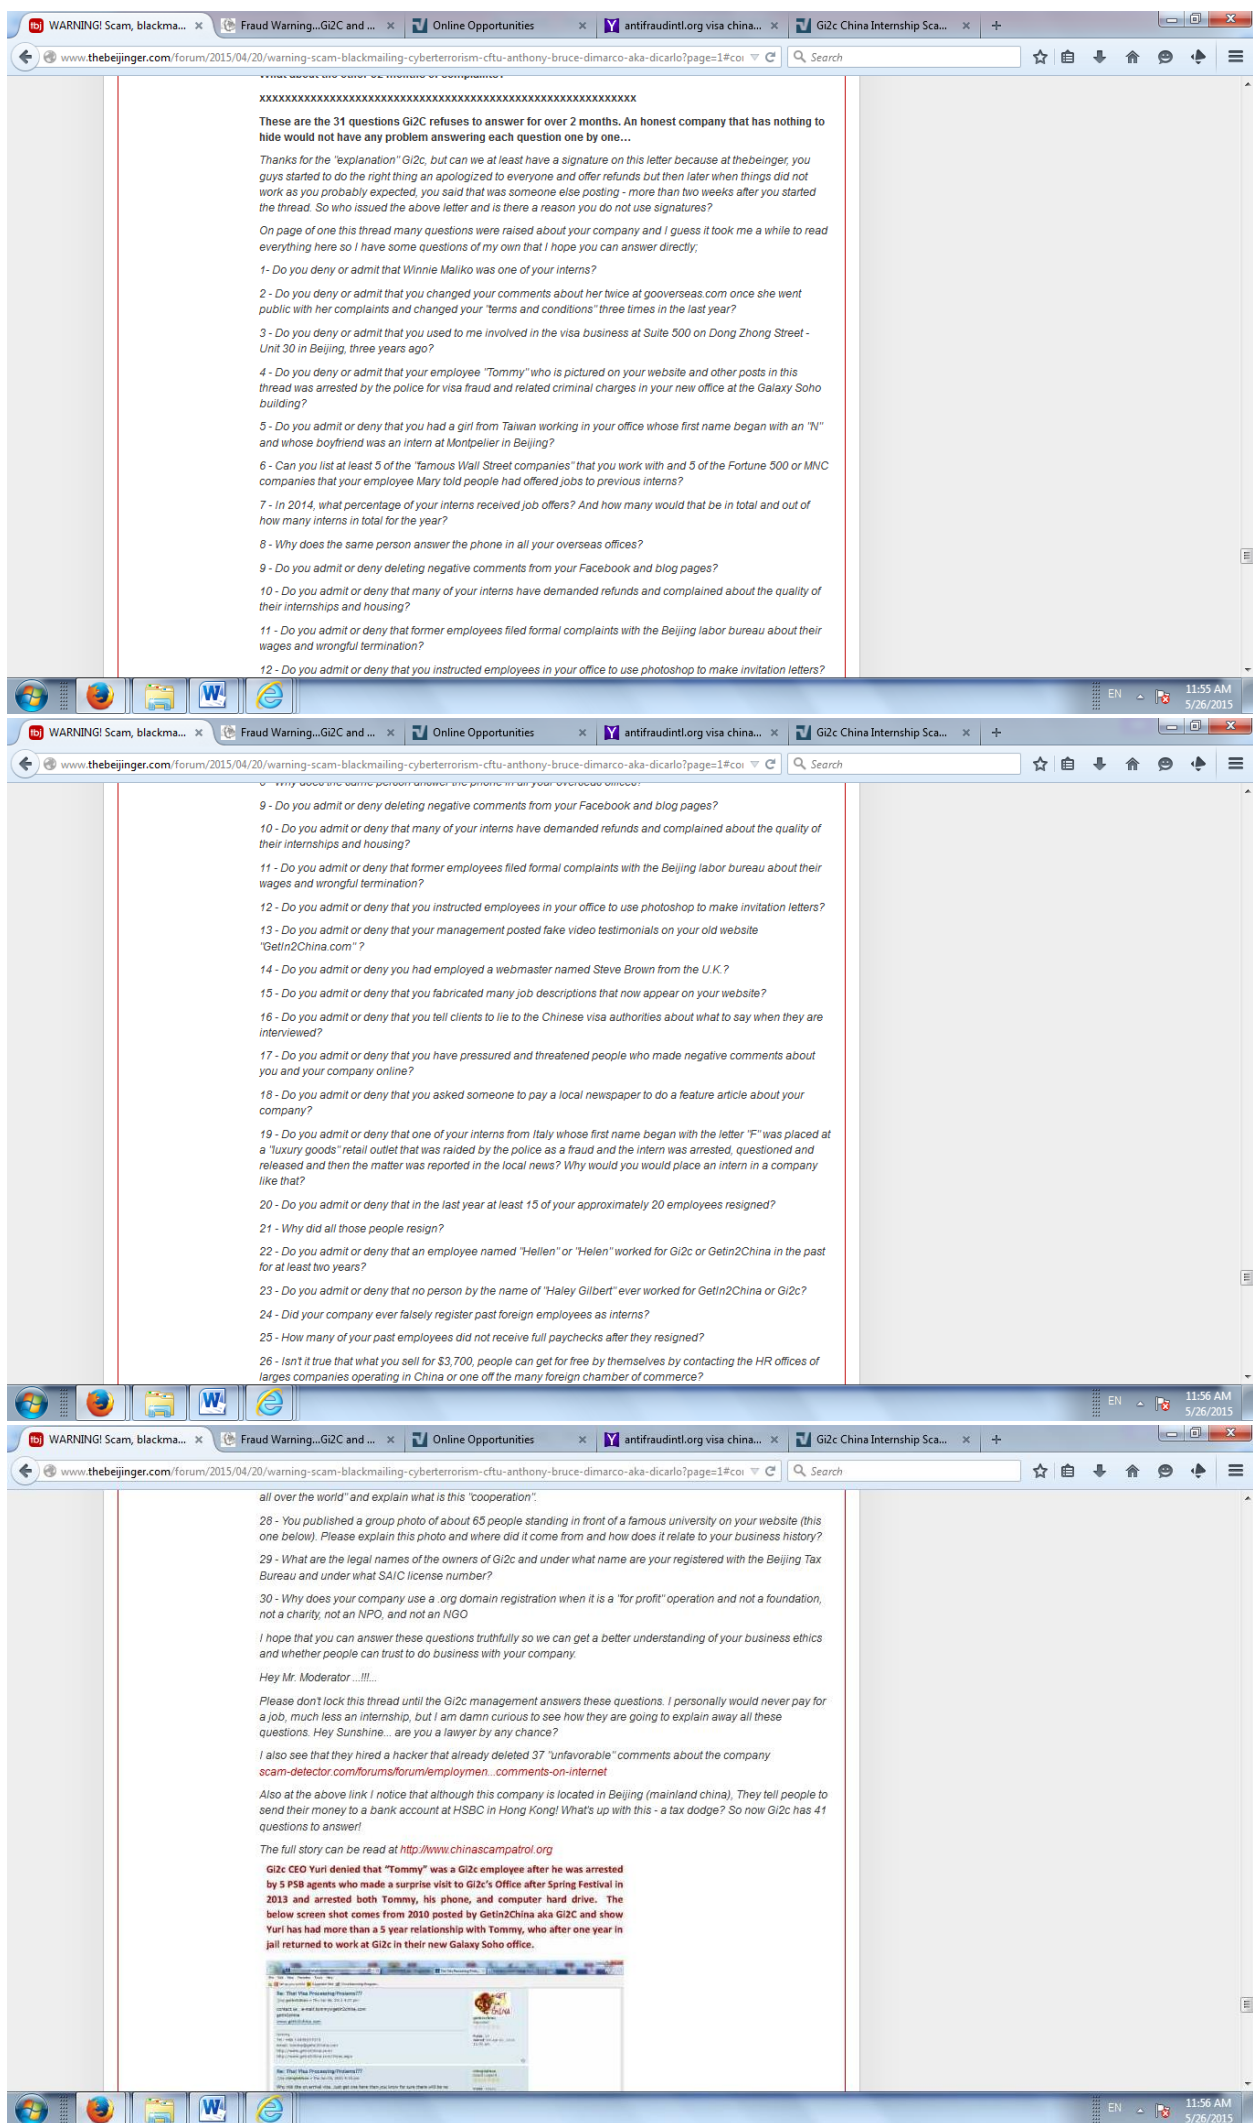

Last but by no means least, complaints about Gi2c and Getin2China go back to 2011 and even these two here from 2013 were made 6 & 4 months before Bruce aka Anthony ever went to work for the company, but this inconvenient fact is ignored. Why? Because it doesn't fit the "victim story" Gi2C is now claiming. <http://www.wallstreetoasis.com/forums/gi2c-get-into-china-internship-program> and <http://www.wallstreetoasis.com/forums/get-into-china-gi2c-internship-program>, and here are all the sites deleted by "Boris" (Yuri's hacker friend) As you can see from this one below - wiped from Scam.com the complaint is filed from a 4 year veteran user (signed up at Scam.com in 2011) posted this complaint back in January of 2015 - again it does not fit the Gi2C story that some disgruntled employee went on a rampage of revenge in March of 2015. So IMO Gi2c is trying to fit a square peg into a round hole, rather than just admit they did some shady shit in the past and now they have changed their ways (hopefully they did).

At this link you will see that Gi2C HAS A 5 YEAR HISTOR OF COMPLAINTS at this link: <http://scam-detector.com/forums/forum/employment-scams/428-gi2c-china-internship-scammers-hired-hackers-to-delete-negative-comments-on-internet?p=788#post788>

This BS about blaming an employee who resigned more than 16 months ago, simply does not hold water friend. What about the other 32 months of complaints?

These are the 31 questions Gi2C refuses to answer for over 2 months. An honest company that has nothing to hide would not have any problem answering each question one by one...

Re: That Fake Processing/Interview...
The below photos show Tommy only a few days before his arrest in 2013 and his most recent photo back at work in 2015 with his patron employer Yuri who uses Tommy to get black visas for all of his Russian women friends and some interns who legally do not qualify for an internship visa. Many intern applicants like Winnie Maliko were told to lie on their visa applications, which is a felony crime that can get an intern jailed for up to 2 years and a criminal record.

To the left you see Tommy (standing to the right in front of the painting), together with Yuri in their old Gi2cChina office located near the Russian embassy. Originally at the bejinger.com Yuri claimed he did not know any "Tommy" but after this photo came out, Yuri said he was not an employee. But on the Gi2C website, Tommy is listed and shown as part of "Our Team". There is nothing wrong in giving a man a second chance, but why lie about it? <http://www.gi2c.org/team-team.html>

Why do they want their clients to lie? Because if they don't they will have to refund their money because of this: <http://totallyexpat.com/global-immigration-news/china-china-eliminates-internship-training-visas-foreign-students/>. At the above link you will find the email sent to Gi2c victim Winnie Maliko and if you want to know why they blocked her from posting here, contact her directly at Linked. She has nothing to hide.

What is most important about this thread is the TBJ is helping to cover-up for a foreigner caught in the act of ripping off other foreigners. Believe what you like friends, but the TBJ only cares about saving advertising dollars here. Look for what has been hidden from you and be your own judge.

Btw... The last time I checked, people don't get arrested for telling the truth nor exposing a scam. And in case you forgot, the mod admitted "Stefano is Gi2c" and he is also "Boogie Blaster", Gi2C.Steve, Gi2C.Anthony, Gator, and formerly banned as "stefan" his real name - a former job recruiter from Expertise Education who was arrested and deported as a convicted felon in 2014 by the PSB (working without a Z visa and recruiting a dozen other teachers to also work illegally without a Z visa). This is the bitter ax he has to grind. He is now works as a troll for Gi2c. He asserts and claims, but never proves. All the above links PROVE - not just claim.

By this time tomorrow I will be banned and blocked and this post will be deleted - just like all the others. The first 10,000 viewers of this thread know that there were once 167 posts on this thread. Screen shots of all of them are available to all who ask at Fedex6767@hotmail.com.
